Final Action Next Week On Tax Cut, Is Favored

80 Million To Benefit In March

$11.5 Billion Is Going to Spenders

WASHINGTON (AP) — An $11.5-billion tax cut, largest in the nation's history, is ready for the final formalities expected to put more money into the pockets of 80 million American taxpayers by mid-March.

Senate and House conferees completed work on the 400-page measure Wednesday. The House is expected to pass the compromise bill next Tuesday, with Senate action coming either the same day or next Wednesday. Little opposition is anticipated.

President Johnson is then expected to sign the bill early the following week. The first effects of the bill will come in reduced withholding of taxes in paychecks dated eight days after the measure is signed—either March 11 or 12.

19 PC Average

The reductions average about 19 per cent of present individual taxes. Rates for some 550,000 corporations are also being cut.

Conference agreement climaxed a solid year of concentrated work in rewriting dozens of provisions in the U.S. tax code.

House hearings began on the bill in February last year, just after the late President John F. Kennedy asked Congress for a massive tax cut to try to solve many of the nation's economic problems.

Johnson followed his predecessor in putting the tax cut measure at the top of his legislative agenda along with civil rights.

The reductions are expected by the administration to provide a stimulus aimed at boosting the 1964 economy and providing healthy long-run effects on unemployment and other problems.

The new withholding rate is expected to pump an extra $800 million into the economy each month.

The biggest administration victory came in the last-minute decision Wednesday to knock out a House provision reducing the capital gains tax on assets held two years or more.

There might have been trouble with the compromise measure in the Senate if this cut had been retained.

Save Revenue Loss

It would have lowered the capital gains rate to 40 per cent of the normal levy, with a 21 per cent ceiling, on profits made from sales of stock and other property held two years or more. The present rate is 50 per cent of the regular tax with a 25 per cent maximum.

Elimination of the provision saved a $260 million annual revenue loss in the long run.

The major provisions in the bill were the same in both Senate and House bills.

The new personal rate schedule will run from 14 to 70 per cent compared with 20 to 91 per cent now. About two-thirds of the cut is effective this year, retroactive to Jan. 1, and one-third in 1965.

For corporations, the present 52 per cent rate is reduced to 50 per cent in 1964, 48 per cent starting in next year.

The wage and salary withholding will drop from the present 18 per cent level to a new permanent 14 per cent rate eight days after the bill becomes law.

'Strikebreaker' Bill Brings 3-Way Split of GOP Leaders

By CHARLES STORER

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — The controversial "strikebreaker" bill, the source of a major labor-management conflict, has brought on a three-way split of the state's Republican leadership.

Lt. Gov. Malcolm Wilson declared Wednesday that he opposed the measure on the ground it would have an adverse affect on job opportunities.

Gov. Rockefeller earlier sidestepped taking a firm position on the issue, saying only that it was a very sensitive matter.

Floor Action Delayed

Assembly Speaker Joseph F. Carlino at one point had predicted that the bill would be passed by the Assembly. But floor action was delayed when pressure against the bill began to mount. Now a public hearing is being arranged, and possible revisions are under consideration.

The legislation would prohibit employers from hiring professional strikebreakers — persons who habitually offer to work in place of employes on strike.

A date for the hearing has not been set.

Other Matters

In other activities in state government:

—State Police pushed an investigation into reports that a lobbyist boasted he had keys and free access to the Capitol offices of 10 legislators. Senate Majority Leader Walter J. Mahoney asked Wednesday for the investigation and denounced the unidentified lobbyist in an angry Senate speech as "this faker, this boastful cynic."

—The Senate passed and sent to the Assembly Wednesday a package of bills designed to tighten state controls on on firearms. Democrats complained the bills did not go far enough. The principal measure would prohibit convicted criminals or the mentally ill from having rifles or shotguns except with special police permission.

The strikebreaker dispute raged mostly behind the scenes. Raymond R. Corbett, president of the State AFL-CIO, has called passage of the measure a "must" in the present session.

Aid Rushed, Quake Isle In Rubble

ANGRA DO HEROISMO, Terceira, Azores (AP) — Tents, medicine and food were rushed to homeless thousands on Sao Jorge today after a wave of earthquakes crumbled the island's main town to rubble.

19,000 Remain

An emergency evacuation that brought more than 1,000 Sao Jorge islanders to nearby Terceira was stopped Wednesday when the six-day series of quakes subsided. The other 19,000 inhabitants chose to stay on the island.

The American freighter Steel Director joined nine British, Norwegian, Italian and Yugoslav ships in removing dazed refugees. Two landing craft from the U.S. Air Force Base at Lajes, on Terceira's eastern shore, brought the refugees from the larger ships to shore.

Most of the 1,600 buildings in the area of Velas, Sao Jorge's chief town, were reported destroyed.

"The news we have is that all is desolation and ruins in that once happy sector of the island" the district governor said.

Rosais Township also was reported heavily damaged.

Over 1,000 Tremors

Antonio Lourerio, a refugee, said he lost count of the tremors, which began last Friday. "There must have been over 1,000 of them," he reported.

Jose Miniz Madruga said he and many others got away with only the clothes they wore after the quakes wrecked their homes.

Many of the homeless assembled at Calheta, an east coast village, to await rescue.

There was speculation that the seismic shocks were the result of a volcano building up on the ocean floor. All of the nine Azores islands except Santa Maria are of volcanic origin.

Push Private Talks On Truce in Cyprus

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Diplomats negotiated privately today on proposals to keep the peace in Cyprus as Britain began flying nearly 2,000 more troops to the eastern Mediterranean island.

Security Council debate on the Cyprus crisis was in recess until Friday afternoon, and there were no sure prospects for agreement on proposals for an international force to take over enforcement of the shaky cease-fire between the Greek and Turkish Cypriot communities.

U.S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson called on the council Wednesday to endorse a Western proposal to bolster the British troops on Cyprus with soldiers from other nations.

Seeking to avoid Soviet intrusion into the dispute, Stevenson pointedly added that composition of the force would require the approval of Cyprus and her three guarantors under the 1960 independence treaties — Britain, Turkey and Greece.

Stevenson also urged the council to call on Cyprus and her three protectors to designate U.N. Secretary-General U Thant as an impartial mediator.

The U.S. delegate spoke after Chief Soviet Delegate Nikolai T. Fedorenko charged the 1960 treaties had been imposed on Cyprus and denounced the British force as a Western plot to establish a North Atlantic Treaty Organization bridgehead in the eastern Mediterranean.

Backing the Greek Cypriot government of President Makarios, Fedorenko demanded that the council first give guarantees for Cyprus' territorial in-

No Time Is Left for Uniformity

Redistricting Is Seen a State Job

WASHINGTON (AP) — Outside of some complaining and possibly a committee hearing for the official record, Congress isn't likely to do anything this year about the Supreme Court ruling that congressional districts should be more uniform in population.

"For one thing," a highly placed House Democrat said privately, "we just don't have time this year to deal with such a complicated subject. For another thing, most of us think it's none of our business how the states map out their districts."

Can't Get Action

Chairman Emanuel Celler, D-N.Y., of the House Judiciary Committee long has advocated that Congress take the lead in trying to get more uniformity in congressional redistricting. He introduced a bill to do that more than a year ago but has been unable to obtain action in his own committee.

He said he would try again this year but wasn't optimistic about success.

Another proposal not expected to gain acceptance came from Texas congressmen. They are seeking legislation that supports the Supreme Court decision but preserves present districts until state legislatures can act in their regular sessions. Such a bill would prevent the 23 Texas congressmen from having to run at large this November.

Decision Stayed

A three-judge federal court at Houston has ruled the present Texas districts unconstitutional, but the decision has been stayed pending an appeal.

Mrs. Hughes and her pet dog, Shep, made their way to safety after she tried unsuccessfully to extinguish the fire, which she told a Freeman reporter, started back of the kitchen stove from an overheated pipe.

Rifton fire companies in command of Chief Walter Bailey and St. Remy firemen responded to a call sounded shortly before 5:55 p. m., and on arrival in the vicinity of the Hughes home

Residents Busy Digging Out After 10 to 18-Inch Snowfall

Residents of Ulster County today joined the Southeast in the mamouth job of digging out.

The second major snowstorm this week dumped nearly 11 inches on Kingston and as much as 18 inches in mountain areas of Ulster and Greene counties before heavy precipitation dissipated into flurries early Wednesday afternoon.

No serious accidents attributed to the storm were reported. However the Associated Press reported one accidental death involved a nine-year-old in a sledding mishap at Weschester County.

Temperature Rising

Kingston City Engineers said 10½ inches of new snowfall was recorded as a water content of .65. Melting conditions increased with the temperature rising above the freezing mark. The overnight low was 26.

Leeds State Police reported a 14-inch snowfall in the Catskill area and as much as 18 in the mountains of the county.

Slippery highway conditions were reported this morning with highway department crews beginning sanding operations on hills and at intersections.

Roland Green, Ulster County highway superintendent said plows were out again this morning clearing shoulders and drifts on highways plowed yesterday and that sanding operations would follow to alleviate danger on hills and intersections.

Clear Vehicles: Cole

Charles Cole, superintendent of public works for the city, meanwhile called for public cooperation today in keeping vehicles off the city streets in order for snow-loading crews to go into action at 11 tonight in the uptown business section.

He said crews were out all night after Monday's storm and "skeleton crews" remained on duty today in isolated trouble spots for "trimming-up" and sanding operations. He said the latter crews would keep working all day today.

Cole said that all refuse collections would be on schedule.

The Thruway was reported clear and wet from New York City to Rochester and beyond the highway was slushy with some icy spots.

All major arteries were clear and passable and town highway department crews were still clearing lesser used roads this morning.

Driver, 3 Pupils Hurt as Onteora Bus Crashes Tree

The driver and three grade school children were injured this morning when an Onteora School bus left the highway between Big Indian and Oliverea and struck a tree headon, Town of Shandaken Constable Robert Grennie reported.

The driver of the bus operated by Pine Hill-Kingston Bus Corp., Kingston, Howard SeeBold of Phoenicia was taken to Benedictine Hospital by Gormley's ambulance suffering from severe lacerations of the forehead.

4 Pupils in Bus

Constable Grennie reported there were four children in the bus, but only three complained or injuries.

The injured were identified as follows:

Myrtle Craig, 8, of Big Indian, was apparently uninjured.

The children were taken to the Maxwell home nearby where they were given first aid until a school station wagon transported them to the office of Dr. Charles A. Quinn of Phoenicia, Onteora school physician.

Examined and Sent Home

All were examined by tht doctor and sent home.

Constable Grennie said the bus was proceeding south on the road between Big Indian and Oliverea when near the Eilzabeth House, a boardinghouse, the steering arm apparently snapped and the bus veered to the right and struck a large tree headon. Grennie reported the highway

East Coast Is Hit Hard By Storm

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A snow storm spawned in the Gulf of Mexico slammed into the Eastern Seaboard Wednesday, with gale-force winds piling drifts up to six feet from North Carolina to Maine.

The affected areas were expected to have a "breather" today, with snow flurries, light rain or just cloudy weather forecast.

The storm closed many schools and slowed plane, train, auto and bus traffic. Numerous sports and social events were canceled.

Six Foot Drifts

Drifts were six feet deep in northern Virginia; five feet on Maryland's secondary roads. Near Carlisle in central Pennsylvania the snow measured 25 inches, as it did in Martinsburg, W.Va.

The Baltimore and Washington, D.C., areas were practically bypassed. Baltimore got only a few inches of snow and rain prevailed in the nation's capital. Trains from Washington to Philadelphia were up to a half hour late.

Windy in New York

New York City escaped with 4 to 6 inches of snow, but gusty winds up to 32 miles per hour caused some power failures.

Westchester County, north of the city, and the Catskill Mountain area were hit hard, with snow accumulations of up to a foot. In Upstate New York the snow depths were: Albany, 6 to 8 inches; Glens Falls, 4 inches; Syracuse and Rome, 2 inches; and Rochester and Utica, 1 inch.

10 Inches in N. J.

Bergen County in New Jersey had 8 to 10 inches.

Also in New Jersey, the storm prevented refueling operations at McGuire Air Force Base,

Also to be featured are an outdoor sporting and camping area, with boats, trailers and camping equipment. The show committee reported sale of booths "running well ahead of last year's at this date. Allen Fights for Power on Aid To Guard Centralization System

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — The state education commissioner says that "unwise use of millions of dollars" would result if he is stripped of power to withhold state school aid.

Commissioner James E. Allen Jr. took that position Wednesday after the Assembly approved two identical bills that remove the commissioner's "power to blackjack" school districts into centralizing against their will.

Sponsors of the bills are critical of a section of the education law that gives the commissioner power to withhold state aid if he finds that granting the aid would hamper centralization of districts under the Education Department's master plan.

The measures were approved on a voice vote and passed on to the Senate.

After the Assembly vote, the commissioner made public a letter he wrote earlier this month to Assemblyman Alonzo L. Waters, R-Orleans. Waters was the lone dissenter in voting on the bills yesterday.

Allen wrote that the department planned to introduce legislation that he said would "eliminate the widespread dissatisfaction" and at the same time achieve the department's objective "to make the incentive for centralization sufficient attractive to accelerate action."

He sail the department proposals also would "safeguard the interests of the taxpayers... in seeing that state funds are not wasted on unnecessary school construction."

But Allen said that repeal of the present law without "an adequate incentive replacement would seriously set back educational progress in the state for many years to come."

He added that only five out of 80 requests for aid had been turned down under the disputed law, adopted two years ago.

Despite the intention of the law, Allen's letter said, "school district reorganization in the state has come to a virtual standstill...Thousands of young people are being denied opportunities for a comprehensive high school education by virtue of residing in districts too small to provide such opportunities."

"Many of the high schools in these small districts "can and should be eliminated through district reorganization," Allen said.

The Assembly discussion was on a measure introduced by Perry B. Duryea, R-Suffolk. The bill was adopted. An identical

STUDY EXPOSITION PLAN—A Lions Club exposition, this year to be the, "Kingston Lions Home and Auto Show," is to be "bigger and better," Jack Reynolds, show chairman, said today. It is to be held April 14 through 18, and an auto show is added to "the already popular home show." Also to be featured are an outdoor sporting and camping area, with boats, trailers and camping equipment. The show committee reported sale of booths "running well ahead of last year's at this date. The enthusiasm by local business concerns is very rewarding, and we hope to wrap up our sales well ahead of target date," Reynolds said. Allen Fights for Power on Aid To Guard Centralization System

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — The state education commissioner says that "unwise use of millions of dollars" would result if he is stripped of power to withhold state school aid.

Commissioner James E. Allen Jr. took that position Wednesday after the Assembly approved two identical bills that remove the commissioner's "power to blackjack" school districts into centralizing against their will.

Sponsors of the bills are critical of a section of the education law that gives the commissioner power to withhold state aid if he finds that granting the aid would hamper centralization of districts under the Education Department's master plan.

The measures were approved on a voice vote and passed on to the Senate.

After the Assembly vote, the commissioner made public a letter he wrote earlier this month to Assemblyman Alonzo L. Waters, R-Orleans. Waters was the lone dissenter in voting on the bills yesterday.

Allen wrote that the department planned to introduce legislation that he said would "eliminate the widespread dissatisfaction" and at the same time achieve the department's objective "to make the incentive for centralization sufficient attractive to accelerate action."

He sail the department proposals also would "safeguard the interests of the taxpayers... in seeing that state funds are not wasted on unnecessary school construction."

But Allen said that repeal of the present law without "an adequate incentive replacement would seriously set back educational progress in the state for many years to come."

He added that only five out of 80 requests for aid had been turned down under the disputed law, adopted two years ago.

Despite the intention of the law, Allen's letter said, "school district reorganization in the state has come to a virtual standstill...Thousands of young people are being denied opportunities for a comprehensive high school education by virtue of residing in districts too small to provide such opportunities."

"Many of the high schools in these small districts "can and should be eliminated through district reorganization," Allen said.

The Assembly discussion was on a measure introduced by Perry B. Duryea, R-Suffolk. The bill was adopted. An identical

80 Million To Benefit In March

$11.5 Billion Is Going to Spenders

WASHINGTON (AP) — An $11.5-billion tax cut, largest in the nation's history, is ready for the final formalities expected to put more money into the pockets of 80 million American taxpayers by mid-March.

Senate and House conferees completed work on the 400-page measure Wednesday. The House is expected to pass the compromise bill next Tuesday, with Senate action coming either the same day or next Wednesday. Little opposition is anticipated.

President Johnson is then expected to sign the bill early the following week. The first effects of the bill will come in reduced withholding of taxes in paychecks dated eight days after the measure is signed—either March 11 or 12.

19 PC Average

The reductions average about 19 per cent of present individual taxes. Rates for some 550,000 corporations are also being cut.

Conference agreement climaxed a solid year of concentrated work in rewriting dozens of provisions in the U.S. tax code.

House hearings began on the bill in February last year, just after the late President John F. Kennedy asked Congress for a massive tax cut to try to solve many of the nation's economic problems.

Johnson followed his predecessor in putting the tax cut measure at the top of his legislative agenda along with civil rights.

The reductions are expected by the administration to provide a stimulus aimed at boosting the 1964 economy and providing healthy long-run effects on unemployment and other problems.

The new withholding rate is expected to pump an extra $800 million into the economy each month.

The biggest administration victory came in the last-minute decision Wednesday to knock out a House provision reducing the capital gains tax on assets held two years or more.

There might have been trouble with the compromise measure in the Senate if this cut had been retained.

Save Revenue Loss

It would have lowered the capital gains rate to 40 per cent of the normal levy, with a 21 per cent ceiling, on profits made from sales of stock and other property held two years or more. The present rate is 50 per cent of the regular tax with a 25 per cent maximum.

Elimination of the provision saved a $260 million annual revenue loss in the long run.

The major provisions in the bill were the same in both Senate and House bills.

The new personal rate schedule will run from 14 to 70 per cent compared with 20 to 91 per cent now. About two-thirds of the cut is effective this year, retroactive to Jan. 1, and one-third in 1965.

For corporations, the present 52 per cent rate is reduced to 50 per cent in 1964, 48 per cent starting in next year.

The wage and salary withholding will drop from the present 18 per cent level to a new permanent 14 per cent rate eight days after the bill becomes law.

NEW ENVOY—Andrew V. Corry, 61-year-old foreign service officer, is the new U.S. ambassador to the African nation of Sierra Leone. He succeeds A.S.J. Carnahan in the post.

Allen Says Big Cities Should Run Own Schools

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—Control of the purse strings as well as authority to set policy in local public education belongs in the hands of school boards in the state's six largest cities, the state education commissioner contends.

Commissioner James E. Allen Jr. urged the Legislature yesterday to make it possible for the "Big Six" to have financially independent school systems.

Allen testified at a hearing in favor of proposed constitutional amendments affecting New York, Buffalo, Syracuse, Rochester, Albany and Yonkers.

The measures would authorize voters in each city to set up independent school systems that could levy taxes and incur debt to support the schools, as the other school districts in the state now may do.

School systems in the six major cities are dependent on their city governments for financial support.

"From the standpoint of sound education planning, Allen said, "It is essential that the same body which is responsible for formulation of policy also be empowered to finance the undertakings which their judgment determines is required."

But, Allen said, "some form of check on taxing authority must accompany fiscally independent status." As possible checks he proposed a referendum by the voters to pass on tax increases or a constitutional or statutory tax limit.

Clash Is Expected Over 16.9 Billion ForArmsProgram

WASHINGTON (AP) — A House clash was expected today over a $16.9-billion military authorization bill that includes funds for bomber and interceptor development which are opposed by Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara.

The House Armed Services Committee, over McNamara's objections, added $92 million—$52 million for research on the bomber, the rest for the interceptor—to the huge authorization bill for the fiscal year starting July 1.

The dispute pits McNamara and his faith in missiles against the Air Force and the majority of the Armed Services Committee and their faith in manned bombers.

A fight on the House floor was signaled when four members of the committee filed a minority report opposing the addition of the funds. The four are Reps. Samuel S. Stratton, D-N.Y., Otis G. Pike, D-N.Y., Jeffery Cohelan, D-Calif., and Lucien N. Nedzi, D-Mich.

These four fought last year against the committee when it authorized extra money—again not requested by McNamara—for the RS70 plane pushed by the Air Force.

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—A Cuban exile publication claims missiles are being hidden in caves drilled in the Cayajabos area of western Pinar Del Rio Province.

Rafael Oller, editor of the exile magazine Dignity, said only Soviet military personnel are allowed to enter the area.

He said his information came from underground sources in Cuba.

Two Have Bills Aimed at Rides To Far Schools

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Two Republican lawmakers proposed today to halt the state education commissioner's move toward ending racial imbalance in the public schools.

Sen. Norman F. Lent of Nassau County and Assemblyman George E. Van Cott of Westchester County introduced bills that would make it unlawful to assign pupils to schools on the basis of their race, color, religion or national origin.

Lent said the purpose of the legislation was to "prevent the commission of education from forcing local school districts to transport pupils out of their neighborhoods to distant schools solely for the purpose of achieving racial balance."

Lent cited the order of Education Commissioner James E. Allen Jr. directing the Malverne school board last June to end racial imblance in its elementary schools. At the same time, Allen asked other school districts to report on steps they were taking to advance integration. Some districts are putting integration plans into effect.

A State Supreme Court justice nullified the Malverne order, but the Education Department is appealing the decision.

Similar legislation was introduced last Monday by Assemblyman Lucio F. Russo, R-Staten Island.

20th Century Poses Big Threat To Historic Sites, Landmarks

EDITOR'S NOTE — For observance of February as National History Month, Stephen S. Waligurski, historian of the Town of Hurley has prepared the following article calling attention to the fading away of historic sites and landmarks in the progressive 20th century. An accompanying painting shows the community of Hurley 100 years ago which has undergone drastic changes due to highway construction.

By STEPHEN S. WALIGURSKI
Historian, Town of Hurely

Will America's historic communities, historic sites and landmarks survive the 20th century? One's first thoughts tend to be positive, but on further thought one comes to an unexpected conclusion. The deeper one evaluates the problem he finds that uncertainty and concern dominate his hope for the preservation of a part of this nation's heritage.

Many communities have witnessed numerous changes within their own environments, much of which have not benefited the existing historic landmarks. In cities, villages, and hamlets webs of destruction spread from a central point destroying or obscuring historic structures and sites and with them a realistic definition of a part of American heritage. In their places are these threads of 20th century architecture in all their varied shapes forming outward. Who knows how large the web may grow? Will the web continue to carry the sting of complete destruction and internal devastation of houses of history? Yes. Only the well established and the well financed structures will succeed in penetrating the hard cover of disinterest.

Much has been lost because we have failed to stimulate a genuine interest in true Americana and the importance of our American heritage. Instead we have permitted advocates of "economic expediency", "economic feasibility", and "the new look'" to destroy a great part of our American heritage. The further America moves into the 20th century, the more the American individual becomes a greater threat to the memory of our total heritage.

Blurs Historical View

In addition, the accumulation of events in three hunderd years has crowded man's activities and interests. It is also this type of environment along with the political and sociological indifference in today's society which tends to blur the view upon the historical landscape.

From all this an individual has developed, possessing a distorted vision of the past, a limited knowledge of history, and an unreliable appreciation of the artifacts of history.

For generation there has been a rapid conversion toward an industrial economy. Communities challenged by these modern problems face the compulsions brought about by an environment which man feels must fit his 20th century needs. As a result historic structures are smothered, strangled, or destroyed.

A Great Conflict

The immediate task of those interested in the preservation of America's heritage is to recognize the fact that in modern Americans there exists a conflict between his desire to build and his determination to destroy. Each year the American's view of the past becomes increasingly dimmed, his appreciation of the real and the true heritage is confused amidst a restless and tense society. Unless more of the nation's population can be motivated toward a "sincere appreciation" of America's heritage, more rapidly will an important part of its historic culture disappear.

We need to form a judgment of the times by looking more closely at what we have learned as a new generation. It is true that the present and previous generations have not adequately prepared the great majority of Americans to intelligently appreciate our early heritage. Of the few, the appreciation they possess and exercise comes not from the cradle but out of effort and interest, out of inquitiveness, and a belief in keeping alive in fact and memory the monuments, traditions, and culture of generations past.

The men and women who settled here, the men and women who founded this nation and the men and women of generations after prized their homes and modes of living—even to the extent of defending them with their lives. We are their heirs—and if we cannot find cause for those things we have inherited we are certain to diminish their importance in history and perhaps lose some completely.

From all this an individual has developed, possessing a distorted vision of the past, a limited knowledge of history, and an unreliable appreciation of the artifacts of history.

For generation there has been a rapid conversion toward an industrial economy. Communities challenged by these modern problems face the compulsions brought about by an environment which man feels must fit his 20th century needs. As a result historic structures are smothered, strangled, or destroyed.

A Great Conflict

The immediate task of those interested in the preservation of America's heritage is to recognize the fact that in modern Americans there exists a conflict between his desire to build and his determination to destroy. Each year the American's view of the past becomes increasingly dimmed, his appreciation of the real and the true heritage is confused amidst a restless and tense society. Unless more of the nation's population can be motivated toward a "sincere appreciation" of America's heritage, more rapidly will an important part of its historic culture disappear.

We need to form a judgment of the times by looking more closely at what we have learned as a new generation. It is true that the present and previous generations have not adequately prepared the great majority of Americans to intelligently appreciate our early heritage. Of the few, the appreciation they possess and exercise comes not from the cradle but out of effort and interest, out of inquitiveness, and a belief in keeping alive in fact and memory the monuments, traditions, and culture of generations past.

The men and women who settled here, the men and women who founded this nation and the men and women of generations after prized their homes and modes of living—even to the extent of defending them with their lives. We are their heirs—and if we cannot find cause for those things we have inherited we are certain to diminish their importance in history and perhaps lose some completely.

Two Have Bills Aimed at Rides To Far Schools

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Two Republican lawmakers proposed today to halt the state education commissioner's move toward ending racial imbalance in the public schools.

Sen. Norman F. Lent of Nassau County and Assemblyman George E. Van Cott of Westchester County introduced bills that would make it unlawful to assign pupils to schools on the basis of their race, color, religion or national origin.

Lent said the purpose of the legislation was to "prevent the commission of education from forcing local school districts to transport pupils out of their neighborhoods to distant schools solely for the purpose of achieving racial balance."

Lent cited the order of Education Commissioner James E. Allen Jr. directing the Malverne school board last June to end racial imblance in its elementary schools. At the same time, Allen asked other school districts to report on steps they were taking to advance integration. Some districts are putting integration plans into effect.

A State Supreme Court justice nullified the Malverne order, but the Education Department is appealing the decision.

Similar legislation was introduced last Monday by Assemblyman Lucio F. Russo, R-Staten Island.

FREEDOM'S ROLL-CALL

During the current observance of Freedoms Foundation Roll-Call, the attention of the public is focused on the values and responsibilities of the American Way. This year's theme, "You Don't Miss Freedom Until You Lose It," is aimed at making every citizen more cognizant and appreciative of his heritage.

Throughout the nation this week, Americans are being asked to reflect on freedom and to recall that in the 187 years since our forefathers wrote the Constitution there have been numerous attempts to alter it and abridge the rights and privileges we have come to take for granted.

Fortunately, none succeeded because our people were alert to the threats. In modern times, however, we face more sophisticated and more dangerous threats to our Freedoms. They are more dangerous because they do not come as direct assaults on our rights and privileges but as oblique and carefully obscured attacks on our minds.

These attacks are subtly conceived and subtly disseminated among us by propagandists who seek to convince us that the enemies of free enterprise and the American way of life wish to improve our time-tested system of government by relieving us of responsibilities. They seek by softening phrases and catch words to reduce our ability to recognize encroachment on our rights as citizens.

AGE: A LITTLE WHITE LIE

The well-known tendency of the gals to skimp just a little bit when telling their ages is costing the government money. (In all fairness, male fibbing is just as frequent—well, almost.)

It seems that this desire to appear younger than we are results in what demographers call "age heaping," and this raises hob with their population charts. That is, ages tend to congregate around certain numbers when it is obvious that people aren't born in clumps like that.

Armed with a $14,700 grant from the National Science Foundation, Prof. Melvin Zelnik of Ohio State University will attempt to ascertain the amount of age heaping in the nonwhite population in census from 1880 to 1960. The professor previously completed a similar study of the white population.

He found that people tend to give their ages in numbers ending in zero or five. He estimates that about 33 per cent of white females who reported themselves to be 40 years old in the 1890 census were actually some other age. (It's a safe assumption that it was not a lower age.)

But in the 1960 census, Prof. Zelink found extremely heavy heaping on age 59. Seems a lot of people didn't like to admit they were born in the last century.

NOT SO CONFIDENTIAL

A most serious question has been raised in the Bobby Baker case. It is of sufficient importance to warrant consideration insofar as possible outside a partisan framework, even though Republican members of Congress raise the question.

The charge is that confidential information about the background of Don B. Reynolds, a key witness in the Baker investigation, was "leaked" to a columnist with the idea of discrediting Reynolds' testimony. The data concerned Reynolds' activities while a State Department foreign service officer and as an Air Force major. The FBI and the Department of Defense are blamed for the leak.

The matter is particularly serious, as Senator Scott has noted, because the information "was denied to proper officials of the United States Senate." Data withheld from Senate investigators somehow got out for publication.

The Army-Navy-Air Force Journal was quick to charge that this "undermined" servicemen's right to have their personnel files kept confidential. That is true. An even greater danger is involved, however—the danger that confidential data will be used selectively to discredit and intimidate witnesses at congressional hearings. This is an intolerable practice that should be nipped in the bud.

The White Sox owner says they'll win the pennant and picks the Yankees for fourth or fifth. The Yanks are beaten every year about this time—on paper.

The Johnson-Lord Home talks end in agreement—including the agreement to disagree on trade with Communist nations.

'These Days'

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN

WILL NIXON'S GOOD IDEA BE HEEDED?

Richard Nixon's call for a "summit" meeting of Western leaders to discuss a possible concert of policy toward various Communist nations makes good sense, even though it will hardly be heeded. A meeting is needed because all of the Western nations, the U.S. included, have been derelict in their duties toward each other. A conference held in the spirit of the philosopher Spinoza ("No recriminations, no regrets") might still save us all from piecemeal disaster that threatens us.

The conference should take the form of a reasoned revival meeting, if that is not a contradiction in terms. There should be no artificial attempt to separate the gripes from the confessions, for these have a necessarily dependent relationship. To sum it up in a Gertrude Stein sing-song, we have all hurt each other because we have all hurt each other.

The British, for example, have been hurt in Southeast Asia because of U.S. policy toward Sukarno's Indonesia. We built up Sukarno to the point where he menaces the former British territories that constitute Malaysia. The British Commonwealth nation of Canada, on the other hand, has hurt the U.S. in the Far East by propping up Mao Tse-tung's China with its wheat deals. Thus gripe and confusion would run together if Prime Minister Sir Alec Douglas-Home and President Lyndon Johnson were to go arm in arm to the mourners' bench. As for the French, de Gaulle's grievances with us are as strong as ours are with him. And the errors balance, too.

In regard to the failure of the West to present a united front toward the Soviet East and its little Cuban extension in the Caribbean, everybody — and therefore nobody — has been to blame. The U.S. professes to see a profound difference between selling wheat on credit to Russia and selling machinery to Castro. U.S. policy toward the Soviet Union is not to topple it, but to contain it on the ground that it can be rendered peaceful. We want to overthrow Castro on the other hand, because he fishes in troubled waters all through Latin America, and we think it would be to French and British advantage to let us do it before he causes any new revolutions.

The British and French, however, have come to think of Castro as permanently entrenched and amendable to kindness if it will help him to overcome his difficulties. They have good reason to regard Communist Cuba as having come to stay. The U.S. has talked about provoking a new revolution in Cuba for five years now, but it has all been "wind without rain." This being so, the French and the British think quite logically that they might as well get what they can out of the new status quo in the Caribbean. The argument that the U.S. should be humored on Cuba because Castro connives in Venezuela and Panama fails to impress anybody, for Russia, to whom everybody now sells wheat and complicated machinery, has been sending its incendiary agents all over the world for more than forty years.

With every leader willing to say "mea culpa," the West might be able to make a new beginning in its efforts to keep the Communist cancer from spreading. But, despite Richard Nixon's proposal, nothing is likely to be done. Great nations have never been noted for willingness to confess error. And in the present instance, greed is an open temptation to new mistakes. The lure of trade is too strong to resist.

So what do we face? It looks as though the U. S. will be pushed into experiments at "neutralization" in Southeast Asia and into acceptance of Castro as a fixed part of the Caribbean landscape. The day of the anti-Communist, one fears, is just about over.

This does not mean that the anti-Communist has been wrong. For when virtually all of the uncommitted areas of the earth have been impoverished by accepting the Marxist way, the proud West will be confronted by the fact that a universal poorhouse makes a mighty feeble customer. For our greed, we will find ourselves economically isolated by almost universal poverty. Then we will turn inwards and rend ourselves. And anyone who is tactless enough to say "I told you so" will meet the usual fate of the prophet.

Glycerin Drops Harmless, But May Cause Soreness

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Q—In a recent answer you advised against using glycerin drops for dry throat. I have always used glycerin cough drops when I have laryngitis because they give me relief. But I am worried now about possible harmful effects. Please advise.

A—Glycerin cough drops have long been popular and are in no way dangerous. I have stopped recommending them, because after five or six, the lonzenges tend to make the tongue sore.

Q—These drugs were given to my mother during her stay in hospital: Lomotil, Polymagma, Modane, Durycin, Rynatuss, Orthoxicol, Rauwiloid, and Gerilet. What are they for?

A—This is indeed a formidable array of drugs. Diphenoxylate with atropine (Lomotil) slows the movement of the intestines. Polymagma is a complex mixture to check diarrhea. Danthron with d-calcium pantothenate (Modane) is given to restore tone to intestinal muscles. Durycin is an antibiotic mixture. Rynatuss is a complex mixture for coughs and postnasal drip. Orthoxicol is another complex mixture given to relieve bronchial spasm. Rauwiloid is a derivative of the tranquilizer, Rauwolfia serpentina. Gerilet is a multivitamin mixture with sex hormones specially designed for elderly people.

Q—I am in the mid-forties and have what my doctor calls chondromalacia of both kneecaps. What causes it and what can be done for it?

A—The cause of your trouble, which usually starts in the 20s, may have been a severe bruise, friction of the kneecap over some bony irregularities or spurs, or recurrent dislocation of the kneecap. There is a softening of the cartilage around the bone and in time it usually leads to arthritis. Most victims complain of pain on climbing stairs and tenderness to pressure over the kneecap. Movement of the knee may cause a grating noise and the knee may become weak. In the early stage of the disease complete rest should be tried because in many victims no other treatment is needed. If, however, in spite of rest the condition persists, an operation is advisable. Removing any spurs that may be causing the trouble and shaving away the softened cartilage has not been found to be very successful as the condition returns after such an operation. On the other hand complete removal of the kneecap usually gives excellent results.

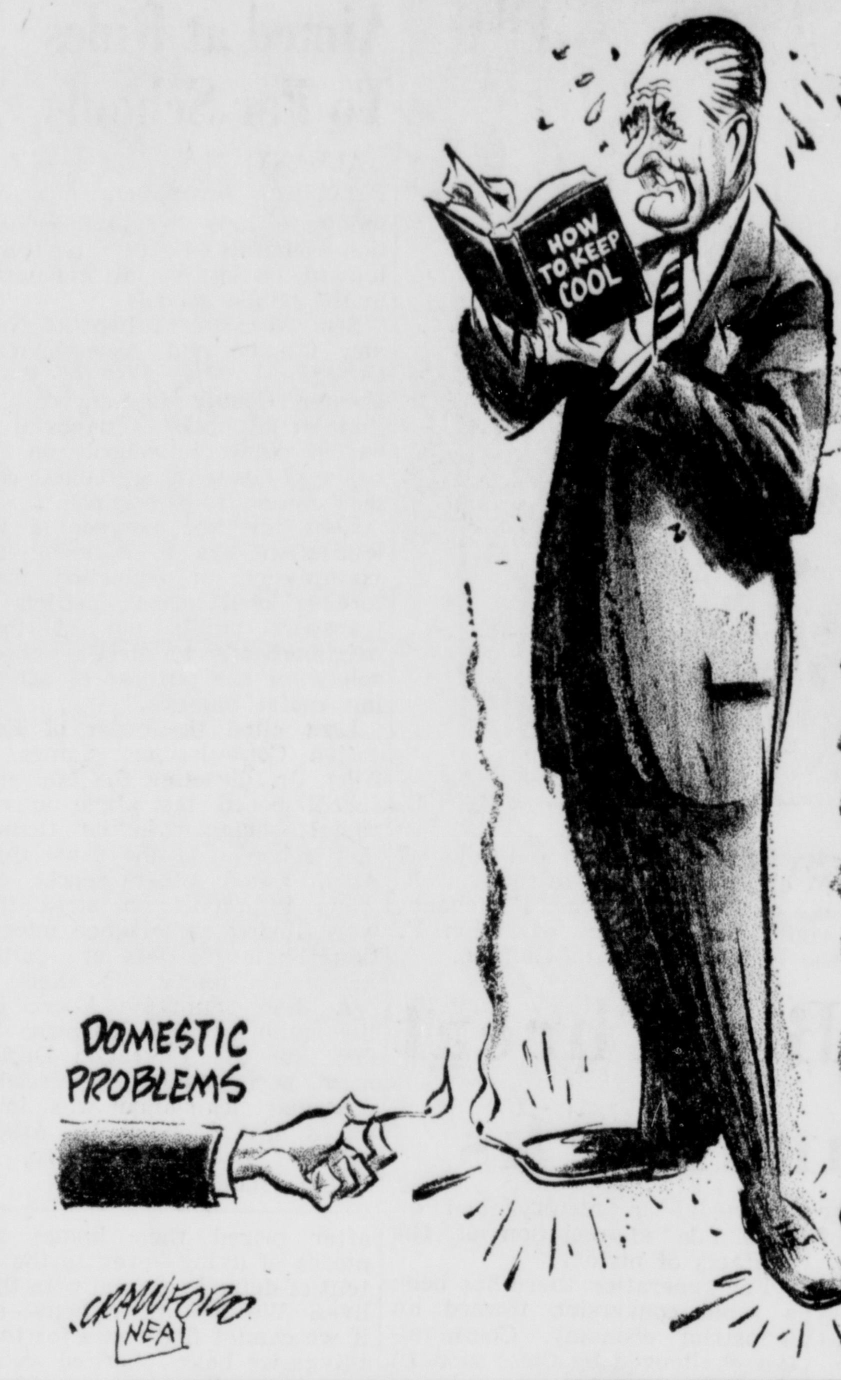
It Ain't Easy



Washington News

BY RAY CROMLEY
Washington Correspondent, Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — The success of President Johnson's strategy for Latin America hinges to an important degree on his talks with Mexico's President Adolfo Lopez Mateos.

The two men meet at Palm Springs and Los Angeles, Calif., February 21 and 22.

The Alliance for Progress has attempted to pressure social economic and political changes in Latin America. It has failed.

Assistant Secretary of State Thomas Mann has developed a program for Johnson which would shift responsibility to the Latin nations themselves. They would assume the initiative, do their own enforcing.

To make a system like that work, there must be a Latin leader. That leader must be a relatively large, economically growing, stable Latin state. Johnson's advisers believe it should also be a country which is gradually putting into effect the social and economic reforms they believe essential to economic progress and social stability. (They hold this is the only way to stop the growth of Castro communism.) It should be a country where U. S. Alliance for Progress programs have succeeded.

FOUR LATIN COUNTRIES QUALIFY for size — Argentina, Brazil, Chile and Mexico. Only Mexico meets all the criteria. That's why Johnson is using so much personal persuasion in getting Mexico to assume leadership. Mateos can exert great influence in having Mexico accept this challenge, even though his term as president ends this year.

Mexico, under Mateos, is one country where the Alliance for Progress and other U. S. private and government programs have done well of late.

Many U. S. companies have invested in local concerns. Firms such as Sears, Roebuck have taken a strong lead in the development of a wide group of Mexican-owned industries. The AFL-CIO has co-operated with Mexican unions and the Mexican government in helping build low-cost homes for Mexican workers. Private American-aided research has helped Mexican agricultural production markedly.

U. S. State Department men say Mexico has introduced key tax reforms, lured more funds from speculation into investment, pushed education and other social changes.

JOHNSON GOES INTO THESE MEETINGS with some excellent cards in his hand. He and Mateos are old friends. He made a big hit with the Mexican president a few years back. Mateos, on a visit to the United States and Canada, stopped over at the LBJ ranch. In his honor, Johnson flew the Mexican flag over the ranch, had in a host of friends.

President and Mrs. Johnson have close personal ties with Mexico and genuinely love the country. They honeymooned there and have returned many summers over the years. Mrs. Johnson's brother, an artist, lives in Taxco half of each year. Before moving to the White House she had been studying Spanish three times a week.

A few years ago the then Sen. Johnson intervened with a few sharp, effective phone calls when the State Department hesitated about opening a new border crossing the Mexicans wanted. He helped push through the ceding to Mexico of some disputed Texas land.

But what the Mexican leaders remember best is this small incident when Johnson was vice president:

He'd heard a group of young Mexican folk singers perform. After the concert he told them he'd like to show them Washington. They were thrilled. They assumed the vice president would send around his car and a guide. But Johnson himself showed up at their small hotel and personally took them around to see the sights, then invited them to dinner at his home that evening.

Do You Remember by Sophie Miller

Life has certainly complicated itself here and elsewhere in the last 25 or 30 years. Going back to 1916, before the days of paying on time, for a TV set, a refrigerator or a new plumbing system, we had the Kingston Gas and Electric Co. which had their offices at 611 Broadway. I do not know if at that time, or later, one had to put a quarter in the gas meter. Today you have to have a deposit with the Central Hudson, for at least two month's average use, depending on the size of family and equipment in the home, I take it.

It is difficult to think back to homes which were lit with gas, and the gas mantles that had to be replaced. I remember faintly, when Max Sherman, who worked in J. S. Fuller's lived over our store with his family, at 48 Broadway. Someone would be sent down in our store for change, so they could go to the cellar to put a quarter in the gas meter. We did not have that system in the store, so I asked how they knew it was low on money. It seems it used to flicker, or burn low.

I wonder where the Sherman family is today. They had a handsome boy, who used to play with me, when we were children. I cannot remember the parents, but whenever the mother gave a large thin slice of good pumpernickle bread spread with sweet butter to her son, she gave me one. My father did not approve of it at all, because in all families in those days, food was sort of mentally rationed. Families were proud, and seldom accepted charity, but were clean and saving. We had white bread in the house and salt butter, so this was a treat. In such cases my father sent me out to buy the same kind of bread and butter and would say, "if you want it, ask me for it, and we'll buy it, don't take from others." But it seemed to taste so good when someone gave it to me, that is why I remember the Max Sherman family so fondly.

Of course, today we are the most well equipped, the most modern municipality imaginable, but do we have the confidence, the peace and freedom which we had years ago, when we had Kingston Point Park, the Daylines, the excursions, the neighbors, who were poor, but had time for sympathy and understanding, and were always running about doing things for each other. I was brought up in a drugstore, so often heard things before they happened, as one would say. A new baby in a neighborhood, born at home of course, was a celebration. A death in a neighborhood was a day of sadness, and storekeepers closed their stores for the funeral. A child who misbehaved and it was brought to the attention of its parents, was no small event. Sometimes the parents brought the unruly child to the place of crime or destruction and the punishment was done there on the spot. Broken windows were often paid and put in by parents of the children who broke them.

This is now, all part of yesterday's living. Many professional people of today were the children of that 6th Ward, of the now Broadway East Urban Renewal, and graduates of School No. 3. The parents were remarkable, hard-working, proud people and demanded respect from their children and got it. In our time, a child did not dare to say to an older person, "Oh, you're old-fashioned, you don't know what you're talking about." Most children, good and bad feared the law in the form of policeman. They would not dare approach him, or toy with his nightstick, even if the man on the beat was speaking to his father. "Familiarity breeds contempt" was their code, in those days.

Who remembers at that time, the Day Nursery at 161 Hasbrouck Avenue. I remember the Day Nursery run by the Volunteers of America. They need one here for working mothers, I think, now.

Today in World Affairs

Happenings Abroad Could Make 1965 Year of Peril

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — What's going on beneath the surface today in national as well as international affairs can make the year 1965 perhaps the most critical in this century. During the eight months before the Presidential election, steps will be taken by foreign governments which could involve the United States in a series of crises that may begin to emerge after the Presidential election on Nov. 3.

What gives most concern at present is the behavior of the foreign governments which have deliberately construed the current election campaign in this country as giving them an opportunity to put into effect policies beneficial to themselves but harmful to the U. S.

Uufortunately, Presidential elections occur at a fixed time under the American Constitution and cannot be postponed to a more opportune moment, as under the parliamentary system. Foreign governments know that American Presidential campaigns are lengthy affairs, and that no President is going to risk his chance for re-election by plunging this country into a military crisis which could demand the drafting of more boys and cause the interruption of the normal lives of many citizens—to say nothing of the impact on the economic situation as a whole.

Confident that the President of the U. S. is virtually stalemated into a posture of inaction, foreign governments feel free to pursue their disturbing policies without fear of reprisals. This not only is true with respect to Castro in Cuba, but is related to the arrogant behavior of Panama and friction in other parts of Latin America.

So far as Southeast Asia is concerned, the position of the U. S. has deteriorated, and there are hints that American military forces will be withdrawn after November. This will be construed as a humiliating defeat for the American government. Were it not for the Presidential election, it is conceivable that the U. S. would take a more forthright position not only in Southeast Asia but toward her own allies who have created ill feeling in the U. S. by increasing their trade with Red China as well as with Cuba.

The strategy of the Democratic Administration appears to be to do nothing which will aggravate or "escalate" the international situation. There is a tendency in official quarters to soft-pedal what is going on behind the scenes in different parts of the world. The press is not being given all the facts about government moves on the international front or even about the happenings inside Latin America, some of which may well be more threatening than outwardly would appear. Policy-making seems to be predicated on the theory that the nation wants "peace at any price" and that this is the way to win a Presidential election.

Past experience should, however, have taught a lesson. In 1916, President Wilson was re-elected on the campaign "peace and prosperity" and "he kept us out of war." But within six. months after the election, the U. S. entered World War I.

President Roosevelt campaigned for re-election in 1940 with the cry "I hate war!" But a year after the election, the U. S. was plunged into World War II.

In both instances, the assumption of the enemy was that the U. S., for political reasons, would not enter the war. The Kaiser's government was confident of this and went on torpedoing American ships at sea in the belief that the U. S. would not take military action. Hitler also was sure that this country would not enter World War II in Europe and later persuaded Japan to attack the U. S. on the supposition that America would become so preoccupied with the conflict in the Pacific Ocean that it would not be able to be of much assistance in fighting the war in Europe.

Throughout these grave periods of history, foreign governments have underestimated the resoluteness of the American people. The Communist policy at the moment is to talk about disarmament and "peaceful coexistence," but the Communist drive to take over Latin America, Southeast Asia and Africa continues unabated. The United Nations is powerless to do much about it because Great Britain, France and the U. S. are in disagreement.

But usually these periods of apparent appeasement of a blustering enemy come to a sudden end when the latter overreaches himself and brings on a situation which simply does not permit the "peace at any price" attitude to be continued. This may produce the big crisis after the American Presidential election is over. Many member of Congress believe the President would be far stronger in the world, and even with his own public opinion, if he manifested a resolute policy rather than a passive and acquiescent attitude. Certainly the eight months before the election appear to be paving the way for crucial decisions in the year 1965.

FREEDOM'S ROLL-CALL

During the current observance of Freedoms Foundation Roll-Call, the attention of the public is focused on the values and responsibilities of the American Way. This year's theme, "You Don't Miss Freedom Until You Lose It," is aimed at making every citizen more cognizant and appreciative of his heritage.

Throughout the nation this week, Americans are being asked to reflect on freedom and to recall that in the 187 years since our forefathers wrote the Constitution there have been numerous attempts to alter it and abridge the rights and privileges we have come to take for granted.

Fortunately, none succeeded because our people were alert to the threats. In modern times, however, we face more sophisticated and more dangerous threats to our Freedoms. They are more dangerous because they do not come as direct assaults on our rights and privileges but as oblique and carefully obscured attacks on our minds.

These attacks are subtly conceived and subtly disseminated among us by propagandists who seek to convince us that the enemies of free enterprise and the American way of life wish to improve our time-tested system of government by relieving us of responsibilities. They seek by softening phrases and catch words to reduce our ability to recognize encroachment on our rights as citizens.

AGE: A LITTLE WHITE LIE

The well-known tendency of the gals to skimp just a little bit when telling their ages is costing the government money. (In all fairness, male fibbing is just as frequent—well, almost.)

It seems that this desire to appear younger than we are results in what demographers call "age heaping," and this raises hob with their population charts. That is, ages tend to congregate around certain numbers when it is obvious that people aren't born in clumps like that.

Armed with a $14,700 grant from the National Science Foundation, Prof. Melvin Zelnik of Ohio State University will attempt to ascertain the amount of age heaping in the nonwhite population in census from 1880 to 1960. The professor previously completed a similar study of the white population.

He found that people tend to give their ages in numbers ending in zero or five. He estimates that about 33 per cent of white females who reported themselves to be 40 years old in the 1890 census were actually some other age. (It's a safe assumption that it was not a lower age.)

But in the 1960 census, Prof. Zelink found extremely heavy heaping on age 59. Seems a lot of people didn't like to admit they were born in the last century.

NOT SO CONFIDENTIAL

A most serious question has been raised in the Bobby Baker case. It is of sufficient importance to warrant consideration insofar as possible outside a partisan framework, even though Republican members of Congress raise the question.

The charge is that confidential information about the background of Don B. Reynolds, a key witness in the Baker investigation, was "leaked" to a columnist with the idea of discrediting Reynolds' testimony. The data concerned Reynolds' activities while a State Department foreign service officer and as an Air Force major. The FBI and the Department of Defense are blamed for the leak.

The matter is particularly serious, as Senator Scott has noted, because the information "was denied to proper officials of the United States Senate." Data withheld from Senate investigators somehow got out for publication.

The Army-Navy-Air Force Journal was quick to charge that this "undermined" servicemen's right to have their personnel files kept confidential. That is true. An even greater danger is involved, however—the danger that confidential data will be used selectively to discredit and intimidate witnesses at congressional hearings. This is an intolerable practice that should be nipped in the bud.

'These Days'

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN

WILL NIXON'S GOOD IDEA BE HEEDED?

Richard Nixon's call for a "summit" meeting of Western leaders to discuss a possible concert of policy toward various Communist nations makes good sense, even though it will hardly be heeded. A meeting is needed because all of the Western nations, the U.S. included, have been derelict in their duties toward each other. A conference held in the spirit of the philosopher Spinoza ("No recriminations, no regrets") might still save us all from piecemeal disaster that threatens us.

The conference should take the form of a reasoned revival meeting, if that is not a contradiction in terms. There should be no artificial attempt to separate the gripes from the confessions, for these have a necessarily dependent relationship. To sum it up in a Gertrude Stein singsong, we have all hurt each other because we have all hurt each other.

The British, for example, have been hurt in Southeast Asia because of U.S. policy toward Sukarno's Indonesia. We built up Sukarno to the point where he menaces the former British territories that constitute Malaysia. The British Commonwealth nation of Canada, on the other hand, has hurt the U.S. in the Far East by propping up Mao Tse-tung's China with its wheat deals. Thus gripe and confusion would run together if Prime Minister Sir Alec Douglas-Home and President Lyndon Johnson were to go arm in arm to the mourners' bench. As for the French, de Gaulle's grievances with us are as strong as ours are with him. And the errors balance, too.

In regard to the failure of the West to present a united front toward the Soviet East and its little Cuban extension in the Caribbean, everybody — and therefore nobody — has been to blame. The U.S. professes to see a profound difference between selling wheat on credit to Russia and selling machinery to Castro. U.S. policy toward the Soviet Union is not to topple it, but to contain it on the ground that it can be rendered peaceful. We want to overthrow Castro on the other hand, because he fishes in troubled waters all through Latin America, and we think it would be to French and British advantage to let us do it before he causes any new revolutions.

The British and French, however, have come to think of Castro as permanently entrenched and amendable to kindness if it will help him to overcome his difficulties. They have good reason to regard Communist Cuba as having come to stay. The U.S. has talked about provoking a new revolution in Cuba for five years now, but it has all been "wind without rain." This being so, the French and the British think quite logically that they might as well get what they can out of the new status quo in the Caribbean. The argument that the U.S. should be humored on Cuba because Castro connives in Venezuela and Panama fails to impress anybody, for Russia, to whom everybody now sells wheat and complicated machinery, has been sending its incendiary agents all over the world for more than forty years.

With every leader willing to say "mea culpa," the West might be able to make a new beginning in its efforts to keep the Communist cancer from spreading. But, despite Richard Nixon's proposal, nothing is likely to be done. Great nations have never been noted for willingness to confess error. And in the present instance, greed is an open temptation to new mistakes. The lure of trade is too strong to resist.

So what do we face? It looks as though the U. S. will be pushed into experiments at "neutralization" in Southeast Asia and into acceptance of Castro as a fixed part of the Caribbean landscape. The day of the anti-Communist, one fears, is just about over.

This does not mean that the anti-Communist has been wrong. For when virtually all of the uncommitted areas of the earth have been impoverished by accepting the Marxist way, the proud West will be confronted by the fact that a universal poorhouse makes a mighty feeble customer. For our greed, we will find ourselves economically isolated by almost universal poverty. Then we will turn inwards and rend ourselves. And anyone who is tactless enough to say "I told you so" will meet the usual fate of the prophet.

Glycerin Drops Harmless, But May Cause Soreness

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Q—In a recent answer you advised against using glycerin drops for dry throat. I have always used glycerin cough drops when I have laryngitis because they give me relief. But I am worried now about possible harmful effects. Please advise.

A—Glycerin cough drops have long been popular and are in no way dangerous. I have stopped recommending them, because after five or six, the lonzenges tend to make the tongue sore.

Q—These drugs were given to my mother during her stay in hospital: Lomotil, Polymagma, Modane, Durycin, Rynatuss, Orthoxicol, Rauwiloid, and Gerilet. What are they for?

A—This is indeed a formidable array of drugs. Diphenoxylate with atropine (Lomotil) slows the movement of the intestines. Polymagma is a complex mixture to check diarrhea. Danthron with d-calcium pantothenate (Modane) is given to restore tone to intestinal muscles. Durycin is an antibiotic mixture. Rynatuss is a complex mixture for coughs and postnasal drip. Orthoxicol is another complex mixture given to relieve bronchial spasm. Rauwiloid is a derivative of the tranquilizer, Rauwolfia serpentina. Gerilet is a multivitamin mixture with sex hormones specially designed for elderly people.

Q—I am in the mid-forties and have what my doctor calls chondromalacia of both kneecaps. What causes it and what can be done for it?

A—The cause of your trouble, which usually starts in the 20s, may have been a severe bruise, friction of the kneecap over some bony irregularities or spurs, or recurrent dislocation of the kneecap. There is a softening of the cartilage around the bone and in time it usually leads to arthritis. Most victims complain of pain on climbing stairs and tenderness to pressure over the kneecap. Movement of the knee may cause a grating noise and the knee may become weak. In the early stage of the disease complete rest should be tried because in many victims no other treatment is needed. If, however, in spite of rest the condition persists, an operation is advisable. Removing any spurs that may be causing the trouble and shaving away the softened cartilage has not been found to be very successful as the condition returns after such an operation. On the other hand complete removal of the kneecap usually gives excellent results.

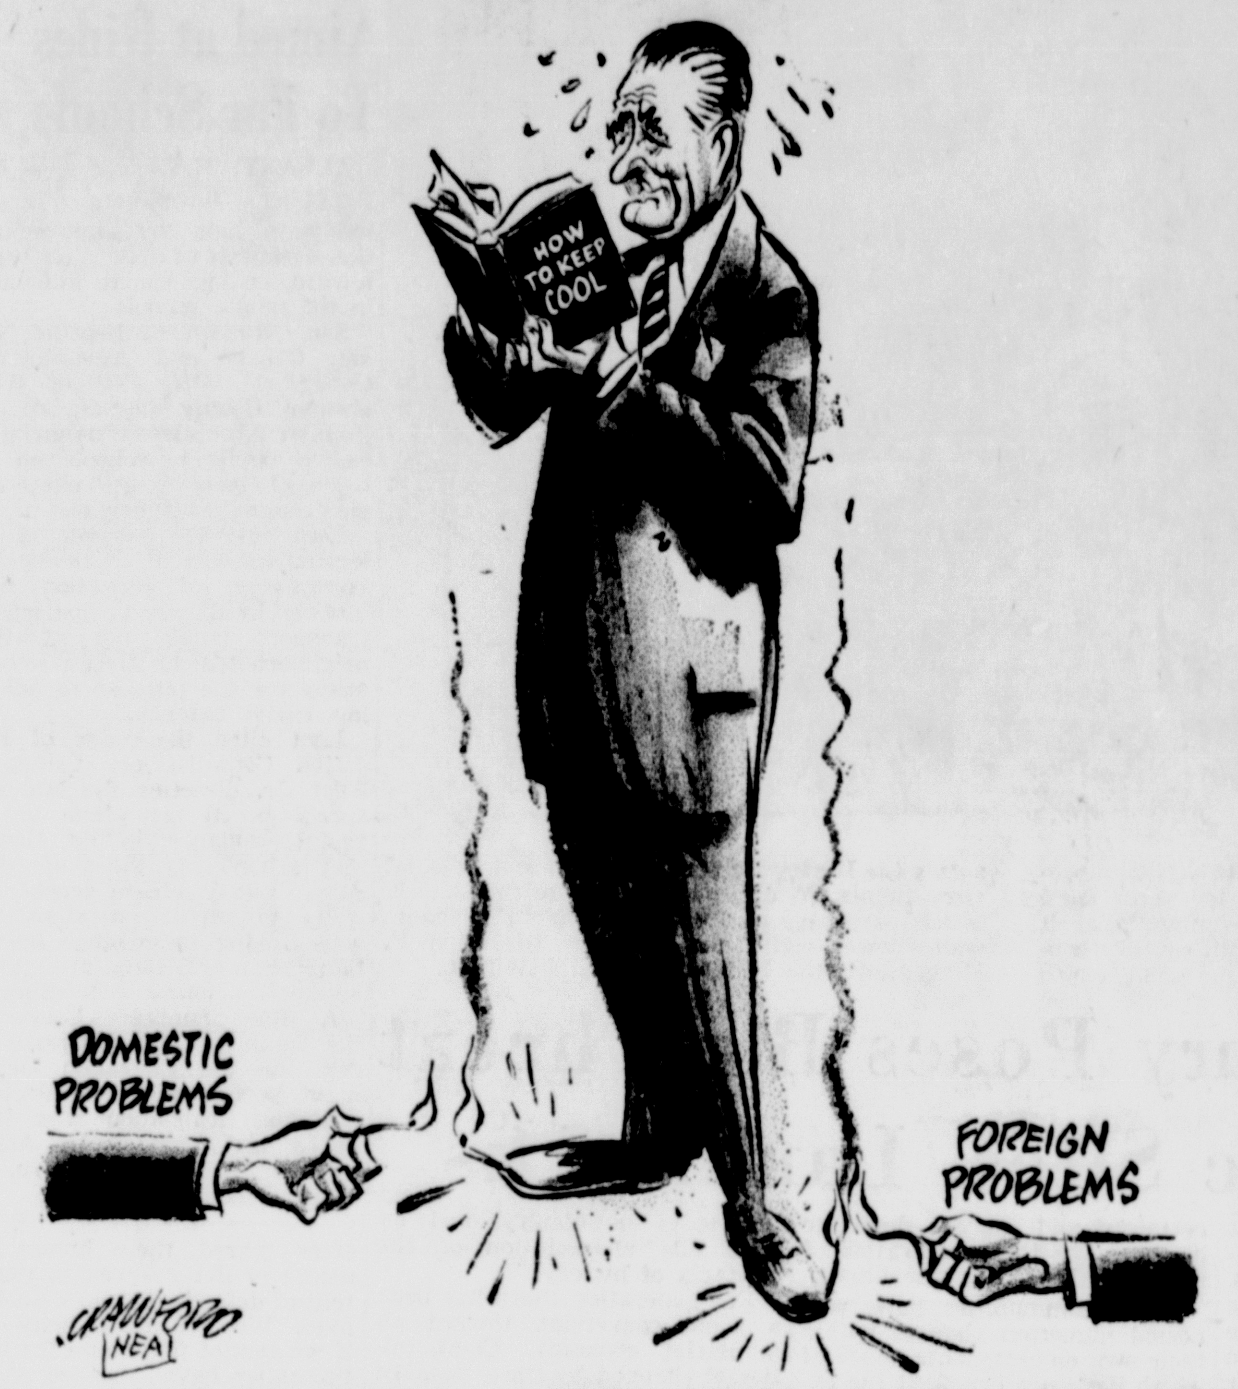
It Ain't Easy



Washington News

BY RAY CROMLEY
Washington Correspondent, Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — The success of President Johnson's strategy for Latin America hinges to an important degree on his talks with Mexico's President Adolfo Lopez Mateos.

The two men meet at Palm Springs and Los Angeles, Calif., February 21 and 22.

The Alliance for Progress has attempted to pressure social economic and political changes in Latin America. It has failed.

Assistant Secretary of State Thomas Mann has developed a program for Johnson which would shift responsibility to the Latin nations themselves. They would assume the initiative, do their own enforcing.

To make a system like that work, there must be a Latin leader. That leader must be a relatively large, economically growing, stable Latin state. Johnson's advisers believe it should also be a country which is gradually putting into effect the social and economic reforms they believe essential to economic progress and social stability. (They hold this is the only way to stop the growth of Castro communism.) It should be a country where U. S. Alliance for Progress programs have succeeded.

FOUR LATIN COUNTRIES QUALIFY for size — Argentina, Brazil, Chile and Mexico. Only Mexico meets all the criteria. That's why Johnson is using so much personal persuasion in getting Mexico to assume leadership. Mateos can exert great influence in having Mexico accept this challenge, even though his term as president ends this year.

Mexico, under Mateos, is one country where the Alliance for Progress and other U. S. private and government programs have done well of late.

Many U. S. companies have invested in local concerns. Firms such as Sears, Roebuck have taken a strong lead in the development of a wide group of Mexican-owned industries. The AFL-CIO has co-operated with Mexican unions and the Mexican government in helping build low-cost homes for Mexican workers. Private American-aided research has helped Mexican agricultural production markedly.

U. S. State Department men say Mexico has introduced key tax reforms, lured more funds from speculation into investment, pushed education and other social changes.

JOHNSON GOES INTO THESE MEETINGS with some excellent cards in his hand. He and Mateos are old friends. He made a big hit with the Mexican president a few years back. Mateos, on a visit to the United States and Canada, stopped over at the LBJ ranch. In his honor, Johnson flew the Mexican flag over the ranch, had in a host of friends.

President and Mrs. Johnson have close personal ties with Mexico and genuinely love the country. They honeymooned there and have returned many summers over the years. Mrs. Johnson's brother, an artist, lives in Taxco half of each year. Before moving to the White House she had been studying Spanish three times a week.

A few years ago the then Sen. Johnson intervened with a few sharp, effective phone calls when the State Department hesitated about opening a new border crossing the Mexicans wanted. He helped push through the ceding to Mexico of some disputed Texas land.

But what the Mexican leaders remember best is this small incident when Johnson was vice president:

He'd heard a group of young Mexican folk singers perform. After the concert he told them he'd like to show them Washington. They were thrilled. They assumed the vice president would send around his car and a guide. But Johnson himself showed up at their small hotel and personally took them around to see the sights, then invited them to dinner at his home that evening.

Do You Remember by Sophie Miller

Life has certainly complicated itself here and elsewhere in the last 25 or 30 years. Going back to 1916, before the days of paying on time, for a TV set, a refrigerator or a new plumbing system, we had the Kingston Gas and Electric Co. which had their offices at 611 Broadway. I do not know if at that time, or later, one had to put a quarter in the gas meter. Today you have to have a deposit with the Central Hudson, for at least two month's average use, depending on the size of family and equipment in the home, I take it.

It is difficult to think back to homes which were lit with gas, and the gas mantles that had to be replaced. I remember faintly, when Max Sherman, who worked in J. S. Fuller's lived over our store with his family, at 48 Broadway. Someone would be sent down in our store for change, so they could go to the cellar to put a quarter in the gas meter. We did not have that system in the store, so I asked how they knew it was low on money. It seems it used to flicker, or burn low.

I wonder where the Sherman family is today. They had a handsome boy, who used to play with me, when we were children. I cannot remember the parents, but whenever the mother gave a large thin slice of good pumpernickle bread spread with sweet butter to her son, she gave me one. My father did not approve of it at all, because in all families in those days, food was sort of mentally rationed. Families were proud, and seldom accepted charity, but were clean and saving. We had white bread in the house and salt butter, so this was a treat. In such cases my father sent me out to buy the same kind of bread and butter and would say, "if you want it, ask me for it, and we'll buy it, don't take from others." But it seemed to taste so good when someone gave it to me, that is why I remember the Max Sherman family so fondly.

Of course, today we are the most well equipped, the most modern municipality imaginable, but do we have the confidence, the peace and freedom which we had years ago, when we had Kingston Point Park, the Daylines, the excursions, the neighbors, who were poor, but had time for sympathy and understanding, and were always running about doing things for each other. I was brought up in a drugstore, so often heard things before they happened, as one would say. A new baby in a neighborhood, born at home of course, was a celebration. A death in a neighborhood was a day of sadness, and storekeepers closed their stores for the funeral. A child who misbehaved and it was brought to the attention of its parents, was no small event. Sometimes the parents brought the unruly child to the place of crime or destruction and the punishment was done there on the spot. Broken windows were often paid and put in by parents of the children who broke them.

This is now, all part of yesterday's living. Many professional people of today were the children of that 6th Ward, of the now Broadway East Urban Renewal, and graduates of School No. 3. The parents were remarkable, hard-working, proud people and demanded respect from their children and got it. In our time, a child did not dare to say to an older person, "Oh, you're old-fashioned, you don't know what you're talking about." Most children, good and bad feared the law in the form of policeman. They would not dare approach him, or toy with his nightstick, even if the man on the beat was speaking to his father. "Familiarity breeds contempt" was their code, in those days.

Who remembers at that time, the Day Nursery at 161 Hasbrouck Avenue. I remember the Day Nursery run by the Volunteers of America. They need one here for working mothers, I think, now.

Today in World Affairs

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — What's going on beneath the surface today in national as well as international affairs can make the year 1965 perhaps the most critical in this century. During the eight months before the Presidential election, steps will be taken by foreign governments which could involve the United States in a series of crises that may begin to emerge after the Presidential election on Nov. 3.

What gives most concern at present is the behavior of the foreign governments which have deliberately construed the current election campaign in this country as giving them an opportunity to put into effect policies beneficial to themselves but harmful to the U. S.

Uufortunately, Presidential elections occur at a fixed time under the American Constitution and cannot be postponed to a more opportune moment, as under the parliamentary system. Foreign governments know that American Presidential campaigns are lengthy affairs, and that no President is going to risk his chance for re-election by plunging this country into a military crisis which could demand the drafting of more boys and cause the interruption of the normal lives of many citizens—to say nothing of the impact on the economic situation as a whole.

Confident that the President of the U. S. is virtually stalemated into a posture of inaction, foreign governments feel free to pursue their disturbing policies without fear of reprisals. This not only is true with respect to Castro in Cuba, but is related to the arrogant behavior of Panama and friction in other parts of Latin America.

So far as Southeast Asia is concerned, the position of the U. S. has deteriorated, and there are hints that American military forces will be withdrawn after November. This will be construed as a humiliating defeat for the American government. Were it not for the Presidential election, it is conceivable that the U. S. would take a more forthright position not only in Southeast Asia but toward her own allies who have created ill feeling in the U. S. by increasing their trade with Red China as well as with Cuba.

The strategy of the Democratic Administration appears to be to do nothing which will aggravate or "escalate" the international situation. There is a tendency in official quarters to soft-pedal what is going on behind the scenes in different parts of the world. The press is not being given all the facts about government moves on the international front or even about the happenings inside Latin America, some of which may well be more threatening than outwardly would appear. Policy-making seems to be predicated on the theory that the nation wants "peace at any price" and that this is the way to win a Presidential election.

Past experience should, however, have taught a lesson. In 1916, President Wilson was re-elected on the campaign "peace and prosperity" and "he kept us out of war." But within six. months after the election, the U. S. entered World War I.

President Roosevelt campaigned for re-election in 1940 with the cry "I hate war!" But a year after the election, the U. S. was plunged into World War II.

In both instances, the assumption of the enemy was that the U. S., for political reasons, would not enter the war. The Kaiser's government was confident of this and went on torpedoing American ships at sea in the belief that the U. S. would not take military action. Hitler also was sure that this country would not enter World War II in Europe and later persuaded Japan to attack the U. S. on the supposition that America would become so preoccupied with the conflict in the Pacific Ocean that it would not be able to be of much assistance in fighting the war in Europe.

Throughout these grave periods of history, foreign governments have underestimated the resoluteness of the American people. The Communist policy at the moment is to talk about disarmament and "peaceful coexistence," but the Communist drive to take over Latin America, Southeast Asia and Africa continues unabated. The United Nations is powerless to do much about it because Great Britain, France and the U. S. are in disagreement.

But usually these periods of apparent appeasement of a blustering enemy come to a sudden end when the latter overreaches himself and brings on a situation which simply does not permit the "peace at any price" attitude to be continued. This may produce the big crisis after the American Presidential election is over. Many member of Congress believe the President would be far stronger in the world, and even with his own public opinion, if he manifested a resolute policy rather than a passive and acquiescent attitude. Certainly the eight months before the election appear to be paving the way for crucial decisions in the year 1965.

Resolutions Bid More Action in War on Poverty

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — The AFL-CIO Executive Council drafted resolutions today calling on President Johnson to step up his war on poverty in general and on unemployment in particular.

Federal measures to reduce the nation's 4.6-million jobless total are "the key factor in the whole fight against poverty," said a spokesman for the council, which sets policy for AFL-CIO unions and their 13.5 million members.

"We are in favor of the idea of the war on poverty," the spokesman said, "and we want to see some action. It is not enough just to say this. There has got to be some legislative action."

He said demands the AFL-CIO will make on Johnson and Congress include:

1. An accelerated public works program "translated into immediate jobs."

2. An increase in the minimum wage, now $1.25 an hour, to $2 and expanding its coverage to millions of workers.

3. A shorter work week, with double pay to discourage overtime and spread employment.

Johnson already has proposed double pay for overtime in some industries and expanding minimum wage coverage but he has not acceded to labor demands to cut the work week to 35 hours. Labor considers this the essential measure to reduce unemployment.

Resolutions Bid More Action in War on Poverty

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — The AFL-CIO Executive Council drafted resolutions today calling on President Johnson to step up his war on poverty in general and on unemployment in particular.

Federal measures to reduce the nation's 4.6-million jobless total are "the key factor in the whole fight against poverty," said a spokesman for the council, which sets policy for AFL-CIO unions and their 13.5 million members.

"We are in favor of the idea of the war on poverty," the spokesman said, "and we want to see some action. It is not enough just to say this. There has got to be some legislative action."

He said demands the AFL-CIO will make on Johnson and Congress include:

1. An accelerated public works program "translated into immediate jobs."
2. An increase in the minimum wage, now $1.25 an hour, to $2 and expanding its coverage to millions of workers.
3. A shorter work week, with double pay to discourage overtime and spread employment.

Johnson already has proposed double pay for overtime in some industries and expanding minimum wage coverage but he has not acceded to labor demands to cut the work week to 35 hours. Labor considers this the essential measure to reduce unemployment.

Training Medical Teams to Aid in Nuclear Mishap

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army is creating special medical teams for emergency service in the event of a nuclear accident or incident within the United States.

There will be four such "radiological emergency medical teams," it was disclosed today.

"The plan is designed to handle nuclear accidents and to respond to disaster situations should they arise," the Army said.

Speeding With a Sail

MIAMI (AP) — Thirty-eight-year-old Jerry Chaplin of Miami is a severely paralyzed polio victim but is a nationally known puppeteer.

He and his wife, also a puppet expert, frequently present road shows and once staged a performance at the White House for Caroline Kennedy.

However, Chaplin has one blot on his record. He once was arrested during a hurricane for speeding in his wheelchair — which was equipped with a homemade sail.

Store Manager Is Slain First Day On Florida Job

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—Police sought clues today in the slaying of a 34-year-old man who was gunned down while serving his first day as manager of a Minit Market chain store.

The killing Tuesday night climaxed a series of 13 holdups at Minit Markets here in six months, several of them apparently by the same bandit—a youth armed with a .22 caliber rifle.

The victim was Jacob Deremer, formerly of Ellicotville, N. Y.

Eddie Jackson, son of the chain's owner, Julian Jackson, said he was talking on the phone Tuesday night with Deremer, manager of a newly opened store. They were discussing a jammed cash register.

Deremer suddenly stopped talking and Jackson said he heard a voice in the background say:

"Hey, buddy, how do you open this damned thing?"

Then Jackson heard the phone receiver fall at the other end and deep irregular breathing. He heard no shot, apparently because a radio was playing in the store and the television set was on in his home.

Police found Deremer lying in a corner of the store with the receiver of the wall telephone dangling over his head. He had been shot twice in the head and one in the shoulder by .22-caliber rifle bullets.

The robber apparently fled without any money because the jammed cash register could not be opened.

New Scare in Dallas

Divorcee Fires Shot At Man, Is Mistaken For Demo Candidate

DALLAS (AP)—A distraught divorcee took a wild shot in the busy Dallas air terminal Wednesday at a man she mistook, by her later account, for radio executive Gordon McLendon.

The bullet, fired from 15 feet at W. W. Dyer, 48, of Dallas, lodged in a small handbag carried by D. A. Peterson of Park Ridge, Ill. Both men were walking to board a 4:45 p.m. flight to Chicago.

Dyer's wife shoved the woman, Mrs. Elizabeth Stone, 47, to the floor, police said, as she tried to shoot again and the weapon jammed. An airline employe wrested the 32-caliber automatic pistol from Mrs. Stone.

McLendon, a candidate for U.S. senator in Texas' Democratic primary May 6, described the incident as an obvious attempt to assassinate him. He said he would ask Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy to order an FBI investigation.

City Detective Frank Mote said Mrs. Stone told him she had been upset since a hidden rifleman killed President Kennedy here Nov. 22.

She intended to kill McLendon, questioners quoted her as saying, because "he is a Communist and fools around with Cosa Nostra."

Mrs. Stone, who moved here recently from neighboring Fort Worth, bought the pistol last week in a Fort Worth department store, police related. She said she had never seen McLendon.

As the shot was fired in busy Love Field Terminal, McLendon was visiting at the home of a friend.

ATLANTIC, CITY, N.J. (AP)—Stan Musial, new head of the President's Physical Fitness Council, says he's in complete accord with the government report that smoking is a health hazard.

Musial, one of baseball's great stars, was appointed by President Johnson to head the council last Friday. He was asked if he'd urge Johnson to take a stand against smoking.

"I haven't been on the job long enough yet to know what I'm supposed to tell the President," he replied.

Musial was in Atlantic City to attend a conference of educators.

FOOD FOR AMERICANS

Prunes and Pork: A Swedish Delight

SOMETHING NEW is Swedish Pork Loin, Prune Gravy.

BY GAYNOR MADDOX
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

You need not be Swedish to enjoy this prune-studded roast loin of pork. All you need is a good appetite, and a willingness to try dishes that have a European accent.

The recipe for Pineapple Pepper Steak has a South Pacific slant. Try it for kicks.

Swedish Loin of Pork With Prune Gravy
(4-6 Servings)

3-4 pound pork loin
15-20 prunes
1½ teaspoons salt
1½ teaspoons ginger
Dash pepper
¼ cup chopped prunes for each cup of gravy

Trim excess fat from meat. Rinse prunes; cut in half and remove pits. Cut pockets in meat and insert prunes. This should be done at regular intervals, so a design will be formed when meat is sliced. Rub surface of meat with salt, ginger and pepper. Tie chops together if necessary with piece of string. Place in roasting pan. Roast uncovered in a slow oven (325 degrees) for 2 to 2½ hours. Remove roast and make gravy of pan drippings. To each cup of gravy add ¼ cup chopped prunes.

Pineapple Pepper Steak
(6 Servings)

Bright green pepper and pineapple tidbits accent the richly browned flank steak.

2 pounds flank steak
Salt, pepper and dry mustard
2 tablespoons fat for browning
3 tablespoons soy sauce
1 medium-sized green pepper
1 (8¾-ounce) can pineapple tidbits

Score flank steak on both sides and slash around edges to prevent curling. Season with salt, pepper and pinch of mustard. Brown in hot fat about 2 minutes on each side. Sprinkle with soy sauce. Slice green pepper in thin rings and spread over meat. Pour undrained pineapple tidbits evenly over and around meat and pepper. Cover and cook over medium heat, according to degree of doneness desired. Remove meat to hot platter. Bring sauce in pan to boil, scraping pan well to loosen drippings. Pour over meat. Garnish meat platter with border of noodles, if desired.

Port Ewen Collision Is Blamed on Snow

A two-car accident on West Main Street near Broadway, Port Ewen, was investigated Wednesday shortly before noon by Deputy Sheriff Emil T. Kuhnen Jr. No injuries were reported.

John D. MacDonald, 24, of 195 Quarry Street, Port Ewen, was entering West Main Street and turning left from a driveway about 100 feet from Broadway when his car and that of Ronald W. Hahn, 30, of Hoyt Street, Port Ewen, were in collision due to the snowy condition of the road. Hahan was traveling west on West Main Street at the time. Both cars were damaged about the fenders.

Petty 172 mph Auto Record

Daytona Beach, Fla., Feb. 8 (AP)—Richard Petty raised the stock car racing record to 171.919 miles an hour for a 50-miler today and, along with teammate Paul Goldsmith, established PLYMOUTH as the new hot car on Daytona International Speedway.

PETTY ROARED around the 2½-mile high banks and straights five seconds ahead of Jimmy Pardue of North Wilkesboro, N. C., in another Plymouth and left far behind the Fords which have been dominating major NASCAR events.

Goldsmith did much the same in an earlier 50-mile event and won the pole position for the rich Daytona 500, coming up Feb. 23.

Petty will start alongside him in the front row.

GOLDSMITH SET a record of 170.940 in his victory, but he held the mark only 50 minutes just as long as it took to clear the track, line up cars and run the final event.

Petty from Randleman, N. C., and Goldsmith, racing out of Mexico City, jumped off to early leads and finished well in front.

Doubt Survival Of 14 Missing From Grain Ship

NEW YORK (AP)—A Coast Guard cutter and planes continued searching the North Atlantic today for 14 men missing from the storm-battered British grain ship Ambassador, but their survival was considered improbable.

Captain Is Victim

Twenty of the 35 crew members have been rescued. The captain died.

Coast Guard area headquarters reported that a Dutch tugboat today took over the listing and abandoned Ambassador as a prize of the sea.

The Coast Guard cutter Coos Bay radioed early today that the tugboat Elbe put men aboard the Ambassador, they stopped flooding in the ship and the tug started towing her to the Azores Islands. The Elbe had sped to the Ambassador for salvage purposes and arrived Wednesday night.

Sent SOS Tuesday

Twenty-one of the men aboard the vessel when she began to take on water and listed badly were dramatically picked up by crewmen of the cutter and the Norwegian freighter Fruen. But Capt. Harry Strickland, master of the Ambassador, was dead when brought aboard the Coos Bay.

Tuesday morning, about 660 miles southeast of Halifax, N.S., the Ambassador radioed for assistance, saying its engines were dead and it was helpless in the heavy seas.

Troopers Probe Lobbyist Report On Keys, Access

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — State Police pressed an investigation today into reports that a lobbyist boasted he had keys and free access to the Capitol offices of 10 legislators.

The request for the investigation came Wednesday from Senate Majority Leader Walter J. Mahoney who said, "I condemn the slime of the lobbyist."

"I will do everything necessary to prosecute," Mahoney said in an angry speech in the Senate, "because there will not as long as I am on this floor be any of the antics perpetrated here by this faker, this boastful cynic."

The story of the lobbyist was reported in yesterday's New York Times in a discussion of the work of lobbyists and particularly members of the liquor lobby. The lobbyist was not identified.

Mahoney said he understood that the man in question was a labor lobbyist, not a liquor lobbyist. But he did not name him.

The Times story quoted the lobbyist as saying he had "the run of the offices of 10 legislators and had desk space in some of the offices.

Drop School Plan

SPRINGVILLE, N.Y. (AP)—Plans to establish a University of World Study have been dropped because of insufficient financial support in Western New York.

The International Institute Foundation, which planned the university, had envisioned construction of campuses for 2,000 students in Springville and an undisclosed site in Switzerland at a total cost of $34 million.

Dr. Warren L. Hickman, president of the foundation and a former dean of Ithaca College, said Wednesday the organization would be dissolved.

He said that, of the $664,000 sought to get the project underway, more than $100,000 had been pledged.

Divorcee Fires Shot At Man, Is Mistaken For Demo Candidate

DALLAS (AP)—A distraught divorcee took a wild shot in the busy Dallas air terminal Wednesday at a man she mistook, by her later account, for radio executive Gordon McLendon.

The bullet, fired from 15 feet at W. W. Dyer, 48, of Dallas, lodged in a small handbag carried by D. A. Peterson of Park Ridge, Ill. Both men were walking to board a 4:45 p.m. flight to Chicago.

Dyer's wife shoved the woman, Mrs. Elizabeth Stone, 47, to the floor, police said, as she tried to shoot again and the weapon jammed. An airline employe wrested the 32-caliber automatic pistol from Mrs. Stone.

McLendon, a candidate for U.S. senator in Texas' Democratic primary May 6, described the incident as an obvious attempt to assassinate him. He said he would ask Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy to order an FBI investigation.

City Detective Frank Mote said Mrs. Stone told him she had been upset since a hidden rifleman killed President Kennedy here Nov. 22.

She intended to kill McLendon, questioners quoted her as saying, because "he is a Communist and fools around with Cosa Nostra."

Mrs. Stone, who moved here recently from neighboring Fort Worth, bought the pistol last week in a Fort Worth department store, police related. She said she had never seen McLendon.

As the shot was fired in busy Love Field Terminal, McLendon was visiting at the home of a friend.

ATLANTIC, CITY, N.J. (AP)—Stan Musial, new head of the President's Physical Fitness Council, says he's in complete accord with the government report that smoking is a health hazard.

Musial, one of baseball's great stars, was appointed by President Johnson to head the council last Friday. He was asked if he'd urge Johnson to take a stand against smoking.

"I haven't been on the job long enough yet to know what I'm supposed to tell the President," he replied.

Musial was in Atlantic City to attend a conference of educators.

Prunes and Pork: A Swedish Delight

SOMETHING NEW is Swedish Pork Loin, Prune Gravy.

BY GAYNOR MADDOX
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

You need not be Swedish to enjoy this prune-studded roast loin of pork. All you need is a good appetite, and a willingness to try dishes that have a European accent.

The recipe for Pineapple Pepper Steak has a South Pacific slant. Try it for kicks.

Swedish Loin of Pork With Prune Gravy

(4-6 Servings)

3-4 pound pork loin
15-20 prunes
1½ teaspoons salt
1½ teaspoons ginger
Dash pepper
¼ cup chopped prunes for each cup of gravy

Trim excess fat from meat. Rinse prunes; cut in half and remove pits. Cut pockets in meat and insert prunes. This should be done at regular intervals, so a design will be formed when meat is sliced. Rub surface of meat with salt, ginger and pepper. Tie chops together if necessary with piece of string. Place in roasting pan. Roast uncovered in a slow oven (325 degrees) for 2 to 2½ hours. Remove roast and make gravy of pan drippings. To each cup of gravy add ¼ cup chopped prunes.

Pineapple Pepper Steak

(6 Servings)

Bright green pepper and pineapple tidbits accent the richly browned flank steak.

2 pounds flank steak
Salt, pepper and dry mustard
2 tablespoons fat for browning
3 tablespoons soy sauce
1 medium-sized green pepper
1 (8¾-ounce) can pineapple tidbits

Score flank steak on both sides and slash around edges to prevent curling. Season with salt, pepper and pinch of mustard. Brown in hot fat about 2 minutes on each side. Sprinkle with soy sauce. Slice green pepper in thin rings and spread over meat. Pour undrained pineapple tidbits evenly over and around meat and pepper. Cover and cook over medium heat, according to degree of doneness desired. Remove meat to hot platter. Bring sauce in pan to boil, scraping pan well to loosen drippings. Pour over meat. Garnish meat platter with border of noodles, if desired.

Port Ewen Collision Is Blamed on Snow

A two-car accident on West Main Street near Broadway, Port Ewen, was investigated Wednesday shortly before noon by Deputy Sheriff Emil T. Kuhnen Jr. No injuries were reported.

John D. MacDonald, 24, of 195 Quarry Street, Port Ewen, was entering West Main Street and turning left from a driveway about 100 feet from Broadway when his car and that of Ronald W. Hahn, 30, of Hoyt Street, Port Ewen, were in collision due to the snowy condition of the road. Hahan was traveling west on West Main Street at the time. Both cars were damaged about the fenders.

Petty 172 mph Auto Record

Daytona Beach, Fla., Feb. 8 (AP)—Richard Petty raised the stock car racing record to 171.919 miles an hour for a 50-miler today and, along with teammate Paul Goldsmith, established PLYMOUTH as the new hot car on Daytona International Speedway.

PETTY ROARED around the 2½-mile high banks and straights five seconds ahead of Jimmy Pardue of North Wilkesboro, N. C., in another Plymouth and left far behind the Fords which have been dominating major NASCAR events.

Goldsmith did much the same in an earlier 50-mile event and won the pole position for the rich Daytona 500, coming up Feb. 23.

Petty will start alongside him in the front row.

GOLDSMITH SET a record of 170.940 in his victory, but he held the mark only 50 minutes just as long as it took to clear the track, line up cars and run the final event.

Petty from Randleman, N. C., and Goldsmith, racing out of Mexico City, jumped off to early leads and finished well in front.

Doubt Survival Of 14 Missing From Grain Ship

NEW YORK (AP)—A Coast Guard cutter and planes continued searching the North Atlantic today for 14 men missing from the storm-battered British grain ship Ambassador, but their survival was considered improbable.

Captain Is Victim

Twenty of the 35 crew members have been rescued. The captain died.

Coast Guard area headquarters reported that a Dutch tugboat today took over the listing and abandoned Ambassador as a prize of the sea.

The Coast Guard cutter Coos Bay radioed early today that the tugboat Elbe put men aboard the Ambassador, they stopped flooding in the ship and the tug started towing her to the Azores Islands. The Elbe had sped to the Ambassador for salvage purposes and arrived Wednesday night.

The Coos Bay and the planes continued to look for liferafts.

Sent SOS Tuesday

Twenty-one of the men aboard the vessel when she began to take on water and listed badly were dramatically picked up by crewmen of the cutter and the Norwegian freighter Fruen. But Capt. Harry Strickland, master of the Ambassador, was dead when brought aboard the Coos Bay.

Tuesday morning, about 660 miles southeast of Halifax, N.S., the Ambassador radioed for assistance, saying its engines were dead and it was helpless in the heavy seas.

Troopers Probe Lobbyist Report On Keys, Access

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — State Police pressed an investigation today into reports that a lobbyist boasted he had keys and free access to the Capitol offices of 10 legislators.

The request for the investigation came Wednesday from Senate Majority Leader Walter J. Mahoney who said, "I condemn the slime of the lobbyist."

"I will do everything necessary to prosecute," Mahoney said in an angry speech in the Senate, "because there will not as long as I am on this floor be any of the antics perpetrated here by this faker, this boastful cynic."

The story of the lobbyist was reported in yesterday's New York Times in a discussion of the work of lobbyists and particularly members of the liquor lobby. The lobbyist was not identified.

Mahoney said he understood that the man in question was a labor lobbyist, not a liquor lobbyist. But he did not name him.

The Times story quoted the lobbyist as saying he had "the run of the offices of 10 legislators and had desk space in some of the offices.

While Castro Sparks Western Reds —

Communist China Awaits Right Time to Dominate All of East

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — When Americans stop being mad at Fidel Castro long enough to reflect about the shoe on the other foot, Red China comes to mind —and it isn't pleasant.

Since the Red Chinese are not the mousy type, this country can be sure its desire to eliminate Castro and communism from this hemisphere is matched by Red China's ardor to rid all Asia of Western influence.

The more so since this country has some history of doing unto others what it doesn't want others to do to the United States. The classic example was in missiles.

The Russians were irritated to no end when the United States put missiles in their backyard, in Turkey and Italy. But when Russia put missiles in Cuba the United States screamed and there was a crisis.

This was resolved when Russia pulled its missiles out of Cuba and this country took its missiles out of Turkey and Italy.

Real Embarrassment

One of this country's great embarrassments of the century was to see communism not only get a foothold in its backyard, in Cuba, but survive and, more or less flourish.

Castro is more than embarrassment. He's a danger. While he lasts he is an inspiration to other Latin American Communists to try to do likewise in their countries.

Besides, Cuba can be a training school for Red guerrillas and agents from all over Latin America. When they get their diplomas they can return to their own countries to practice their special kind of scholarship.

No wonder the United States wants Castro out.

Meanwhile, the United States is up to its neck in Southeast Asia, in the Chinese Communists' backyard, trying to keep the people there pro-Western and anti-Communist or, if not anti-Communist, at least neutral.

Have Fierce Zeal

This is as insufferable for the Red Chinese as Castro is for the United States. So they can be expected to try to dominate their continent as soon as they feel ready, particularly since they seem to have an even fiercer Communist missionary zeal than the Russians.

But the two giants, the United States and Red China, are momentarily frustrated in their ambitions. As of now the United States clearly doesn't seem to know what to do next about Castro.

A direct attack on his island would risk some gruesome possibilities, like war with Russia, alienating the rest of Latin America, and losing trust, respect and influence elsewhere.

As for the indirect method of attack—by Cuban exiles with American backing—this country has painful recollections of what happened when it was tried. This was President Kennedy's disastrous failure in 1961.

Right now in Southeast Asia's South Viet Nam—where this country has put over 15,000 troops and more than $5 billion in aid—the United States is trying to prevent a takeover by North Viet Nam's Red guerrillas.

Waiting for Strength

The Red Chinese, who have split with Russia and respect American nuclear weapons so long as they don't have any, so far have avoided direct participation in South Viet Nam and the rest of Southeast Asia.

They don't have to hurry. They tower over their neighbors, as this country does over its neighbors in this hemisphere. When they feel strong enough, and that the time is right, it seems inevitable they will move.

Even now, despite all its efforts, the United States isn't making much progress in South Viet Nam. But if tomorrow the Red guerrillas from North Viet Nam abandon the fight, it could hardly be more than temporary truce.

THE ULTIMATE?—Some listen while they read, some listen while they study, some even listen while they sleep (or so it would seem from the amount of batteries used). But, Mike Arms, of San Rafael, Calif., carries transistor radio listening to a new high when he practices his lessons. He does make one concession, though, he listens to only sports programs at the trombone practice session—no music allowed.

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—Firemen battled a blaze which damaged three buildings Wednesday night. Seven fire trucks arrived at the scene in a neighborhood shopping center. Suddenly, there were only six trucks.

Waiting for Strength

The Red Chinese, who have split with Russia and respect American nuclear weapons so long as they don't have any, so far have avoided direct participation in South Viet Nam and the rest of Southeast Asia.

They don't have to hurry. They tower over their neighbors, as this country does over its neighbors in this hemisphere. When they feel strong enough, and that the time is right, it seems inevitable they will move.

Even now, despite all its efforts, the United States isn't making much progress in South Viet Nam. But if tomorrow the Red guerrillas from North Viet Nam abandon the fight, it could hardly be more than temporary truce.

THE ULTIMATE?—Some listen while they read, some listen while they study, some even listen while they sleep (or so it would seem from the amount of batteries used). But, Mike Arms, of San Rafael, Calif., carries transistor radio listening to a new high when he practices his lessons. He does make one concession, though, he listens to only sports programs at the trombone practice session—no music allowed.

Fire Truck Stolen

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—Firemen battled a blaze which damaged three buildings Wednesday night. Seven fire trucks arrived at the scene in a neighborhood shopping center. Suddenly, there were only six trucks.

An alarm was sounded for a stolen fire truck. It later was found abandoned about a mile away. Authorities said several small boys were seen to leave the vehicle.

Follow Same Pattern

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — Two sisters, who married brothers, have kept the pattern of coincidence alive. They both gave birth to sons Wednesday at a suburban Salt Lake City hospital.

Mrs. Gerald Zimmerman's son was born in the afternoon. Nine hours later, a son was born to Mrs. Stephen Zimmerman.

Dog Owners Are Urged to Deter Deer-Killings

This is the time of year when "man's best friend" can become a participant in one of nature's cruelest sports.

State Conservation Department officials concerned over possibly heavy deer losses caused by free-running dogs warn that most dogs have a natural instinct for the chase and can turn into vicious killers at the sight of a floundering deer. Under present snow conditions, the normally fleet-footed whitetails are no match for fido.

"It is a common misconception that the dogs causing the trouble are wild," said William J. Goodman, chief of the department's enforcement and service bureau. "For the most part, the troublemakers are law abiding house pets during the day, but join killer packs at night."

Under state law, conservation officers are permitted to kill dogs chasing deer during the critical period from December 1 through May 31.

Goodman explained that under normal conditions a healthy deer can easily outrun a dog. In the winter, however, deer have been weakened by several months of short rations and deep encrusted snow hampers their escape. Even when the deer isn't caught, it may tire so badly that it will soon die of exhaustion.

To help reduce the deer loss problem, the law enforcement chief urged all homeowners to restrain their pets for the next few weeks.

Beggars can't be choosers and while no one likes to play a game contract with a four-card trump suit in his own hand and only three supporting trumps in dummy occasionally this is ncessary.

If East had simply restrained his impulse to bid his six-card heart suit and passed every time it was his turn there is a good chance that he would have had an opportunity to lead it out against a three no-trump contract. Had he merely overcalled with one heart his opponents might have stopped short of game, but East was a desperado and crowded the bidding with a jump to three hearts.

This put a lot of pressure on South but, refusing to be shut out, he bid three spades. North did not like to raise to four, but he assumed that South's bid of three spades was forcing. Incidentally, it was.

So North raised to four spades and West opened the seven of hearts.

East cashed two hearts and led a third. At this point South had an excellent chance to become a goat. All he had to do to lose the hand would be to ruff that third heart. If he ruffed low West would overruff. If he ruffed high West would discard a diamond and eventually make a trump and a club.

However, South saw that he would have to lose a club sometime and decided to lose it then and there. He discarded one on that third heart. Now it did not matter what East and West did. South was sure to get the rest of the tricks.

Board Approves $69,514 Request For Highways

The annual highway agreement involving the superintendent of highways, the Town Board and county superintendent was signed by the Woodstock Town Board at its monthly meeting Tuesday night. It calls for an expenditure of $69,514.18 for a total of 84.56 miles of town highways.

After the board approves Superintendent Cashdollar's estimates, it must get the further approval of County Superintendent Roland Green.

The agreement says the monies shall be set aside for work and general repairs including sluices, culverts and bridges. There are no permanent improvements to town roads planned during the coming year.

Asked by a person in the audience if he had any idea how and where the highway money would be spent, Supervisor Molyneaux replied:

"Yes, we know where it is going. It's going somewhere in Woodstock." He further added: "These figures are Albert's for the purpose of this agreement. This figure is less than the figure for last year."

Audit Completed

The supervisor also reported that the State Department of Audit and Control had completed its audit of the Woodstock town books through 1962. He said the books were in order except for one item — an expenditure of $500 for the purchase of tools by the superintendent of highways. The procedure for this type of purchase has since been changed to conform with state regulations.

The supervisor also reported that the insurance payment on the town barn fire was $15,903.64. An itemized account of amount of damage caused by the fire has never been made public either by the town board or the superintendent of highways.

A copy of the Audit and Control report on Woodstock is permanently on file at the town hall. Copies may be purchased from the Department of Audit and Control. The cost is three dollars a copy.

Asks No Parking

A communication from the Dutch Reformed Church requested the board to place no-parking signs in front of the church during the summer months. Among the reasons for the request is a desire to use the area as dropoff place for the infirm, aged and children. It was also pointed out that frequently the driveway of the church parsonage is blocked and the minister cannot get out of his own driveway. Supervisor Molyneaux referred the matter to the Village Greens committee—Councilmen West and Wagner—for study.

It was announced that bids will be sought for a new town police car, which will have to be Ford, since it was made known at the January meeting that the board has "standardized" its one-car police fleet.

A combined meeting of the town board, Planning Board and newly-formed Zoning Commission will be held Monday, Feb. 24 at J. C. vanRijn's barn.

Gold-Blue Dinner Is Huge Success

Cub Pack 34 held its annual Blue and Gold Dinner at St. Gregory's Episcopal Church to coincide with the celebration of Boy Scout and Cub Scout week and similar dinners across the nation.

The Woodstock pack traditionally makes this a buffet dinner and the menu is as varied as the finest restaurants can offer. The food was excellent attesting to the high culinary skills of the mothers of Pack 34.

The meeting also afforded an opportunity to acquaint the new cubs and parents to the official Pack committee: Herb Burns, Cubmaster; John O'Keefe, assistant cubmaster; Paul Tougas, awards chairman; Albert Holumzer, institutional representative; Jack Heermans, treasurer; Don Vanderlyn, program chairman; and Bill Malloy, publicity.

Ministers Are Guests

Guests of honor were Rev. Norman C. Krapf, pastor of [illegible] Lutheran Church, and Rev. Lloyd Uyeki, vicar of St. Bregory's Episcopal Church.

The following awards were presented at this meeting: Karl Hastie, Bear Badge and Lion Book; Douglas Conerty, Wolf Badge and Bear Book; Dean Schreiner, Wolf Badge; Stephan Kaftan, Wolf Badge and Bear Book; Bruce Wilson, Silver Arrow; and Gordon MacLeod, Wolf Badge and Bear Book.

OCS Bond Issue Referendum Date Set for April 8

Onteora Board of Education has set Wednesday, April 8, as the date for the district wide public referendum on the proposed high school construction bond issue. The total estimated amount of the bond issue is $1,291,000.

In other business at the regular February meeting, the board accepted the resignation of Mrs. Lillian Hartwell of the commercial department, effective June 30.

Howard Umhey of Mt. Tremper was approved as a substitute bus driver for Arlos Every for the remainder of the 1963-64 school year.

A proposed custodial and clerical schedule for 1964-65 was tabled for further study. Creation of four head custodians was recommended in the new custodial setup.

New Teachers Aids

Additional teaching positions were approved, including the creation of five teachers aids posts for the 1964-65 school year.

The board approved an administration request to use Board of Cooperative Educational Services data processing for daily attendance next year and for an initial step in the direction of data processing of pupil records including the testing program. The new system will require the addition of a half-time key punch operator. Watson I. Goodrich''s secretary will handle the other half of the operation. The key punch machine will be rented through BOCES with its 70 per cent state aid.

Communications received by the board was one from Nancy Angeloch, Woodstock artist, who commented on the lack of aesthetic beauty in building construction in the Onteora district. She forwarded a photo of a modern school recently printed in the New York Times and urged the board to consider aesthetic qualities in the construction of new schools. Another communication from Theodore Sturgeon, Woodstock author, commended the board for the excellence of the Onteora Bulletin. The League of Women Voters in a letter assured the board of their wholehearted support of the new increased-state aid bill now in the legislature.

Receive Deeds

The board acknowledged receipt of the deed on the sixth parcel of the Gillmor property.

In his monthly report on legislative bills affecting school districts, Trustee John W. Ebbs of Woodstock said that telegrams had been sent to all interested parties on previous bills endorsed by the board. These bills would raise per capita state aid on pupils from $500 to $585; make state scholarships effective outside the state and afford tax relief to retired persons on fixed incomes. Ebbs also urged support of a bill which would

Otisville Educator Is Named Phoenicia School Principal

Robert Maroney, assistant supervising principal in the Otisville (N.Y.) Union Free School District, has been appointed principal of the new elementary school which opens in September at Phoenicia.

The Onteora Board of Education unanimously accepted the recommendation of Superintendent of Schools Dr. George R. Sullivan that Maroney be apponted, effective July 1 at an annual salary of $10,250.

In recommending Maroney for the appointment, Dr. Sullivan told board members Maroney was his choice after processing 47 applications, 18 interviews with candidates at Onteora and visits to five candidates in their home districts. It was the superintendent's opinion that Maroney best fits the requirements for the position.

Fire in Baker Probe Being Snuffed Out

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senators push ahead today with the Bobby Baker investigation, but the former Senate aide has flung a wet blanket over the inquiry by his refusal to answer questions.

There is substantial opinion around the Senate that while a lot of smoke still may pour out of the investigation, most have been snuffed out.

A Republican member of the Senate Rules Committee, unwilling to be quoted by name, said that Democrats were talking about a speedy windup of the inquiry but that Republicans have around 40 prospective witnesses they want interviewed and possibly called to testify.

Baker, who resigned under fire last Oct. 7 as secretary to the Senate's Democratic majority, is under subpoena to appear for questioning at a public hearing next Tuesday.

But he said Wednesday, after a closed hearing at which he refused to surrender subpoenaed documents, that he would follow the advice of his lawyers and decline to answer the committee's questions.

The committee said that after Tuesday's hearing it will consider whether to recommend to the Senate that he be cited for contempt of Congress, punishable by a year in jail, a $1,000 fine, or both.

It is investigating whether Baker, while on the Senate payroll at $19,600-a-year, engaged in outside business and financial dealings that conflicted with his official duties or involved other improprieties.

Among witnesses called to testify today were W. F. Collins, president of the District of Columbia National Bank, and Jose Benitez, deputy high commissioner of the Pacific Trust Territory and a former Democratic chairman in Puerto Rico.

The committee said Collins would be asked about loans Baker has obtained from the bank, in which Baker has reported holding 1,500 shares of stock. Benitez has been linked with Baker in prior testimony involving imports of meat from Haiti.

Hartford Courant filed a suit in U.S. District Court that would force Connecticut's six congressmen to run at large this November unless the state is redistricted. The suit was filed in the name of Jack Zaiman, a political writer for the paper.

Connecticut districts range in population from 689,555 to 317,953.

Aldermen to Act On $24,000 for Refuse Machine

A bond issue of some $24,000 for purchase of a refuse compressing unit is due to be considered at a special Common Council meeting tonight.

It will replace one now inoperative at the refuse disposal site off Ulster Street.

Repair of the unit, known as a caterpillar traxcavator, now in disuse, it was noted at a recent Board of Public Works meeting would be some $12,000, whereas the board has received a bid of $22,770 from the H. O. Penn Machinery Co., of Poughkeepsie for purchase of a new one. The sum beyond that to be included in the bond issue is to cover incidental expenses beyond purchase price.

The special meeting was called by Alderman-at-Large and Acting Mayor Joseph F. Carroll Jr., several days ago after he had conferred with aldermen.

Agents May Take Stand Today in SinatraKidnaping

LOS ANGELES (AP) — FBI agents were listed as followup witnesses today to Wednesday's testimony by Frank Sinatra Sr. at the trial of three men accused of kidnaping the singer's son.

The FBI men were expected to describe the manner in which they recorded a series of telephone calls that Sinatra said led to the ransoming of his 20-year-old son.

Frank Jr., abducted Dec. 8 at a Lake Tahoe, Nev., motel, was released unharmed near his mother's home in the Bel-Air district of Los Angeles 56 hours later.

Sinatra, 48, denied Wednesday that the kidnaping was a hoax or a publicity stunt.

He offered details on a series of eight telephone calls — all from the same man—which he said resulted in his paying $240,000 in ransom.

On trial are John Irwin, 42, Barry Keenan and Joseph Amsler, both 23.

Goldwater Loses Ground to Rocky, Gallup Poll Says

NEW YORK (AP)—A Gallup poll today showed Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York moving up strongly on Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona, when voters across the nation were asked which of the two candidates for the Republican presidential nomination they preferred.

Among Republicans, Goldwater's lead over Rockefeller dropped to 44-41 from 57-35 a month ago. The undecided group grew from 8 to 15 per cent.

The poll did not report Goldwater - Rockefeller preferences for New Hampshire alone.

The same trend was reported among independent and Democratic voters. Rockefeller took over a 48-40 lead among independents, reversing Goldwater's 46-39 lead of a month ago.

Among Democrats, Rockefeller's lead rose from 47-35 to 54-29.

Saugerties C of C Seeks Thruway Exit Light on 212

A shift of vice presidents and positive action to alleviate a dangerous condition at the northbound Thruway exit on Route 212 were outstanding on the agenda of the Tuesday night meeting of Saugerties Area Chamber of Commerce held at the municipal building.

Robert J. Levintan, second vice president was moved up to first vice to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Frank Moran, who is moving to Washington, D. C.

Albert V. Conte was named by the Chamber board of directors to the post of second vice president.

Franklin P. Clum, highway chairman reported that he is working on the project to alleviate the dangerous condition at the northbound exit of the Thruway on Route 212. The intersection is poorly lighted and a potential hazard to traffic moving east and west on Route 212. Clum reported he is contacting the proper authorities and will ask them to attend a meeting to explain a way to remedy the situation.

Peter Murphy, civic pride chairman said he is studying a proposal to have all new utility lines in the village installed underground. He was authorized by the Chamber to contact the Village Board on a proposal to adopt an ordinance which would govern the erection of new signs over store fronts.

Vincent Amrod brought up the matter of unequal representation of the town in the Board of Supervisors. It was pointed out that the city of Kingston has 13 supervisors, one for each Ward which is not apportioned in accordance to population.

George Leombruno, Jaycees president, a guest at the meeting said the Jaycees were working on a reapportionment project and welcomed the support of the Chamber.

Injured in Skid

A Wallkill woman was injured at 4:05 p. m. Wednesday when the car in which she was a passenger was involved in a skidding accident on Prison Road, Wallkill. Governor Names Carlino to Party's Platform Group

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Gov. Rockefeller has designated Assembly Speaker Joseph F. Carlino as the chief New York State representative on the Republican national convention's platform committee.

The other representative, expected to be a woman, has not been chosen, a spokesman for Carlino said today.

Carlino served on the committee during the 1960 GOP convention and was head of the civil rights sub-committee. In the sub-committee post, he became the center of a heated dispute by staging what was described as a "sit-down strike" to force adoption of a strong civil rights plank. He and Rockefeller won their point.

Cubans Ready For Sail Home

KEY WEST, Fla. (AP) — Twenty-nine freed Cuban fishermen boarded their four trawlers today to sail for their homeland but were delayed, apparently by mechanical trouble on one of the boats.

The Coast Guard cutters Cape Darby and Cape York and a patrol boat stood by to escort the trawlers into international waters. The Cubans and their Castro-owned boats were captured 18 days ago for poaching in U.S. waters.

Czech diplomat Frantisek Telicka of Washington paid fines of $500 each Wednesday for the four captains of the boats on behalf of the Fidel Castro government. The captains were given suspended sentences in addition to the fines. Judge Thomas Caro dismissed similar charges against 25 crewmen, saying they merely took orders.

The Coast Guard took the fishermen into custody Feb. 2 off Florida's Dry Tortugas Islands and turned them over to the state since the applicable federal statute provided no penalties.

Rocky Predicts Victory for GOP

MANCHESTER, N.H. (AP)—Gov. Rockefeller said today that President Johnson "can be defeated, should be defeated and will be defeated in November."

Rockefeller, a candidate for the Republican nomination for president, said the Democratic national administration should be ousted because of "its record of drift, delay and vacillation."

The New York governor commented in a statement issued as he began the second day of an intensive, four - day campaign swing through New Hampshire.

Rockefeller is competing in this state's presidential preference primary on March 10.

He arrived in New Hampshire late Wednesday afternoon after a six-hour drive through a heavy snowstorm.

He had planned a 45-minute flight from the New York State capital at Albany. But that was cancelled because of the storm and Rockefeller arrived seven hours late.

Luke E. Hart, K of C Head, Succumbs at 83

Supreme Grand Knight of Knights of Columbus, Luke E. Hart, 83, died late Wednesday at St. Rafael's Hospital, New Haven, Conn. He was admitted to the hospital Tuesday night after suffering a stroke.

A prominent Roman Catholic layman, Mr. Hart was by profession a lawyer. His home and office had been in St. Louis, before he went to New Haven where the national headquarters of the Knights of Columbus is located.

He received a large number of high Roman Catholic awards and represented the Knights of Columbus at the coronation of the late Pope John XXIII in 1958.

In 1954, Mr. Hart sponsored an amendment to the pledge of allegiance which called for the addition of the words "Under God." The amendment was adopted by Congress and signed by President Eisenhower.

Mr. Hart headed a committee of the K of C which presented a statue of LaFayette to the French Republic in 1920 and was awarded the Star of Morocco. He was made a Knight Grand Cross of the Order of St. Gregory the Great in 1927 and Knight Commander in 1939.

Other honors included the Order of San Raimundo de Penafort from Spain and Secret Chamberlain of Cape and Sword, awarded by Pope Pius XII in 1951.

Fire in Baker Probe Being Snuffed Out

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senators push ahead today with the Bobby Baker investigation, but the former Senate aide has flung a wet blanket over the inquiry by his refusal to answer questions.

There is substantial opinion around the Senate that while a lot of smoke still may pour out of the investigation, most have been snuffed out.

A Republican member of the Senate Rules Committee, unwilling to be quoted by name, said that Democrats were talking about a speedy windup of the inquiry but that Republicans have around 40 prospective witnesses they want interviewed and possibly called to testify.

Baker, who resigned under fire last Oct. 7 as secretary to the Senate's Democratic majority, is under subpoena to appear for questioning at a public hearing next Tuesday.

But he said Wednesday, after a closed hearing at which he refused to surrender subpoenaed documents, that he would follow the advice of his lawyers and decline to answer the committee's questions.

The committee said that after Tuesday's hearing it will consider whether to recommend to the Senate that he be cited for contempt of Congress, punishable by a year in jail, a $1,000 fine, or both.

It is investigating whether Baker, while on the Senate payroll at $19,600-a-year, engaged in outside business and financial dealings that conflicted with his official duties or involved other improprieties.

Among witnesses called to testify today were W. F. Collins, president of the District of Columbia National Bank, and Jose Benitez, deputy high commissioner of the Pacific Trust Territory and a former Democratic chairman in Puerto Rico.

The committee said Collins would be asked about loans Baker has obtained from the bank, in which Baker has reported holding 1,500 shares of stock. Benitez has been linked with Baker in prior testimony involving imports of meat from Haiti.

No Time Is . . .

Hartford Courant filed a suit in U.S. District Court that would force Connecticut's six congressmen to run at large this November unless the state is redistricted. The suit was filed in the name of Jack Zaiman, a political writer for the paper.

Connecticut districts range in population from 689,555 to 317,953.

Aldermen to Act On $24,000 for Refuse Machine

A bond issue of some $24,000 for purchase of a refuse compressing unit is due to be considered at a special Common Council meeting tonight.

It will replace one now inoperative at the refuse disposal site off Ulster Street.

Repair of the unit, known as a caterpillar traxcavator, now in disuse, it was noted at a recent Board of Public Works meeting would be some $12,000, whereas the board has received a bid of $22,770 from the H. O. Penn Machinery Co., of Poughkeepsie for purchase of a new one. The sum beyond that to be included in the bond issue is to cover incidental expenses beyond purchase price.

The special meeting was called by Alderman-at-Large and Acting Mayor Joseph F. Carroll Jr., several days ago after he had conferred with aldermen.

Agents May Take Stand Today in SinatraKidnaping

LOS ANGELES (AP) — FBI agents were listed as followup witnesses today to Wednesday's testimony by Frank Sinatra Sr. at the trial of three men accused of kidnaping the singer's son.

The FBI men were expected to describe the manner in which they recorded a series of telephone calls that Sinatra said led to the ransoming of his 20-year-old son.

Frank Jr., abducted Dec. 8 at a Lake Tahoe, Nev., motel, was released unharmed near his mother's home in the Bel-Air district of Los Angeles 56 hours later.

Sinatra, 48, denied Wednesday that the kidnaping was a hoax or a publicity stunt.

He offered details on a series of eight telephone calls — all from the same man—which he said resulted in his paying $240,000 in ransom.

On trial are John Irwin, 42, Barry Keenan and Joseph Amsler, both 23.

Goldwater Loses Ground to Rocky, Gallup Poll Says

NEW YORK (AP)—A Gallup poll today showed Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York moving up strongly on Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona, when voters across the nation were asked which of the two candidates for the Republican presidential nomination they preferred.

Among Republicans, Goldwater's lead over Rockefeller dropped to 44-41 from 57-35 a month ago. The undecided group grew from 8 to 15 per cent.

The poll did not report Goldwater - Rockefeller preferences for New Hampshire alone.

The same trend was reported among independent and Democratic voters. Rockefeller took over a 48-40 lead among independents, reversing Goldwater's 46-39 lead of a month ago.

Among Democrats, Rockefeller's lead rose from 47-35 to 54-29.

Saugerties C of C Seeks Thruway Exit Light on 212

A shift of vice presidents and positive action to alleviate a dangerous condition at the northbound Thruway exit on Route 212 were outstanding on the agenda of the Tuesday night meeting of Saugerties Area Chamber of Commerce held at the municipal building.

Robert J. Levintan, second vice president was moved up to first vice to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Frank Moran, who is moving to Washington, D. C.

Albert V. Conte was named by the Chamber board of directors to the post of second vice president.

Franklin P. Clum, highway chairman reported that he is working on the project to alleviate the dangerous condition at the northbound exit of the Thruway on Route 212. The intersection is poorly lighted and a potential hazard to traffic moving east and west on Route 212. Clum reported he is contacting the proper authorities and will ask them to attend a meeting to explain a way to remedy the situation.

Peter Murphy, civic pride chairman said he is studying a proposal to have all new utility lines in the village installed underground. He was authorized by the Chamber to contact the Village Board on a proposal to adopt an ordinance which would govern the erection of new signs over store fronts.

Vincent Amrod brought up the matter of unequal representation of the town in the Board of Supervisors. It was pointed out that the city of Kingston has 13 supervisors, one for each Ward which is not apportioned in accordance to population.

George Leombruno, Jaycees president, a guest at the meeting said the Jaycees were working on a reapportionment project and welcomed the support of the Chamber.

Cubans Ready For Sail Home

KEY WEST, Fla. (AP) — Twenty-nine freed Cuban fishermen boarded their four trawlers today to sail for their homeland but were delayed, apparently by mechanical trouble on one of the boats.

The Coast Guard cutters Cape Darby and Cape York and a patrol boat stood by to escort the trawlers into international waters. The Cubans and their Castro-owned boats were captured 18 days ago for poaching in U.S. waters.

Czech diplomat Frantisek Telicka of Washington paid fines of $500 each Wednesday for the four captains of the boats on behalf of the Fidel Castro government. The captains were given suspended sentences in addition to the fines. Judge Thomas Caro dismissed similar charges against 25 crewmen, saying they merely took orders.

The Coast Guard took the fishermen into custody Feb. 2 off Florida's Dry Tortugas Islands and turned them over to the state since the applicable federal statute provided no penalties.

Rocky Predicts Victory for GOP

MANCHESTER, N.H. (AP)—Gov. Rockefeller said today that President Johnson "can be defeated, should be defeated and will be defeated in November."

Rockefeller, a candidate for the Republican nomination for president, said the Democratic national administration should be ousted because of "its record of drift, delay and vacillation."

The New York governor commented in a statement issued as he began the second day of an intensive, four - day campaign swing through New Hampshire.

Rockefeller is competing in this state's presidential preference primary on March 10.

He arrived in New Hampshire late Wednesday afternoon after a six-hour drive through a heavy snowstorm.

He had planned a 45-minute flight from the New York State capital at Albany. But that was cancelled because of the storm and Rockefeller arrived seven hours late.

Luke E. Hart, K of C Head, Succumbs at 83

Supreme Grand Knight of Knights of Columbus, Luke E. Hart, 83, died late Wednesday at St. Rafael's Hospital, New Haven, Conn. He was admitted to the hospital Tuesday night after suffering a stroke.

A prominent Roman Catholic layman, Mr. Hart was by profession a lawyer. His home and office had been in St. Louis, before he went to New Haven where the national headquarters of the Knights of Columbus is located.

He received a large number of high Roman Catholic awards and represented the Knights of Columbus at the coronation of the late Pope John XXIII in 1958.

In 1954, Mr. Hart sponsored an amendment to the pledge of allegiance which called for the addition of the words "Under God." The amendment was adopted by Congress and signed by President Eisenhower.

Mr. Hart headed a committee of the K of C which presented a statue of LaFayette to the French Republic in 1920 and was awarded the Star of Morocco. He was made a Knight Grand Cross of the Order of St. Gregory the Great in 1927 and Knight Commander in 1939.

Other honors included the Order of San Raimundo de Penafort from Spain and Secret Chamberlain of Cape and Sword, awarded by Pope Pius XII in 1951.

Hoffa Scheduled To Testify Today

Speedup Is Urged For Veterans in Korean GI Bill

Veterans taking education or training courses under the Korean GI Bill were urged today by Charles Culver, counselor, New York State Division of Veterans Affairs, and John Tyler, director of the Ulster County Veterans' Service Agency, to "cram" or "double up" classes, where necessary, to reach their goal. The deadline for completing such courses is now less than one year away.

"Congress has set Jan. 31, 1965, as the cut off date for the Korean readjustment program of education and training for veterans," Culver and Tyler said. Eligible Korean War veterans who have not as yet started their courses now have less than 11 months in which to finish them. To be eligible for such readjustment or training, Culver and Tyler pointed out, veterans must have had active service at any time between June 27, 1950 and Jan. 31, 1955. They must also have served at least 90 days, unless discharged sooner for a disability incurred in active service, they concluded.

Veterans desiring further information on education and training or other veteran benefits should contact Culver or Tyler at their office, 4 Hurley Avenue. Office hours are Monday through Friday, 9 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Today's Business Mirror

By SAM DAWSON

AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—The first quarter of the year is living up to advance billing and even topping it a bit.

With the quarter past the halfway mark, the gains over a year ago are marked in most segments of the economy, as expected. Many are also pulling ahead of the fast pace of the final weeks of 1963, even though a seasonal lull would be more in line with tradition.

Another Boost Ahead

The rise in personal incomes strikes closest home for most persons. A significant part of the increase is traced to a faster business pace, although the biggest gain is due to government actions. Veterans insurance dividends were paid early and government employes got pay raises.

Ahead is another boost—not to gross personal incomes but to disposable incomes after taxes — the federal tax cut which should increase take-home pay in March.

But the government also reports that in January "almost all major industries " showed advances in employment and therefore in payroll outlays.

Along with this, industrial production edged higher than in December to hit a record of 127.1 per cent of the 1957-59 average, compared with 119.2 a year ago. In 1963 the index dropped in January, but then rose sharply until July. Optimists are hoping that from today's much higher base, industrial production will show a good gain in the Spring.

Housing Starts Gain

Housing starts also have turned up smartly—9 per cent higher than in December and topping year ago figures by 26 per cent. Most sections of the nation, except the north-central region, shared in the advance.

Retail sales fell off as usual from the fast December pace, but were 3 per cent above a year ago.

Steel production and shipments continue to rise, and considerably faster than first predicted.

As usual many eyes are on Detroit, where auto production and sales continue to gladden the hearts of that chronically optimistic industry. If sales are so good in February's bad weather, the car makers ask, why won't they really bloom when spring opens the highways and kindles the yen to hit the road.

Weather Takes Toll

For all the rosy glow of many of the early 1964 reports, unusually severe weather in many parts of the nation has been taking its toll.

Construction payrolls fell in January from December, but this is expected to be recovered next month.

Farm income dipped to a $16.7 billion annual rate, off $100 million from December. This sector of personal incomes is peculiarly tied to seasonal conditions, but recovery also is the plaything of future weather whims.

Many with incomes linked at least in part with the stock market have been having a pleasant winter. Unusually high dividend payments in December couldn't be matched in January, but prices of many stocks rose. And a number of corporations voted to raise future dividend payments, to split stocks, or both.

Pythias Knights Congratulated on Their 100th Year

Acting Mayor Joseph F. Carroll Jr., today issued a proclamation in behalf of the observance of the 100th anniversary, on this date, of the Knights of Pythias, "the first fraternal order chartered by and Act of Congress."

"The City of Kingston," he said, "congratulates the Knights of Pythias on this eventful occasion and expresses the best wishes of its citizens for a successful centennial celebration, and for the continued growth and activity of the subordinate lodges of the Knights of Pythias in the Domain of New York."

During the 100 years since founding of the order in Washington, D. C., on Feb. 19, 1864, he noted, "hundreds of thousands of loyal Americans have joined the various subordinate lodges and have practiced and fostered friendship, charity and benevolence, the cardinal principles of the order."

86,000 Families Serve

The proclamation notes there are now upwards of 86,000 families in subordinate lodges within the jurisdiction of the Grand Lodge of the Domain of New York, "who contribute immeasurably to the welfare of all the citizens of our Empire State, by rendering invaluable community service through its many humanitarian, philanthropic and fraternal activities," which, among other things include:

Maintenance of the Pythian Camp at Glen Spey "where thousands of underprivileged children, without regard to race, color, creed, or place of national origin, are provided with summer vacations under ideal conditions, without cost of any nature to them."

The order maintains the Pythian Home at Ogdensburg, where the aged and convalescent are "provided with a cheerul place of residence, and where they may abide among friends and with dignity."

It maintains the Social Service Bureau," which heavily supports all worthy philanthropic organizations, and is ever ready to provide aid and comfort to a temporarily distressed human being."

Help for Juveniles

Also maintained is the March of Youth Committee, "which contributes to and cooperates with all organized groups engaged in effective programs to promote juvenile decency."

Lodges of the order, he emphasized, "merit commendation and encouragement for their continued activities directed toward the betterment of mankind," and the concern of the order, he said, "for the general good is a source of gratification to all of us and makes it appropriate for us to share our appreciation of the brotherly activities of this great order."

Deepest pit yet found on the face of the earth is the Challenger Depth, southwest of Guam. This 35,640-foot hole was named for its discoverer, the British survey ship Challenger.

Veterans taking education or training courses under the Korean GI Bill were urged today by Charles Culver, counselor, New York State Division of Veterans Affairs, and John Tyler, director of the Ulster County Veterans' Service Agency, to "cram" or "double up" classes, where necessary, to reach their goal. The deadline for completing such courses is now less than one year away.

"Congress has set Jan. 31, 1965, as the cut off date for the Korean readjustment program of education and training for veterans," Culver and Tyler said. Eligible Korean War veterans who have not as yet started their courses now have less than 11 months in which to finish them. To be eligible for such readjustment or training, Culver and Tyler pointed out, veterans must have had active service at any time between June 27, 1950 and Jan. 31, 1955. They must also have served at least 90 days, unless discharged sooner for a disability incurred in active service, they concluded.

Veterans desiring further information on education and training or other veteran benefits should contact Culver or Tyler at their office, 4 Hurley Avenue. Office hours are Monday through Friday, 9 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Today's Business Mirror

By SAM DAWSON

AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—The first quarter of the year is living up to advance billing and even topping it a bit.

With the quarter past the halfway mark, the gains over a year ago are marked in most segments of the economy, as expected. Many are also pulling ahead of the fast pace of the final weeks of 1963, even though a seasonal lull would be more in line with tradition.

Another Boost Ahead

The rise in personal incomes strikes closest home for most persons. A significant part of the increase is traced to a faster business pace, although the biggest gain is due to government actions. Veterans insurance dividends were paid early and government employes got pay raises.

Ahead is another boost—not to gross personal incomes but to disposable incomes after taxes — the federal tax cut which should increase take-home pay in March.

But the government also reports that in January "almost all major industries" showed advances in employment and therefore in payroll outlays.

Along with this, industrial production edged higher than in December to hit a record of 127.1 per cent of the 1957-59 average, compared with 119.2 a year ago. In 1963 the index dropped in January, but then rose sharply until July. Optimists are hoping that from today's much higher base, industrial production will show a good gain in the Spring.

Housing Starts Gain

Housing starts also have turned up smartly—9 per cent higher than in December and topping year ago figures by 26 per cent. Most sections of the nation, except the north-central region, shared in the advance.

Retail sales fell off as usual from the fast December pace, but were 3 per cent above a year ago.

Steel production and shipments continue to rise, and considerably faster than first predicted.

As usual many eyes are on Detroit, where auto production and sales continue to gladden the hearts of that chronically optimistic industry. If sales are so good in February's bad weather, the car makers ask, why won't they really bloom when spring opens the highways and kindles the yen to hit the road.

Weather Takes Toll

For all the rosy glow of many of the early 1964 reports, unusually severe weather in many parts of the nation has been taking its toll.

Construction payrolls fell in January from December, but this is expected to be recovered next month.

Farm income dipped to a $16.7 billion annual rate, off $100 million from December. This sector of personal incomes is peculiarly tied to seasonal conditions, but recovery also is the plaything of future weather whims.

Many with incomes linked at least in part with the stock market have been having a pleasant winter. Unusually high dividend payments in December couldn't be matched in January, but prices of many stocks rose. And a number of corporations voted to raise future dividend payments, to split stocks, or both.

Pythias Knights Congratulated on Their 100th Year

Acting Mayor Joseph F. Carroll Jr., today issued a proclamation in behalf of the observance of the 100th anniversary, on this date, of the Knights of Pythias, "the first fraternal order chartered by and Act of Congress."

"The City of Kingston," he said, "congratulates the Knights of Pythias on this eventful occasion and expresses the best wishes of its citizens for a successful centennial celebration, and for the continued growth and activity of the subordinate lodges of the Knights of Pythias in the Domain of New York."

During the 100 years since founding of the order in Washington, D. C., on Feb. 19, 1864, he noted, "hundreds of thousands of loyal Americans have joined the various subordinate lodges and have practiced and fostered friendship, charity and benevolence, the cardinal principles of the order."

86,000 Families Serve

The proclamation notes there are now upwards of 86,000 families in subordinate lodges within the jurisdiction of the Grand Lodge of the Domain of New York, "who contribute immeasurably to the welfare of all the citizens of our Empire State, by rendering invaluable community service through its many humanitarian, philanthropic and fraternal activities," which, among other things include:

Maintenance of the Pythian Camp at Glen Spey "where thousands of underprivileged children, without regard to race, color, creed, or place of national origin, are provided with summer vacations under ideal conditions, without cost of any nature to them."

The order maintains the Pythian Home at Ogdensburg, where the aged and convalescent are "provided with a cheerul place of residence, and where they may abide among friends and with dignity."

It maintains the Social Service Bureau," which heavily supports all worthy philanthropic organizations, and is ever ready to provide aid and comfort to a temporarily distressed human being."

Help for Juveniles

Also maintained is the March of Youth Committee, "which contributes to and cooperates with all organized groups engaged in effective programs to promote juvenile decency."

Lodges of the order, he emphasized, "merit commendation and encouragement for their continued activities directed toward the betterment of mankind," and the concern of the order, he said, "for the general good is a source of gratification to all of us and makes it appropriate for us to share our appreciation of the brotherly activities of this great order."

Deepest pit yet found on the face of the earth is the Challenger Depth, southwest of Guam. This 35,640-foot hole was named for its discoverer, the British survey ship Challenger.

Glancing Over TV Bill of Fare

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—The final chapter of "Route 66" approaches: Tod Stiles, fancy-free adventurer, is going to get married on the March 6 show, first of a two-part wind-up.

And then, with his happy bride beside him in his sports car, our hero will ride, in classic style, into the sunset, presumably to live happily ever after. Two weeks later, on March 20, CBS' "Route 66' goes into reruns—old ones, in which George Maharis and Martin Milner were co-stars.

Tod, played by Milner, would never have been allowed to marry if the series had not been canceled.

Marriage is not only a nice way to conclude a long-running series, but also provides a handy way to "write out" a character who must disappear when an actor wants to leave the cast. Most recent example was, of course, "Bonanza," whose producer planned to marry off Adam Cartwright when Pernell Roberts wanted to quit the show. When he decided to remain, the lady was jilted—and fast.

An interesting change in another CBS series will start next Monday night. "East Side, West Side" will introduce a new character in the show, a Congressman Hanson. A couple of weeks later, on the show, he will offer social worker hero Neil Brock a job as his aide. Neil will accept, of course, and the format will change. But the switch is coming too late to save the show. It has not been renewed for another season.

CBS' explanation of Ed Sullivan's sudden change of mind about extending his hour show to 90 minutes in April is that he reconsidered taking on the extra responsibility and work of a longer show "on the advice of his physician."

The network which says he's not ailing, hopes that will bury all rumors that he didn't want to try to compete against "Bonanza's" popularity. The NBC show occupies the same time spot as that extra half-hour.

Recommended tonight: "A Wild Winter's Night," NBC, 7:30-8:30—variety special starring Jonathan Winters and Art Carney.

U. S. Halts Some Aid Programs for TradersWithCuba

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States has halted small military aid programs for Britain, France and Yugoslavia in retaliation for their continuing to trade with Cuba.

Carrying out a congressional ban on aid to nations that trade with the Cubans, the State Department Tuesday also announced that Spain and Morocco would get no new U.S. aid until they provide "further clarification" of their trade policies with the Cubans.

Sources indicated that the amounts of aid involved in the cutoff was about $25,000-$30,000 for France and less for Britain and Yugoslavia. The exact figures are secret.

Indicted for Claim Of Money at Bank

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP)—A federal grand jury indicted T. L. Thaggard Wednesday on charges of unlawfully obtaining money from a bank protected by government deposit insurance.

The Union Bank and Trust Co. of Montgomery accused Thaggard of withdrawing $43,000 which the bank said was credited to his account erroneously. Thaggard is free under $10,000 bond.

Three Beatle Fans

MEMPHIS (AP) — Three teen-agers were arrested Wednesday in connection with the theft of a stereophonic record player, plus 15 record albums and a box of 45 r.p.m. singles—all by the Beatles.

Glancing Over TV Bill of Fare

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—The final chapter of "Route 66" approaches: Tod Stiles, fancy-free adventurer, is going to get married on the March 6 show, first of a two-part wind-up.

And then, with his happy bride beside him in his sports car, our hero will ride, in classic style, into the sunset, presumably to live happily ever after. Two weeks later, on March 20, CBS' "Route 66' goes into reruns—old ones, in which George Maharis and Martin Milner were co-stars.

Tod, played by Milner, would never have been allowed to marry if the series had not been canceled.

Marriage is not only a nice way to conclude a long-running series, but also provides a handy way to "write out" a character who must disappear when an actor wants to leave the cast. Most recent example was, of course, "Bonanza," whose producer planned to marry off Adam Cartwright when Pernell Roberts wanted to quit the show. When he decided to remain, the lady was jilted—and fast.

An interesting change in another CBS series will start next Monday night. "East Side, West Side" will introduce a new character in the show, a Congressman Hanson. A couple of weeks later, on the show, he will offer social worker hero Neil Brock a job as his aide. Neil will accept, of course, and the format will change. But the switch is coming too late to save the show. It has not been renewed for another season.

CBS' explanation of Ed Sullivan's sudden change of mind about extending his hour show to 90 minutes in April is that he reconsidered taking on the extra responsibility and work of a longer show "on the advice of his physician."

The network which says he's not ailing, hopes that will bury all rumors that he didn't want to try to compete against "Bonanza's" popularity. The NBC show occupies the same time spot as that extra half-hour.

Recommended tonight: "A Wild Winter's Night," NBC, 7:30-8:30—variety special starring Jonathan Winters and Art Carney.

U. S. Halts Some Aid Programs for Traders With Cuba

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States has halted small military aid programs for Britain, France and Yugoslavia in retaliation for their continuing to trade with Cuba.

Carrying out a congressional ban on aid to nations that trade with the Cubans, the State Department Tuesday also announced that Spain and Morocco would get no new U.S. aid until they provide "further clarification" of their trade policies with the Cubans.

Sources indicated that the amounts of aid involved in the cutoff was about $25,000-$30,000 for France and less for Britain and Yugoslavia. The exact figures are secret.

Indicted for Claim Of Money at Bank

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP)—A federal grand jury indicted T. L. Thaggard Wednesday on charges of unlawfully obtaining money from a bank protected by government deposit insurance.

The Union Bank and Trust Co. of Montgomery accused Thaggard of withdrawing $43,000 which the bank said was credited to his account erroneously. Thaggard is free under $10,000 bond.

Goldwater Out on Limb

Predicts He'll Win Close to 50 PC of Granite State Vote

WASHINGTON (AP) — Edging out on a limb, Sen. Barry Goldwater predicts he will win close to 50 per cent of the vote in New Hampshire's primary and start his campaign for the Republican presidential nomination snowballing.

Could Snowball Campaign

"If we can come out of New Hampshire with a decided victory," he told supporters in Rumney, N.H., Wednesday, "you have no idea what this is going to do for my candidacy over the rest of the United States."

The Arizona senator calculated that any candidate who captures 35 per cent of the vote in the March 10 primary and takes seven of the convention delegates would have "a definitive victory."

He voiced belief that he would run up almost 50 per cent.

Also campaigning through New Hampshire's snowy countryside Wednesday and today was one of Goldwater's chief rivals for the GOP nomination, Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller.

Although the two haven't crossed paths so far in the Granite State, both are joined in whaling away at President Johnson's foreign policy.

"I think most Americans are a little sick today to think of the way the United States is being slapped around," is the way the Arizonan put it.

Sen. Smith Due Back

The New York governor said, "The American people are recognizing this dismal record and its frightening portent for the future for what it is—a formula for failure."

Sen. Margaret Chase Smith of Maine, another candidate in the state's primary, said she plans to return to New Hampshire's campaign trail this weekend.

Thumbnail Sketches Of Pageant Workers

(This is the first of a series of news releases about each member of the board of directors of the Miss New York State Pageant to be held here in Kingston on July 9, 10 and 11, 1964.)

Robert W. Gardner of Lake Katrine is a member of the board of directors of the Miss New York State Pageant and Director of Public Relations.

Gardner worked with the Miss New York State Pageant in 1962 as a member of the production staff and in 1963 as a stage manager. In September he was appointed for a three year term to the Board of Directors by the Kingston Junior Chamber of Commerce.

His assignment as a first-year member of the board is that of director in charge of public relations. Among the many duties of this office are; statewide publicity, press and radio liason and general promotion.

Gardner has announced that this year is shaping up to be the biggest year for the Pageant in Kingston to date. "Each year the Miss New York State Pageant receives wider recognition and more visitors are drawn to our city. This year, for the first time, there was only one franchise awarded in the entire state by the Miss America Pageant at Atlantic City. In previous years a Miss New York City was chosen, in addition to our Miss New York State. This means that we will now have contestants entering competition at Kingston from the New York City area for the first time. The number of contestants this year may reach 30. In the past there have been approximately 20 contestants each year," Gardner commented.

In addition to attracting more visitors to Kingston and projecting the Pageant throughout the State, Gardner hopes to promote even greater interest and participation among area residents.

Gardner, employed by IBM, is active in community affairs, also serving as a member of the advisory council of the Order of DeMolay in Kingston.

Weekly Food Review

Declining prices for eggs and fish in many sections of the country make it easier to plan economical Lenten meals, housewives will find this weekend.

Prices are expected to run a little below year-ago levels most of 1964 because of higher output.

Carlino Won't Admit It But He's Started Campaign for 1966 Governor

By CHARLES DUMAS

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Assembly Speaker Joseph F. Carlino isn't ready to admit it yet, but he already has begun his campaign to become governor.

During the current session of the Legislature, the Assembly's darkly handsome and free-wheeling Republican boss has shown all the earmarks of a young man in a hurry to move up.

No Longer Champing

As one veteran Capitol observer put it:

"He is no longer champing at the bit. He has chomped clear through the bit."

From the opening bell of the 1964 session, Carlino has rushed full tilt into ever controversial issue in sight—off-track betting on the horses, state aid for education, repeal of the railroad full-crew laws and the so-called "strikebreaker" bill.

The positions he has taken on the various issues have not always won him friends or favorably influenced people, even in his own party.

For example, Gov. Rockefeller has not been delighted by Carlino's open agitation for more school aid at a time when Rockefeller is unable to deliver the goods.

And rank-and-file Republicans in the Assembly were unhappy about their leader's open committment to repeal the full-crew laws, before consulting them.

Unafraid of Problems

But the point Carlino is trying to make—and, in the minds of some observers, succeeding in making—is that he is a man of action, unafraid to tackle the major problems of government as they arise.

At the same time, by wading openly into every controversy, he manages to project himself into the public eye. In politics, this is known as building a "name."

From the day Carlino succeeded to the speaker's chair, in 1959, there has been little doubt in the minds of his friends and rivals that he ultimately would make a bid for the governorship. Up to this point, he has been biding his time.

He began aiming, however, after Rockefeller declared his candidacy for the GOP presidential nomination. There was speculation that, win or lose, Rockefeller soon would vacate the Executive Mansion. Carlino wants to be ready to move in.

Rockefeller tossed some cold water on Carlino's hopes this week when he declared publicly that he had no intention of retiring as governor if he should fail in his White House bid.

Door Slightly Ajar

But Rockefeller also said he would not foreclose the possibility that he would accept a cabinet post in a Republican national administration. So the door is still slightly ajar for a would-be successor.

Should Rockefeller win the presidency or decamp for a cabinet post next year, Lt. Gov. Malcolm Wilson automatically would succeed to the governorship for the remaining two years of Rockefeller's term.

GOP State Chairman Fred A. Young says he assumes that, if this happened, Wilson would be nominated to run for governor in his own right in 1966. It might not be that simple, however. The gubernatorial nomination is a prize not readily conceded by those who covet it.

Carlino himself said recently that "there comes a time when you'd like to get a promotion." And, he added pointedly, if that opportunity arises in 1966, "I'm going to seek it."

One Worker Killed, Other Saves Self

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—A construction foreman was killed when a scaffold fell from a new apartment building, but another workman saved himself when he grabbed a piece of steel after he fell five stories.

Killed in the accident Wednesday was John Junior Swecker, 39.

Raymond Brooks, who climbed to safety after the plunge, said, "God was with me." He was injured slightly.

Has 107th Birthday

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP) — Mrs. Charles Landis celebrates her 107th birthday today with fancy cake, many felicitations and a visit from Philadelphia relatives.

Born in the nearby town of Paradise, her life has spanned the administrations of 21 presidents, from James Buchanan to Lyndon B. Johnson.

PRESENTS MEMORIAL BOOK—Mrs. Stanley Plasker, left, presents Mrs. Ann E. Prentice, director of Kingston City Library with the book, Quest for the Dream by John P. Roche in honor of the late President John F. Kennedy. The dedication of the book which deals with civil rights and human relations, took place during Brotherhood Week as a tribute to the late President's abiding interest in this field. Mrs. Plasker made the presentation along with Mrs. Stanley Wyman, Anti-Defamation League co-chairman on behalf of B'nai B'rith Women. (Freeman photo)

Goldwater Out on Limb

Predicts He'll Win Close to 50 PC of Granite State Vote

WASHINGTON (AP) — Edging out on a limb, Sen. Barry Goldwater predicts he will win close to 50 per cent of the vote in New Hampshire's primary and start his campaign for the Republican presidential nomination snowballing.

Could Snowball Campaign

"If we can come out of New Hampshire with a decided victory," he told supporters in Rumney, N.H., Wednesday, "you have no idea what this is going to do for my candidacy over the rest of the United States."

The Arizona senator calculated that any candidate who captures 35 per cent of the vote in the March 10 primary and takes seven of the convention delegates would have "a definitive victory."

He voiced belief that he would run up almost 50 per cent.

Also campaigning through New Hampshire's snowy countryside Wednesday and today was one of Goldwater's chief rivals for the GOP nomination, Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller.

Although the two haven't crossed paths so far in the Granite State, both are joined in whaling away at President Johnson's foreign policy.

"I think most Americans are a little sick today to think of the way the United States is being slapped around," is the way the Arizonan put it.

Sen. Smith Due Back

The New York governor said, "The American people are recognizing this dismal record and its frightening portent for the future for what it is—a formula for failure."

Sen. Margaret Chase Smith of Maine, another candidate in the state's primary, said she plans to return to New Hampshire's campaign trail this weekend.

Thumbnail Sketches Of Pageant Workers

(This is the first of a series of news releases about each member of the board of directors of the Miss New York State Pageant to be held here in Kingston on July 9, 10 and 11, 1964.)

Robert W. Gardner of Lake Katrine is a member of the board of directors of the Miss New York State Pageant and Director of Public Relations.

Gardner worked with the Miss New York State Pageant in 1962 as a member of the production staff and in 1963 as a stage manager. In September he was appointed for a three year term to the Board of Directors by the Kingston Junior Chamber of Commerce.

His assignment as a first-year member of the board is that of director in charge of public relations. Among the many duties of this office are; statewide publicity, press and radio liason and general promotion.

Gardner has announced that this year is shaping up to be the biggest year for the Pageant in Kingston to date. "Each year the Miss New York State Pageant receives wider recognition and more visitors are drawn to our city. This year, for the first time, there was only one franchise awarded in the entire state by the Miss America Pageant at Atlantic City. In previous years a Miss New York City was chosen, in addition to our Miss New York State. This means that we will now have contestants entering competition at Kingston from the New York City area for the first time. The number of contestants this year may reach 30. In the past there have been approximately 20 contestants each year," Gardner commented.

In addition to attracting more visitors to Kingston and projecting the Pageant throughout the State, Gardner hopes to promote even greater interest and participation among area residents.

Gardner, employed by IBM, is active in community affairs, also serving as a member of the advisory council of the Order of DeMolay in Kingston.

Weekly Food Review

Declining prices for eggs and fish in many sections of the country make it easier to plan economical Lenten meals, housewives will find this weekend.

Prices are expected to run a little below year-ago levels most of 1964 because of higher output.

Fish attractions are also plentiful with canned tuna, canned pink salmon and canned Maine sardines top features.

Red meat features are ample again this week, with beef and pork prices continuing to run below year-ago levels.

Carlino Won't Admit It But He's Started Campaign for 1966 Governor

By CHARLES DUMAS

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Assembly Speaker Joseph F. Carlino isn't ready to admit it yet, but he already has begun his campaign to become governor.

During the current session of the Legislature, the Assembly's darkly handsome and free-wheeling Republican boss has shown all the earmarks of a young man in a hurry to move up.

No Longer Champing

As one veteran Capitol observer put it:

"He is no longer champing at the bit. He has chomped clear through the bit."

From the opening bell of the 1964 session, Carlino has rushed full tilt into ever controversial issue in sight—off-track betting on the horses, state aid for education, repeal of the railroad full-crew laws and the so-called "strikebreaker" bill.

The positions he has taken on the various issues have not always won him friends or favorably influenced people, even in his own party.

For example, Gov. Rockefeller has not been delighted by Carlino's open agitation for more school aid at a time when Rockefeller is unable to deliver the goods.

And rank-and-file Republicans in the Assembly were unhappy about their leader's open committment to repeal the full-crew laws, before consulting them.

Unafraid of Problems

But the point Carlino is trying to make—and, in the minds of some observers, succeeding in making—is that he is a man of action, unafraid to tackle the major problems of government as they arise.

At the same time, by wading openly into every controversy, he manages to project himself into the public eye. In politics, this is known as building a "name."

From the day Carlino succeeded to the speaker's chair, in 1959, there has been little doubt in the minds of his friends and rivals that he ultimately would make a bid for the governorship. Up to this point, he has been biding his time.

He began aiming, however, after Rockefeller declared his candidacy for the GOP presidential nomination. There was speculation that, win or lose, Rockefeller soon would vacate the Executive Mansion. Carlino wants to be ready to move in.

Rockefeller tossed some cold water on Carlino's hopes this week when he declared publicly that he had no intention of retiring as governor if he should fail in his White House bid.

Door Slightly Ajar

But Rockefeller also said he would not foreclose the possibility that he would accept a cabinet post in a Republican national administration. So the door is still slightly ajar for a would-be successor.

Should Rockefeller win the presidency or decamp for a cabinet post next year, Lt. Gov. Malcolm Wilson automatically would succeed to the governorship for the remaining two years of Rockefeller's term.

GOP State Chairman Fred A. Young says he assumes that, if this happened, Wilson would be nominated to run for governor in his own right in 1966. It might not be that simple, however. The gubernatorial nomination is a prize not readily conceded by those who covet it.

Carlino himself said recently that "there comes a time when you'd like to get a promotion." And, he added pointedly, if that opportunity arises in 1966, "I'm going to seek it."

"Sometimes I worry about her! She LIKES housecleaning!"

Gets Revenge

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Constable M. Murray Adler pleaded guilty to a speeding charge in traffic court and was fined $15.

Then he turned to Magistrate Louis Vignoli and said: "Your honor, I have four traffic scofflaw warrants against patrolman George Mitchell," and placed Mitchell under arrest.

Mitchell, who had given the speeding ticket to Adler, was charged in the warrants with overparking three times and disregarding a parking sign.

Hollywood News and Views

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Notes and comment on the Hollywood scene—

Those who aimed to start a feud between her and Susan Hayward got no help from Bette Davis. The high-powered actresses were paired in "Where Love Has Gone"—Bette as Susan's mother, though only a decade separates their real ages.

No Time for Nonsense

"I would never fight with a woman," Bette said. "It would be ridiculous.

"The only actress I couldn't get along with was Miriam Hopkins. But I would never bring any differences we might have onto the set. A movie company doesn't have time for any such nonsense" . . . .

Mike Connors, who finds himself caught between Davis and Hayward in "Where Love Has Gone," found the way to lick the movies' reluctance to hire television series stars: a two-year layoff. After "Tightrope" went off the network, he found film work scarce, so he did a night club act in Mexico and Argentina, where the series was popular.

He returned and landed "Good Neighbor Sam" with Jack Lemmon and Romy Schneider, "Where Love Has Gone" and a movie with Doris Day . . . .

George Murphy figures his film image is an advantage in his candidacy for the Republican nomination for senator from California: "I never played a heavy, so the voters think of me as a nice guy. And I never was in any scandal. Matter of fact, newspapermen used to say they wished I would get into some fuss so they could write about me."

Lost Months to Harris

Richard Harris came through town—and got hospitalized from exhaustion—en route from a film in Rome to "Major Dundee" in Mexico. Of "Mutiny on the Bounty," in which he co-starred and feuded with Marlon Brando, he says little.

"I never saw the bloody thing and I never will," he remarked. "I gained nothing from it—and not a great deal of money, either. It was a lost 13 months in my life" . . . .

Found Mastalka, Too

RENO (AP)—Residents of a residential area awoke early one morning to the blaring of a police loudspeaker: "All residents get out of bed. Check your backyards. There is a burglary suspect in the area."

The sleepy homeowners grabbed flashlights, turned on porch lights and called out their dogs.

Patrolman Floyd Mastalka said he was chased by two boxer dogs, climbed a fence and was confronted by a homeowner armed with a shotgun.

Will Use Time Clocks For Girls at College

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — University of California co-eds won't have to sign out any more when they leave two of the dormitories on campus.

The books at Cunningham and Freeborn residence halls will be removed starting Friday night.

The girls will punch in and out at a time clock by the elevators. Each girl will have her own card.

Co-eds complained about the books because they had to print where they were going in a space beside the place for their signatures.

Gets Revenge

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Constable M. Murray Adler pleaded guilty to a speeding charge in traffic court and was fined $15.

Then he turned to Magistrate Louis Vignoli and said: "Your honor, I have four traffic scofflaw warrants against patrolman George Mitchell," and placed Mitchell under arrest.

Mitchell, who had given the speeding ticket to Adler, was charged in the warrants with overparking three times and disregarding a parking sign.

Hollywood News and Views

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Notes and comment on the Hollywood scene—

Those who aimed to start a feud between her and Susan Hayward got no help from Bette Davis. The high-powered actresses were paired in "Where Love Has Gone"—Bette as Susan's mother, though only a decade separates their real ages.

No Time for Nonsense

"I would never fight with a woman," Bette said. "It would be ridiculous.

"The only actress I couldn't get along with was Miriam Hopkins. But I would never bring any differences we might have onto the set. A movie company doesn't have time for any such nonsense" . . . .

Mike Connors, who finds himself caught between Davis and Hayward in "Where Love Has Gone," found the way to lick the movies' reluctance to hire television series stars: a two-year layoff. After "Tightrope" went off the network, he found film work scarce, so he did a night club act in Mexico and Argentina, where the series was popular.

He returned and landed "Good Neighbor Sam" with Jack Lemmon and Romy Schneider, "Where Love Has Gone" and a movie with Doris Day . . . .

George Murphy figures his film image is an advantage in his candidacy for the Republican nomination for senator from California: "I never played a heavy, so the voters think of me as a nice guy. And I never was in any scandal. Matter of fact, newspapermen used to say they wished I would get into some fuss so they could write about me."

Lost Months to Harris

Richard Harris came through town—and got hospitalized from exhaustion—en route from a film in Rome to "Major Dundee" in Mexico. Of "Mutiny on the Bounty," in which he co-starred and feuded with Marlon Brando, he says little.

"I never saw the bloody thing and I never will," he remarked. "I gained nothing from it—and not a great deal of money, either. It was a lost 13 months in my life" . . . .

Found Mastalka, Too

RENO (AP)—Residents of a residential area awoke early one morning to the blaring of a police loudspeaker: "All residents get out of bed. Check your backyards. There is a burglary suspect in the area."

The sleepy homeowners grabbed flashlights, turned on porch lights and called out their dogs.

Patrolman Floyd Mastalka said he was chased by two boxer dogs, climbed a fence and was confronted by a homeowner armed with a shotgun.

Will Use Time Clocks For Girls at College

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — University of California co-eds won't have to sign out any more when they leave two of the dormitories on campus.

The books at Cunningham and Freeborn residence halls will be removed starting Friday night.

The girls will punch in and out at a time clock by the elevators. Each girl will have her own card.

Co-eds complained about the books because they had to print where they were going in a space beside the place for their signatures.

Cablevision Sets Spring Start for Services Here

Contracts have been completed with Central Hudson and New York Telephone Company for installation of cablevision in Woodstock, it was announced at this week's town board meeting but a few questions remain unanswered.

Among the questions are: where will be the shed and tower be built on town property, when will the service start and to whom will it be available.

It has been learned from other sources, however, that Kingston Cablevision had made every effort to start construction of a building and the setting of telephone poles from the antenna site on California Quarry Road in the Mead Mountain section of the town.

It was hoped to complete this construction before inclement weather began but details were encountered such as surveys, engineering studies from the telephone company and a required delay to see if a permissive referendum was necessary. All of these things were done but not before the bad weather set in. Kingston Cablevision hopes to start construction in the spring.

Generally speaking, the areas to be covered by cablevision are all of the Village of Woodstock, out Bearsville Road, Hurley Ridge and the Maverick Road off Route 375.

The charges will be similar to those in the Kingston area, with approximately $39.50 connection fee and $4.95 monthly service charge. When lines are to be extended into rural areas, additional charges may be added. The amount of charges would be determined by the number of rural customers wanting the service.

Architect Sees New Schools Set For September

Conditions appear extremely favorable for meeting the September opening target date for new elementary construction in the Onteora Central Schools District, architect Howard Warren of Poughkeepsie reported to the Onteora Board of Education this week.

Warren said the building program is in generally good shape on all projects and the September opening date is not in danger at this stage. Full scale building operations are scheduled to resume about March 15, after limited work during the severe weather.

Steel, windows and other vital materials are available and on hand, Warren said, and sub-contractors are keeping pace with the schedule. He said progress at the Phoenicia and Woodstock schools is about on schedule, with West Hurley lagging slightly.

Contractors have encountered rock problems at Woodstock and West Hurley, Warren said. It was necessary to blast 79 more cubic yards of rock at Woodstock than had been anticipated. Although West Hurley site is presently 36 cubic yards under estimates other problems are anticipated before the project is completed. The architect estimated it would cost about $10 a cubic yard over preliminary cost estimates, making the total at Woodstock approximately $790.

Teenagers Ask Town Hall Use For Rec Periods

Requests for additional use of town hall as a community center—an issue in the recent political campaign—confronted the town board this week.

Ted Goddard, chairman of a sub-committee of the town's Recreation Committee petitioned the board for use of town hall as a teenage recreation center. The committee seeks use of the town hall weekdays from 4 to 6 p. m. and on weekends from 1 to 6 p. m., provided there is no conflict with the movie schedule at town hall.

The teenagers would supply their own juke box and coke machine and be responsible for all equipment. Adult chaperones will be hired and paid from funds of the Recreation Committee.

Another local adult group interested in getting up a center for the performing arts in Woodstock also inquired about the availability of town hall for performances of its plays and productions. The group has been sponsoring plays, readings and other cultural entertainment at the Cafe Espresso.

The requests were taken under advisement by the board.

A representative of the Dale Carnegie Course will demonstrate the program Wednesday at the Flamingo Restaurant under the sponsorship of Saugerties Lions Club, it was announced by William D. Brinnier, publicity chairman.

Sponsorship of the course was discussed in detail at this week's Lions Club meeting held at the Flamingo. Philip Cullen is chairman of the project.

Brinnier said there will be no charge for attendance at the demonstration and refreshments will be served. At this session applications will be accepted for those interested in the program.

Any proceeds derived from the program will be used in furtherance of Lions Club service activities.

A proposal that the village adopt the state building construction code was held in abeyance until the planning board has had sufficient time to study the code.

Jacobsen in Hospital

LeRoy E. Jacobsen of West Camp, who was injured in a fall from a 40-foot scaffold, Feb. 11, at Cornwall, is reported in fair condition today at Cornwall Hospital. Mrs. Jacobsen said her husband was inspecting a chimney of the addition to the Cornwall High School when the planking of the scaffold slipped and he fell some 40 feet to the ground. He is employed as a superintendent for Neuss Construction Co., Newburgh, builders of the addition. Jacobsen suffered three broken ribs, a broken collarbone, dislocated shoulder and multiple bruises, Mrs. Jacobsen said.

OFFICE CAT

By Junius
Trade Mark Reg.

Near Tom Linkin's house was a swamp which was a breeding place for mosquitoes. Some enterprising neighbors, who had learned of the crude oil treatment, went to Tom and tried to persuade him to exterminate the pests.

Exterminate 'em? cried Tom. Not much. Why, the missus an' I just paid forty-two dollars for screening the side piazzer that she's be'n pesterin' me about for years. How are goin' to get any good of it, if we kill off the skeeters?

* * *

To kill a relative of whom you are tired is something; but to inherit his property afterwards—that is real pleasure!

* * *

The boss frowned.

Calling for his office manager, he said,

Boss — That secretary — you certainly didn't engage her on account of her grammer.

Office Manager — Grammer? When you were emphasizing the importance of grammer — well I thought you said glamour.

Near Tom Linkin's house was a swamp which was a breeding place for mosquitoes. Some enterprising neighbors, who had learned of the crude oil treatment, went to Tom and tried to persuade him to exterminate the pests.

Exterminate 'em? cried Tom. Not much. Why, the missus an' I just paid forty-two dollars for screening the side piazzer that she's be'n pesterin' me about for years. How are goin' to get any good of it, if we kill off the skeeters?

Albany Woman Is Held in Shotgun Slaying of Mate

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—A 24-year-old man, father of one, was shot to death early today in the kitchen of his home and police held his 26-year-old wife for questioning.

Police said the victim, Donald Hines of Albany, was slain by a blast from a shotgun during an argument.

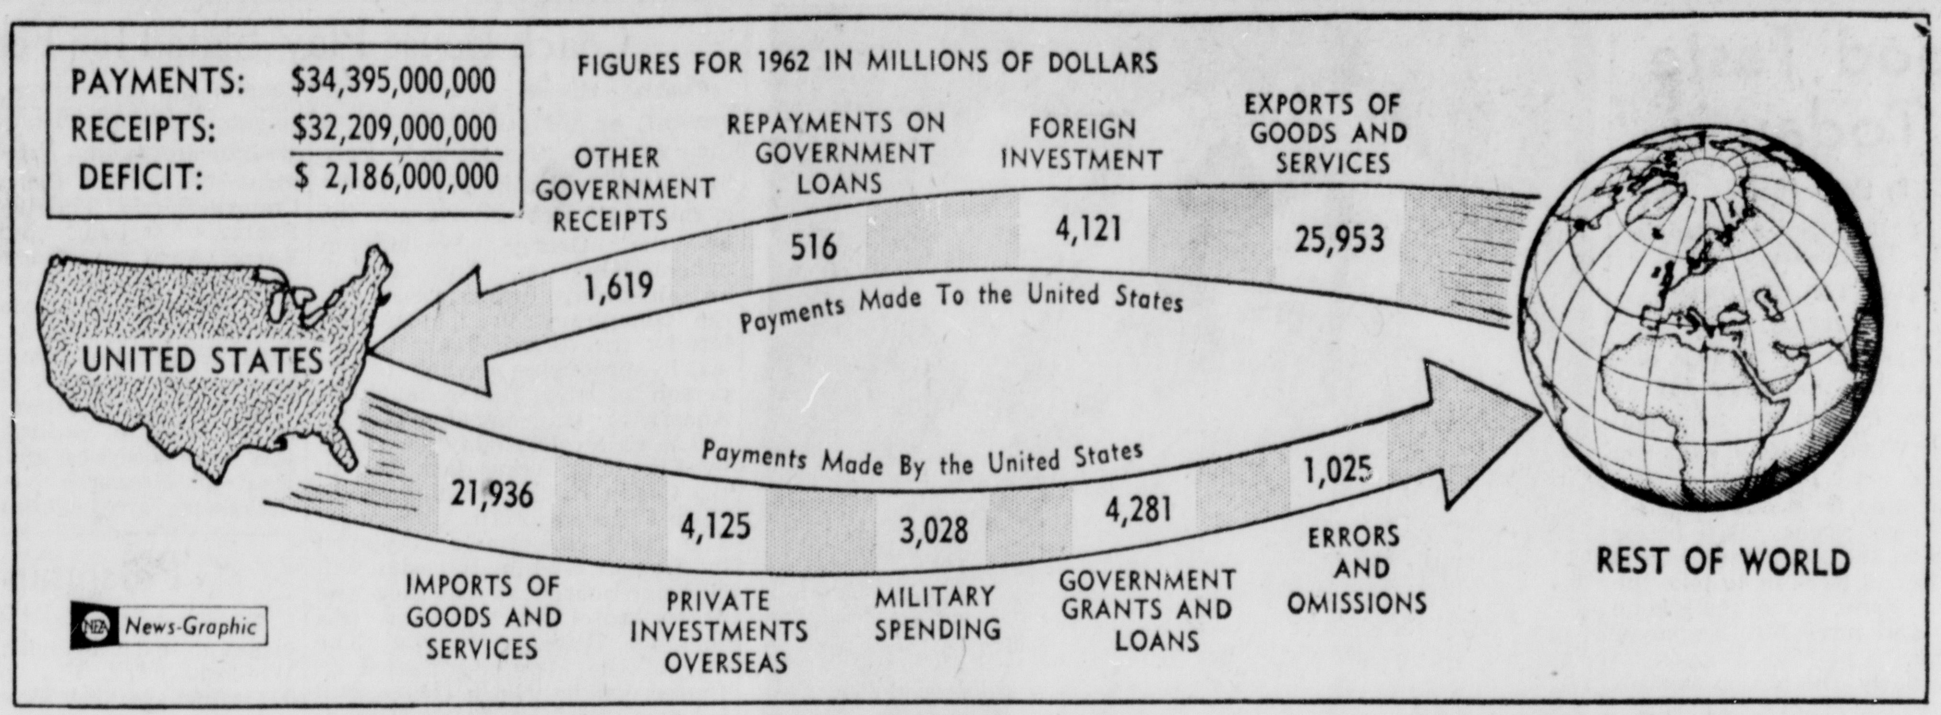
Killed Near Driveway

JAMESTOWN, N.Y. (AP) — Harold A. Blaisdell, 66, was injured fatally Wednesday when his automobile and another car collided as he was turning into his driveway in the nearby Town of Busti.



Although in calendar year 1962 the United States ended up with a nearly $2.2 billion deficit in its balance of payments, trade in goods and services with foreign nations continued in favor of the United States. In the past three years, the U.S. surplus on goods and services has ranged from $3.8 billion to $4.5 billion. This plus factor more than offsets military and tourist spending overseas—items that are frequently singled out as major causes of the payments deficit. Where the U.S. slides into the red is in foreign aid spending and private investment overseas. The chart shows the breakdown of dollars entering and leaving the United States in 1962. Efforts are being made to plug the leak.

Johnson Going West for Mateos, Eisenhower Chats

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson flies to Southern California tonight for goodwill talks with President Adolfo Lopez Mateos of Mexico and a brief meeting with former President Dwight D. Eisenhower.

No major problems were in sight for the Johnson-Lopez Mateos conference and one Mexican official predicted, "It's going to be a happy visit."

The two Presidents will confer Friday and Saturday at Palm Springs, Calif., sandwiching in some speechmaking and ceremonial appearances in Los Angeles both days.

Johnson will fly by jet transport to Palm Springs early this evening. He will spend the night in the desert resort city before going to Los Angeles Friday to formally welcome his Mexican counterpart to the United States.

The first Johnson-Lopez Mateos conference will take place in Palm Springs Friday afternoon. Then the two presidents will drive to Eisenhower's winter home in neighboring Palm Desert for a courtesy visit scheduled to last a half hour.

Sliced onion and condensed tomato soup are good additions when pork chops are being braised.

Two Are Training For Moon Landing

PENSACOLA, Fla. (AP) — Astronauts Maj. L. Gordon Cooper and Air Force Capt. Edward H. White II, say they have completed 11 hours of helicopter training and are ready for solo flights.

Cooper and White told a news conference Wednesday that the helicopter training is designed to prepare them for landings on the moon. They said the helicopter is more allied in pattern and approach to a moon landing vehicle than any other available instrument.

Crushed to Death

OFFICE TELEPHONE COURTESY

Q: Will you please settle a discussion we had the other day at our office concerning telephone manners. When someone calls the office and asks to speak to Mr. Employer and he is out of the office or in conference, is it better manners to ask the person who is calling to call back or to take the person's name and telephone number and have Mr. Employer call him?

A: Properly, the person answering the telephone says, "I'm sorry, Mr. Employer is not in his office" or "Mr. Employer is in conference and can't be disturbed. Shall I have him call you?" Then the person at the other end will either say, "No, I'll call again," or else give you his name and telephone number.

Reimbursing Bridesmaids

Q: When a wedding has been called off and the bridemaids' dresses have been bought, is the young woman who was supposed to have been married expected to reimburse the bridesmaids for this expense?

A: If they can make use of the dresses, it isn't necessary to do anything. But if they were made especially for the wedding and the girls will have no further use for them, she should, if she can possibly afford it, reimburse them for the expense they were put to.

Tipping in a Private House

Q: Every once in a while we are invited to my uncle's house for dinner. He lives alone and has a maid come in every day to clean the house and cook his meals. I noticed the last time we were there for dinner that one of my cousins gave the maid a tip. It never occurred to me to do this and I wonder if a tip is proper and expected in this situation.

A: Unless one has spent at least a night as a house guest or the maid has gone out of her way to do some special service, a tip is not given when dining in someone's house.

U. S., Soviet Disagree on How to Agree

GENEVA (AP)— The United States and the Soviet Union agreed today on the need to reduce military spending, but disagreed today over proposals to achieve the goal.

The U.S. delegate, William C. Foster, urged the Soviets to join in discussion of an American proposal to freeze arsenals of intercontinental missiles and other means of delivering nuclear weapons.

Foster told the 17-nation disarmament conference a halt in production of rockets would bring about great savings, slow down the armaments race and ease international tensions.

The Soviet delegate, Semyon K. Tsarapkin, instead urged upon the conference a Soviet proposal to cut all military spending by 10 to 15 per cent. Such a reduction, applied as each nation prefers, has the best chance of acceptance and must have absolute priority at the Geneva talks, he said.

Tsarapkin urged the conference to appeal to all nations to make such cuts. The Soviet Union and the United States both announced military spending cuts recently but neither was as high as 10 per cent.

Would Limit Press Talks With Accused

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Two committees of the New York State Bar Association were on record today as favoring a proposal to limit interviews by newspapers and radio and television stations with persons accused of crime.

The proposal was offered recently by a committee of the New York County Lawyers Association.

The Bar Association's Committee on Penal Law and Criminal Procedure and Committee on Civil Rights endorsed it Wednesday.

The proposal would:

—Porhibit the introduction at a trial of any evidence gained in an interview when the defendant was not represented by counsel.

—Prohibit public statements of opinion by prosecuting attorneys as to the guilt of the accused.

have "unintended results of an adverse nature on job opportunities."

This was a position similar to that taken by the State Commerce Department, which said passage of the bill would damage the state's business climate.

The firearms bills, the result of two years of study by the Joint Legislative Committee on Firearms, were sent to the Assembly where approval was expected.

Democrats attacked the committee's recommendations for failure to require registration of all rifles and shotguns.

"These bills are meaningless in terms of the protection the people of the state should have," said Sen. Samuel L. Greenberg, D-Manhattan.

Sen. Robert C. McEwen, R-Ogdensburg, argued against registration, declaring:

"If you people from the City of New York think you are going to strip firearms from all the people of the state...you've got another think coming."

tegrity and against aggression. The Greek Cypriots demand council guarantees. They fear the Western powers will support Turkish Cypriot demands for partition of the island, and that Turkey will invade to aid the 4 to 1 in a population of nearly 600,000.

Fedorenko accused the Atlantic alliance powers of doing everything possible to keep the issue from coming before the council and said the presence of British, Greek and Turkish troops violates Cypriot sovereignty.

Britain's Sir Patrick Dean replied that his country had intervened at the invitation of the Cyprus government and that Britain deserved thanks for taking on the peace mission.

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market clung to an irregular advance early this afternoon in moderate trading.

Steels, motors and rubbers showed in Wednesday's market but most gains were slight.

Caution prevailed in view of the long weekend ahead. Stock Exchanges will be closed Friday in observance of Washington's birthday.

The rise in durable goods in January provided encouragement but not enough to stir the market from its dawdling performance of recent sessions.

Rails also put on a relatively strong performance while tobaccos, building materials and nonferrous metals were mixed. The trend was slightly lower among chemicals, aerospace issues and airlines.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up .2 to 295.0 with industrials up .3, rails up .5 and utilities unchanged.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was up .04 at 794.95.

On the American Stock Exchange, airlines paced an irregular advance in moderate trading.

Hopeful of Out Of Court Accord On Phone Vote

NEW YORK (AP) — Efforts are being made to reach out-of-court settlements of legal actions which grew of the union fight to represent the 24,000 New York Telephone Co. plant workers throughout the state.

Results of a National Labor Relations Board election, announced Tuesday night, retained the AFL-CIO Communications Workers of America (CWA) as the bargaining agent. The mail balloting gave 12,558 votes to the CWA and 8,751 to the independent Teamsters Union.

During the Teamster Union campaign to win representation rights, members of CWA Local 1101, which has 10,000 members, voted to disaffiliate. Members indicated a desire to join the Teamsters. A bitter fight between Local 1101 officers and the national CWA developed.

A tentative out-of-court settlement of one case resulted from the fight was announced Wednesday.

The settlement — worked out by lawyers for the contending groups—was described as providing for return to CWA control of Local 1101 in the Hotel Forrest, along with the local's funds and records.

Too Old for Moon Shot

Today Second Anniversary Of Glenn Orbiting Earth

By HOWARD BENEDICT

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP)—Two years ago today, astronaut John H. Glenn Jr., became the first American to orbit the earth. He proved man could function effectively in space and opened the gateway to the moon.

The fruits of his mission are evident at Cape Kennedy, where preparations are underway for the first trial launchings in the Gemini and Apollo man-in-space programs.

Glenn wanted to participate in Gemini and Apollo. But at 42 he became an old man in his field. Last month he resigned from the space program to seek a U.S. Senate seat in Ohio, his home state.

Glenn would have been young enough for the two-man Gemini flights, but many in the program believed that, as a national hero, he should not risk his life again. In 1969, goal for the first Apollo man-to-the-moon flight, Glenn would be 47. Officials say younger men will make the journey.

Astronauts M. Scott Carpenter, Walter M. Schirra and L. Gordon Cooper Jr., followed Glenn into orbit on flights of 3, 6 and 22 orbits, respectively. Cooper's flight last May ended Project Mercury.

An Air Force cargo plane Wednesday delivered a section of the first model of the Apollo ship to Cape Kennedy. It is the Command Module, the area in which three astronauts will ride to the moon on operational missions.

Also arriving Wednesday was the first stage of a Saturn 1 superrocket, forerunner of the Apollo booster. The second stage and the prototype Apollo craft will be wedded to it for a flight scheduled in May to check aerodynamic and structural capabilities of the rocket-spacecraft combination.

Several such unmanned tests are planned before the first manned Apollo flight.

Fire Destroys

they found the road leading to the burning residence impassable and unplowed.

Mrs. Hughes said she attempted to quell the flames for some time before she and her five-month-old pet dog left the burning house, which had two rooms and a garret.

Mrs. Hughes, who went to the home of relatives, said a neighbor, she identified as Mrs. Skinner, saw the fire and summoned firemen, while Mrs. Skinner's husband went to the burning house to see if Mrs. Hughes was safe.

Another report to The Freeman from a resident of the area, said Mrs. Alfred Schoonmaker saw the flames through the woods and called St. Remy firemen. The informant said Mrs. Schoonmaker's son, Charles, with his jeep-plow tried to make his way to the Hughes home accompanied by Town of Esopus Highway Department Superintendent Paul Mercier. They found Mrs. Hughes safe.

Chief Bailey could not be reached today for an official report of incidents at the fire scene and attempts made by firemen to run the apparatus close enough to the house in time to save it.

Condition Fair Today

Leon Hunter, 30, of 91 Broadway, injured in a car-pedestrian mishap on Andrew Street near the MJM School entrance Wednesday night, was reported in fair condition today at the Benedictine Hospital. Police said he suffered a concussion and an injured left knee. The car was driven by Walter Glowinski, 48, of 11 Mary's Avenue, who said Hunter was one of four persons in the road at the time and he "threw himself" on the front of the car. Glowinski said he had sounded the horn and "slowed down." The mishap was reported to Sgt. Bernard Fowler at police headquarters.

periencing difficulty yesterday with cars parked on the streets in many of the housing developments. Superintendent William R. Brown said parked cars were hampering snow clearing operations in the developments.

The Associated Press said the new storm dumped as much as a foot on the Southern Tier and the southeastern section of the state and later dwindled to light snow and snow flurries in some areas.

Some areas escaped with less, and some had none.

The Weather Bureau forecast offered respite for the state, hit twice this week with heavy snowfalls. Only small amounts of snow were in sight, with flurries the rule in most areas.

Flights Canceled

Many airline flights were canceled, buses ran late and traffic inched along on slippery Albany streets.

All roads remained open, however, State Police said.

The storm forced hundreds of schools to close and caused cancellation of numerous activities.

Mba in Office Again as Gabon Revolt Is Ended

LIBREVILLE, Gabon (AP) President Leon Mba of Gabon resumed office today after French troops put down a two-day military revolt in his West African country.

27 Casualties

Unconfirmed reports said 27 persons — 25 Gabonese and 2 Frenchmen—died in the fighting Wednesday that ended the rebellion.

Mba, 62, a champion of close association with France, said in a radio broadcast that legislative elections would be held as scheduled Sunday. Mba had dissolved the National Assembly and called new elections in an attempt to freeze out opposition leader Jean-Hilaire Aubame, whom they proclaimed provisional premier Wednesday.

Mba said that members of the revolutionary committee who led the revolt have been imprisoned.

Hour-Long Battle

The French army airlifted some 400 to 600 troops to Gabon from the neighboring Congo Republic, Senegal, Cameroon and the Central African Republic. The revolt was broken in an hour-long battle in which the French troops seized Baraka Camp, the capital's main army base.

France is pledged by a mutual protection treaty to help its former colony maintain internal security, and the French Foreign Ministry said troops were sent in response to a request for help transmitted through diplomatic channels.

Annuity Protects Wife If Husband Dies First

ROGER E. SPEAR

Q) "We are a retired couple 68 and 65 years old. We have about $20,000 equally divided in H bonds and building & loan stocks. We have, all told, $4,000 yearly income and have $4,000 in a savings account. In case of my death, my wife would have only about $150 a month income. How can I protect her in case I die first?" C. H.

A) You are a thoughtful man and husband, and I believe you should be commended.

Shifting $24,000 in capital into common stocks would not provide your wife with sufficient income in the event of your death.

I can think of only one way by which you can protect her, assuming that you have no other heirs to consider. Retain your $4,000 in the savings account for emergencies. Consult a reliable insurance man about transferring $20,000 of your capital into a joint and suvivorship annuity. This should substantially increase your present income and protet your wife if you predecease her.

Q) "I am 65 years old and still working. I have only the following stocks: 200 Foremost Dairy, 34 Carrier Corp., 100 Standard Oil of New Jefrsey, 50 Public Service Electric & Gas, 25 International Tel. Shall I sell Foremost and Carrier or wait for a recovery? Have you any ideas for bettering my list? Do you advise buying Central Railroad of New Jersey 3¼'s as a safe investment?" R. I.

A) If I may answer your last question first, I would avoid Central R. R. of New Jersey 3¼'s. Their current yield of 7 per cent indicates to me that they are not safe but highly speculative. Interest charges appear not to have been covered here since 1959.

Foremost Dairies has little appeal for me, and I would switch this stock to Columbia Gas for both income and stability.

Carrier has been making a good comeback, has risen sharply in price this year, and I would retain them.

States Expect to Benefit By Federal Slash in Taxes

By WILLIAM J. CONWAY

CHICAGO (AP) — States, as well as taxpayers, expect to enjoy benefits from the slash in federal income taxes.

There is a widespread disposition in state capitals to hold the line on state taxes.

There are hopes that the federal reduction will set off an upsurge of consumer spending that will boost revenue from such state levels as the sales tax.

There also is an expectation of a windfall by income tax states which allow their taxpayers a deduction for federal income taxes they have paid. A lower deduction would have more taxable income for the states.

An Associated Press survey brought out those trends today amid indications Congress will give final approval to the tax bill next week.

Republican Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York has promised there will be no tax increases in 1964. He presented a $2.92-billion budget last month and said he is counting on the federal tax cut to stimulate business. As a result of better business, he estimated, state revenues would rise seven per cent.

Democratic Gov. Edmund G. Brown of California has submitted a $3.66-billion budget for the 1964-65 fiscal period along with an opinion that no new taxes are required. He said the prospect of a small surplus enabled him to recommend a $2.75-million income tax cut in the lowest brackets.

Republican Gov. William G. Scranton of Pennsylvania has a 1964-65 budget of $1.168 billion that proposes no new or increased taxes.

Democratic Gov. Orval E. Faubus of Arkansas says no new taxes are needed. Gov. John A. Burns of Hawaii, also a Democrat, says he does not plan to ask any tax hikes.

U. S., Soviet Disagree on How to Agree

GENEVA (AP)— The United States and the Soviet Union agreed today on the need to reduce military spending, but disagreed today over proposals to achieve the goal.

The U.S. delegate, William C. Foster, urged the Soviets to join in discussion of an American proposal to freeze arsenals of intercontinental missiles and other means of delivering nuclear weapons.

Foster told the 17-nation disarmament conference a halt in production of rockets would bring about great savings, slow down the armaments race and ease international tensions.

The Soviet delegate, Semyon K. Tsarapkin, instead urged upon the conference a Soviet proposal to cut all military spending by 10 to 15 per cent. Such a reduction, applied as each nation prefers, has the best chance of acceptance and must have absolute priority at the Geneva talks, he said.

Tsarapkin urged the conference to appeal to all nations to make such cuts. The Soviet Union and the United States both announced military spending cuts recently but neither was as high as 10 per cent.

Would Limit Press Talks With Accused

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Two committees of the New York State Bar Association were on record today as favoring a proposal to limit interviews by newspapers and radio and television stations with persons accused of crime.

The proposal was offered recently by a committee of the New York County Lawyers Association.

The Bar Association's Committee on Penal Law and Criminal Procedure and Committee on Civil Rights endorsed it Wednesday.

The proposal would:

—Porhibit the introduction at a trial of any evidence gained in an interview when the defendant was not represented by counsel.

—Prohibit public statements of opinion by prosecuting attorneys as to the guilt of the accused.

have "unintended results of an adverse nature on job opportunities."

This was a position similar to that taken by the State Commerce Department, which said passage of the bill would damage the state's business climate.

The firearms bills, the result of two years of study by the Joint Legislative Committee on Firearms, were sent to the Assembly where approval was expected.

Democrats attacked the committee's recommendations for failure to require registration of all rifles and shotguns.

"These bills are meaningless in terms of the protection the people of the state should have," said Sen. Samuel L. Greenberg, D-Manhattan.

Sen. Robert C. McEwen, R-Ogdensburg, argued against registration, declaring:

"If you people from the City of New York think you are going to strip firearms from all the people of the state...you've got another think coming."

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market clung to an irregular advance early this afternoon in moderate trading.

Steels, motors and rubbers showed in Wednesday's market but most gains were slight.

Caution prevailed in view of the long weekend ahead. Stock Exchanges will be closed Friday in observance of Washington's birthday.

The rise in durable goods in January provided encouragement but not enough to stir the market from its dawdling performance of recent sessions.

Rails also put on a relatively strong performance while tobaccos, building materials and nonferrous metals were mixed. The trend was slightly lower among chemicals, aerospace issues and airlines.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up .2 to 295.0 with industrials up .3, rails up .5 and utilities unchanged.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was up .04 at 794.95.

Both averages were above their latest closing records established last week.

On the American Stock Exchange, airlines paced an irregular advance in moderate trading.

Corporate bonds were mixed. U.S. government bonds were unchanged to lower.

The fruits of his mission are evident at Cape Kennedy, where preparations are underway for the first trial launchings in the Gemini and Apollo man-in-space programs.

Glenn wanted to participate in Gemini and Apollo. But at 42 he became an old man in his field. Last month he resigned from the space program to seek a U.S. Senate seat in Ohio, his home state.

Glenn would have been young enough for the two-man Gemini flights, but many in the program believed that, as a national hero, he should not risk his life again. In 1969, goal for the first Apollo man-to-the-moon flight, Glenn would be 47. Officials say younger men will make the journey.

Astronauts M. Scott Carpenter, Walter M. Schirra and L. Gordon Cooper Jr., followed Glenn into orbit on flights of 3, 6 and 22 orbits, respectively. Cooper's flight last May ended Project Mercury.

An Air Force cargo plane Wednesday delivered a section of the first model of the Apollo ship to Cape Kennedy. It is the Command Module, the area in which three astronauts will ride to the moon on operational missions.

Also arriving Wednesday was the first stage of a Saturn 1 superrocket, forerunner of the Apollo booster. The second stage and the prototype Apollo craft will be wedded to it for a flight scheduled in May to check aerodynamic and structural capabilities of the rocket-spacecraft combination.

Several such unmanned tests are planned before the first manned Apollo flight.

Fire Destroys

they found the road leading to the burning residence impassable and unplowed.

Mrs. Hughes said she attempted to quell the flames for some time before she and her five-month-old pet dog left the burning house, which had two rooms and a garret.

Mrs. Hughes, who went to the home of relatives, said a neighbor, she identified as Mrs. Skinner, saw the fire and summoned firemen, while Mrs. Skinner's husband went to the burning house to see if Mrs. Hughes was safe.

Another report to The Freeman from a resident of the area, said Mrs. Alfred Schoonmaker saw the flames through the woods and called St. Remy firemen. The informant said Mrs. Schoonmaker's son, Charles, with his jeep-plow tried to make his way to the Hughes home accompanied by Town of Esopus Highway Department Superintendent Paul Mercier. They found Mrs. Hughes safe.

Chief Bailey could not be reached today for an official report of incidents at the fire scene and attempts made by firemen to run the apparatus close enough to the house in time to save it.

Condition Fair Today

Leon Hunter, 30, of 91 Broadway, injured in a car-pedestrian mishap on Andrew Street near the MJM School entrance Wednesday night, was reported in fair condition today at the Benedictine Hospital. Police said he suffered a concussion and an injured left knee. The car was driven by Walter Glowinski, 48, of 11 Mary's Avenue, who said Hunter was one of four persons in the road at the time and he "threw himself" on the front of the car. Glowinski said he had sounded the horn and "slowed down." The mishap was reported to Sgt. Bernard Fowler at police headquarters.

The Associated Press said the new storm dumped as much as a foot on the Southern Tier and the southeastern section of the state and later dwindled to light snow and snow flurries in some areas.

Some areas escaped with less, and some had none.

The Weather Bureau forecast offered respite for the state, hit twice this week with heavy snowfalls. Only small amounts of snow were in sight, with flurries the rule in most areas.

Flights Canceled

Many airline flights were canceled, buses ran late and traffic inched along on slippery Albany streets.

All roads remained open, however, State Police said.

The storm forced hundreds of schools to close and caused cancellation of numerous activities.

Mba in Office Again as Gabon Revolt Is Ended

LIBREVILLE, Gabon (AP) President Leon Mba of Gabon resumed office today after French troops put down a two-day military revolt in his West African country.

27 Casualties

Unconfirmed reports said 27 persons — 25 Gabonese and 2 Frenchmen—died in the fighting Wednesday that ended the rebellion.

Mba, 62, a champion of close association with France, said in a radio broadcast that legislative elections would be held as scheduled Sunday. Mba had dissolved the National Assembly and called new elections in an attempt to freeze out opposition leader Jean-Hilaire Aubame, whom they proclaimed provisional premier Wednesday.

Mba said that members of the revolutionary committee who led the revolt have been imprisoned.

Hour-Long Battle

The French army airlifted some 400 to 600 troops to Gabon from the neighboring Congo Republic, Senegal, Cameroon and the Central African Republic. The revolt was broken in an hour-long battle in which the French troops seized Baraka Camp, the capital's main army base.

France is pledged by a mutual protection treaty to help its former colony maintain internal security, and the French Foreign Ministry said troops were sent in response to a request for help transmitted through diplomatic channels.

Annuity Protects Wife If Husband Dies First

Q) "We are a retired couple 68 and 65 years old. We have about $20,000 equally divided in H bonds and building & loan stocks. We have, all told, $4,000 yearly income and have $4,000 in a savings account. In case of my death, my wife would have only about $150 a month income. How can I protect her in case I die first?" C. H.

A) You are a thoughtful man and husband, and I believe you should be commended.

Shifting $24,000 in capital into common stocks would not provide your wife with sufficient income in the event of your death.

I can think of only one way by which you can protect her, assuming that you have no other heirs to consider. Retain your $4,000 in the savings account for emergencies. Consult a reliable insurance man about transferring $20,000 of your capital into a joint and suvivorship annuity. This should substantially increase your present income and protet your wife if you predecease her.

Q) "I am 65 years old and still working. I have only the following stocks: 200 Foremost Dairy, 34 Carrier Corp., 100 Standard Oil of New Jersey, 50 Public Service Electric & Gas, 25 International Tel. Shall I sell Foremost and Carrier or wait for a recovery? Have you any ideas for bettering my list? Do you advise buying Central Railroad of New Jersey 3¼'s as a safe investment?" R. I.

A) If I may answer your last question first, I would avoid Central R. R. of New Jersey 3¼'s. Their current yield of 7 per cent indicates to me that they are not safe but highly speculative. Interest charges appear not to have been covered here since 1959.

Foremost Dairies has little appeal for me, and I would switch this stock to Columbia Gas for both income and stability.

Carrier has been making a good comeback, has risen sharply in price this year, and I would retain them.

States Expect to Benefit By Federal Slash in Taxes

By WILLIAM J. CONWAY

CHICAGO (AP) — States, as well as taxpayers, expect to enjoy benefits from the slash in federal income taxes.

There is a widespread disposition in state capitals to hold the line on state taxes.

There are hopes that the federal reduction will set off an upsurge of consumer spending that will boost revenue from such state levels as the sales tax.

There also is an expectation of a windfall by income tax states which allow their taxpayers a deduction for federal income taxes they have paid. A lower deduction would have more taxable income for the states.

An Associated Press survey brought out those trends today amid indications Congress will give final approval to the tax bill next week.

Republican Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York has promised there will be no tax increases in 1964. He presented a $2.92-billion budget last month and said he is counting on the federal tax cut to stimulate business. As a result of better business, he estimated, state revenues would rise seven per cent.

Democratic Gov. Edmund G. Brown of California has submitted a $3.66-billion budget for the 1964-65 fiscal period along with an opinion that no new taxes are required. He said the prospect of a small surplus enabled him to recommend a $2.75-million income tax cut in the lowest brackets.

Republican Gov. William G. Scranton of Pennsylvania has a 1964-65 budget of $1.168 billion that proposes no new or increased taxes.

Democratic Gov. Orval E. Faubus of Arkansas says no new taxes are needed. Gov. John A. Burns of Hawaii, also a Democrat, says he does not plan to ask any tax hikes.

Durable Dave DeBusschere Is Lone Double-Duty Athlete

SCHOLASTIC CORNER

By ED PALLADINO

Joe Gaspard, the Newburgh Free Academy basketball coach, AHS gym. What he saw will probably make him feel a lot better when the Goldies invade the Kate Walton Filed House Friday took in the Arlington-Kingston battle Tuesday afternoon at the for a big game with the locals.

To say that Kingston was bad is putting it mildly. The KHS cagers made one big mistake that day — they showed up for the game. It was a sorry performance and the players realized it.

A CRUCIAL CONTEST

Kingston is officially out of the DUSO race. But, as was the case last year when the locals beat Monticelle and forced them into a playoff (which they lost) with Poughkeepsie, coach Jack Gilligan's cagers have a lot to say about who will win the title.

By beating Poughkeepsie, Kingston cost the Pioneers a chance to gain a tie for the lead when they knocked off NFA last week. The PHS players are now hoping the Maroon quintet can come through with another top effort and topple the Goldies. If so, that easy Newburgh championship might have to be settled in a one game playoff.

CAN KINGSTON WIN?

Our answer to the question is an emphatic "yes," but there has to be a one hundred and fifty percent improvement over that sorry performance given Tuesday at Arlington.

Newburgh figures to be snarling. The Goldies only had to beat Poughkeepsie to almost back into the title. That loss last week (and at home) livened up the DUSO race, which, until last Friday, was as dead as some of Milton Berle's jokes.

Newburgh won over Kingston, 55-39, at the Hilly City gym. This observer, however, thought the local five played a good game. With some better shooting, the score could have gone in Kingston's favor.

WE VOTE HIM THE BEST

We have said this many times and we will continue to say it. In our opinion, Jack Gilligan is the best basketball coach in the DUSO league.

We feel he has done an outstanding job this season, revamping a lineup in the middle of the season and using three sophomores as starters in many of the games.

If Kingston should beat Newburgh on Friday, we will not hesitate to nominate the winning mentor as "Coach of the Year" in the DUSO.

We also think that Joe Gaspard is not far behind Gilligan in teaching basketball to high school boys. If Newburgh wins, we will vote for the popular Joe as the top coach. He, too, has done wonders with his team, though we confess that he had more to work with when the season started.

IT FIGURES TO BE CLOSE

Whenever Kingston and Newburgh meet on a basketball court, there is always a close game, decided in the final minutes of play. ...Though Newburgh has the most imposing record and while the Goldies are heavily favored, we feel this will be another close battle.

Since we feel Gilligan is just a shade better than Gaspard in the coaching line, we would like to see his basketball team win this big one — even if it's by that little shade.

Those basketball buffs who follow the Kingston cage fortunes can see a bright future. With three sophomores seeing much action and an excellent jayvee team, capably coached by Mike Rienzo, closing out a good year, the locals figure to be solid threats for the next couple of seasons.

Plans to Continue In Pro Basketball

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

DeBusschere signed his baseball contract with the Chicago White Sox Wednesday, then received permission from the Detroit Pistons of the National Basketball Association to leave the club and head for spring training.

DeBusschere has been sidelined most of the NBA season with a broken leg received in a game against Philadelphia, Nov. 6. He returned to the line-up in January but aggravated the injury, and has been sidelined ever since.

Until the injury, DeBusschere had taken a couple of big steps in his basketball career, and was averaging 8.6 points a game. He has taken only uncertain steps in his bid to break into the White Sox' pitching rotation.

Used As Reliver

A 23-year-old right-hander, DeBusschere was used as a spot starter and as a reliever for the White Sox last year—his second in the majors—and compiled a 3-4 record with a 3.11 earned run average in 24 games.

DeBusschere, who became the last of the two sport men when Gene Conley of the Boston Red Sox and New York Knicks gave up his basketball career, was given permission to leave the Pistons by Detroit owner Fred Zollner.

"The team physician has indicated it will take two or three weeks for DeBusschere to completely recover from the leg injury," said Zollner in explaining his decision to let DeBusschere go. "By that time the basketball season will be over."

The opportunity to leave the Pistons will enable DeBusschere to round into baseball form, even though his leg is weak, and prepare for a full-scale assault on a starters' berth with the White Sox. He will join the advance camp Wednesday at Sarasota, Fla.

Plans Double Duty

Despite the basketball injury, DeBusschere says he is going to continue in both sports. His philosophy is that the two-sport parlay is "like breakfast and dinner." He explains it this way:

"They're really two different meals, but they both taste good. It just depends on when you eat them."

Black Hawks in Sole Possession Of League Lead

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Scoring rivalry among Chicago's players apparently doesn't hinder the Black Hawks.

The competition between Stan Mikita and Bobby Hull boosted the Hawks into sole possession of first place in the National Hockey League Wednesday night.

Mikita, the league's leading pointmaker, scored two goals and Hull, running second, tallied three assists in Chicago's 7-2 victory over New York. The triumph gave the Black Hawks 71 points to 69 for the runner-up Montreal, which was idle Wednesday night.

Also Hit Doubles

Phil Goyette fired both of New York's goals, one in the first and one in the third, as the Rangers dropped their sixth game in the last seven and fell eight points behind fourth-place Detroit in what had been a battle for the last Stanley Cup playoff spot.

The Red Wings, meanwhile, couldn't move any closer to third-place Toronto. Ron Stewart's second-period goal allowed the Maple Leafs to maintain their four-point spread over Detroit.

Masonry Cueists Score 6-0 Sweep

The league-leading Fondino-Grimaldi Masonry team scored another 6-0 sweep, as Charlie Sangaline defeated Jim Burns, 100-72, and Chris Rienzo edged Jim Berardi, 100-90, in the Buster Ferraro Billiard Classic.

In other matches, Bill Costello defeated Tom Howard, 100-80; Dave Holly over Bob East, 100-20; Buster Ferraro over Tony Gentile, 100-77; Chic Carpino over Jim Davide, 100-56; George Ticefelt over Pep Cardinale, 100-91.

Ferraro pocketed the night's high run of 32. Rienzo had a string of 20 and Dave Holly 29.

The results by teams:

Carpino Insurance (Holly-Cardinale), 4.40 points; J&G Drywall (Costello - Davide), 4.06 points; Berardi Construction (Burns-Berardi), 3.7 points; Shapiro Paints (East-Ticefelt), 3.20 points; Garraghan Oil (Howard-Carpino), 4.30; Wiedy's Furniture (Ferraro-Wolf), 3 points; Modjeska Studios (Gentile-Quick), 3 points. The match between Pete Wolf and Harold Quick was postponed.

NFL 'Skins Grab Coach From AFL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Coach Bill McPeak reached into the "other league" today to hire a defensive backfield coach for the Washington Redskins of the National Football League.

He signed Ed Hughes, who held the same job last fall with the Denver Broncos of the rival American Football League. Hughes had coached the defensive backfield for another AFL team, the Dallas Texans, three seasons before that.

However, Hughes' playing experience was all in the NFL, first with the Los Angeles Rams and then with the New York Giants. He was a regular defensive back on two Eastern Division and one NFL championship team in New York.

Small College Loop Lead Cut by A Single Point

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Evansville's first place lead over Grambling was cut to a single point and Assumption's Greyhounds advanced two more places to fourth in this week's Associated Press small-college basketball poll.

Evansville polled five first places and 72 points in the balloting by a special panel of eight regional selections. Grambling collected three votes for first place and 71 points. A week ago, Evansville had 72 points and Grambling 68.

Pan American remained in third place followed by Assumption, Washington of St. Louis, Youngstown, Wittenberg and Western Carolina.

Evansville defeated DePauw and St. Joseph's of Indiana last week for an 18-2 record. Grambling is 22-1 following victories over Texas Southern and Arkansas AM&N. Pan American lifted its mark to 20-4 by beating Steubenville and St. Edwards of Austin, Tex.

Assumption, from Worcester, Mass., climbed from sixth place on the strength of victories over Merrimack and Lemoyne that boosted its record to 14-1.

Highmount Ski Clinic Set Sunday; Cup Races Also On

Rip Van Winkle Ski Council will sponsor a ski racing clinic Saturday and Sunday at Highmount Ski Center. Arthur Sullivan of Margaretville will be chairman.

The clinic — for advanced racers from members clubs only —will be directed by Cal Cantrell, well known skier and ski instructor and former head of the ski schools at Whiteface and Highmount. Cantrell is classified as a Class A racer, both nationally and internationally, and is a teacher of certified ski teachers for the USEASA. Instructions will cover the full range of racing techniques, including slalom and giant slalom racing. The clinic will start at 9:30 a. m. both days.

Rip Van Winkle Ski Council members include clubs from Kingston, Poughkeepsie, Beacon, Newburgh, Middletown, Monticello and Liberty as well as the Belleayre Ski Club and the West Point Ski Club.

Meanwhile, Council officials announced that the Highmount Cup Races originally scheduled for last Sunday and postponed because of poor conditions, will be held at 11 a. m. this Sunday at Highmount. No new entries will be accepted, but all racers already registered are qualified to participate.

PGA and Builder In Court Hassle Over New Course

PALM BEACH GARDENS, Fla. (AP)—A growing feud between the Professional Golfers Association and John D. MacArthur, salty multimillionaire builder of the new PGA National Golf Club headed Thursday toward a court decision.

MacArthur, head of the Bankers Life and Casualty Company of Chicago, and founder of Palm Beach Gardens, sued the PGA Wednesday charging that it had failed to execute a contract to buy the club.

MacArthur said he had spent more than $3 million building the club house and two 18-hole golf courses for the PGA, had more than a million coming back to him, and needed the PGA to move in and help him sell lots in Palm Beach Gardens, his development north of Palm Beach.

He claimed at a news conference that he had been stalled off in repeated attempts to get PGA officers to sit down with his attorneys and complete the contract.

Warren Cantrell, PGA president, reported that his organization was ready to fulfill the contract and take over the club whenever MacArthur could fulfill all building commitments and furnish clear title to the land.

Cantrell added that the PGA had just set up a conference with MacArthur's lawyers for next Tuesday to discuss the contract when it was hit with his lawsuit.

The first hint of trouble came last month when the PGA announced that several of its winter tournaments would be transferred from Palm Beach Gardens to Port St. Lucie, a golf resort north of here, because the new courses were not ready for competition.

MacArthur immediately got a circuit court injunction blocking the move and three of the tournaments have been played here.

Durable Dave DeBusschere, the only pro athlete still doing double duty in basketball and baseball, is heading for spring training with a weak leg, a strong arm and a determined cake-and-eat-it philosophy.

DeBusschere signed his baseball contract with the Chicago White Sox Wednesday, then received permission from the Detroit Pistons of the National Basketball Association to leave the club and head for spring training.

DeBusschere has been sidelined most of the NBA season with a broken leg received in a game against Philadelphia, Nov. 6. He returned to the line-up in January but aggravated the injury, and has been sidelined ever since.

Until the injury, DeBusschere had taken a couple of big steps in his basketball career, and was averaging 8.6 points a game. He has taken only uncertain steps in his bid to break into the White Sox' pitching rotation.

Used As Reliver

A 23-year-old right-hander, DeBusschere was used as a spot starter and as a reliever for the White Sox last year—his second in the majors—and compiled a 3-4 record with a 3.11 earned run average in 24 games.

DeBusschere, who became the last of the two sport men when Gene Conley of the Boston Red Sox and New York Knicks gave up his basketball career, was given permission to leave the Pistons by Detroit owner Fred Zollner.

"The team physician has indicated it will take two or three weeks for DeBusschere to completely recover from the leg injury," said Zollner in explaining his decision to let DeBusschere go. "By that time the basketball season will be over."

The opportunity to leave the Pistons will enable DeBusschere to round into baseball form, even though his leg is weak, and prepare for a full-scale assault on a starters' berth with the White Sox. He will join the advance camp Wednesday at Sarasota, Fla.

Plans Double Duty

Despite the basketball injury, DeBusschere says he is going to continue in both sports. His philosophy is that the two-sport parlay is "like breakfast and dinner." He explains it this way:

"They're really two different meals, but they both taste good. It just depends on when you eat them."

SCHOLASTIC CORNER

By ED PALLADINO

Joe Gaspard, the Newburgh Free Academy basketball coach, AHS gym. What he saw will probably make him feel a lot better when the Goldies invade the Kate Walton Filed House Friday took in the Arlington-Kingston battle Tuesday afternoon at the for a big game with the locals.

To say that Kingston was bad is putting it mildly. The KHS cagers made one big mistake that day — they showed up for the game. It was a sorry performance and the players realized it.

A CRUCIAL CONTEST

Kingston is officially out of the DUSO race. But, as was the case last year when the locals beat Monticelle and forced them into a playoff (which they lost) with Poughkeepsie, coach Jack Gilligan's cagers have a lot to say about who will win the title.

By beating Poughkeepsie, Kingston cost the Pioneers a chance to gain a tie for the lead when they knocked off NFA last week. The PHS players are now hoping the Maroon quintet can come through with another top effort and topple the Goldies. If so, that easy Newburgh championship might have to be settled in a one game playoff.

CAN KINGSTON WIN?

Our answer to the question is an emphatic "yes," but there has to be a one hundred and fifty percent improvement over that sorry performance given Tuesday at Arlington.

Newburgh figures to be snarling. The Goldies only had to beat Poughkeepsie to almost back into the title. That loss last week (and at home) livened up the DUSO race, which, until last Friday, was as dead as some of Milton Berle's jokes.

Newburgh won over Kingston, 55-39, at the Hilly City gym. This observer, however, thought the local five played a good game. With some better shooting, the score could have gone in Kingston's favor.

WE VOTE HIM THE BEST

We have said this many times and we will continue to say it. In our opinion, Jack Gilligan is the best basketball coach in the DUSO league.

We feel he has done an outstanding job this season, revamping a lineup in the middle of the season and using three sophomores as starters in many of the games.

If Kingston should beat Newburgh on Friday, we will not hesitate to nominate the winning mentor as "Coach of the Year" in the DUSO.

We also think that Joe Gaspard is not far behind Gilligan in teaching basketball to high school boys. If Newburgh wins, we will vote for the popular Joe as the top coach. He, too, has done wonders with his team, though we confess that he had more to work with when the season started.

IT FIGURES TO BE CLOSE

Whenever Kingston and Newburgh meet on a basketball court, there is always a close game, decided in the final minutes of play. ...Though Newburgh has the most imposing record and while the Goldies are heavily favored, we feel this will be another close battle.

Since we feel Gilligan is just a shade better than Gaspard in the coaching line, we would like to see his basketball team win this big one — even if it's by that little shade.

Those basketball buffs who follow the Kingston cage fortunes can see a bright future. With three sophomores seeing much action and an excellent jayvee team, capably coached by Mike Rienzo, closing out a good year, the locals figure to be solid threats for the next couple of seasons.

However, they would like nothing better than to beat Newburgh Friday night. It can be done.

Black Hawks in Sole Possession Of League Lead

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Scoring rivalry among Chicago's players apparently doesn't hinder the Black Hawks.

The competition between Stan Mikita and Bobby Hull boosted the Hawks into sole possession of first place in the National Hockey League Wednesday night.

Mikita, the league's leading pointmaker, scored two goals and Hull, running second, tallied three assists in Chicago's 7-2 victory over New York. The triumph gave the Black Hawks 71 points to 69 for the runner-up Montreal, which was idle Wednesday night.

Also Hit Double

Ken Wharram also tallied twice, his 30th and 31st goals. His scores came in the first and third periods, Mikita's in the second and third.

Phil Goyette fired both of New York's goals, one in the first and one in the third, as the Rangers dropped their sixth game in the last seven and fell eight points behind fourth-place Detroit in what had been a battle for the last Stanley Cup playoff spot.

The Red Wings, meanwhile, couldn't move any closer to third-place Toronto. Ron Stewart's second-period goal allowed the Maple Leafs to maintain their four-point spread over Detroit.

Masonry Cueists Score 6-0 Sweep

The league-leading Fondino-Grimaldi Masonry team scored another 6-0 sweep, as Charlie Sangaline defeated Jim Burns, 100-72, and Chris Rienzo edged Jim Berardi, 100-90, in the Buster Ferraro Billiard Classic.

In other matches, Bill Costello defeated Tom Howard, 100-80; Dave Holly over Bob East, 100-20; Buster Ferraro over Tony Gentile, 100-77; Chic Carpino over Jim Davide, 100-56; George Ticefelt over Pep Cardinale, 100-91.

Ferraro pocketed the night's high run of 32. Rienzo had a string of 20 and Dave Holly 29.

The results by teams:

Carpino Insurance (Holly-Cardinale), 4.40 points; J&G Drywall (Costello - Davide), 4.06 points; Berardi Construction (Burns-Berardi), 3.7 points; Shapiro Paints (East-Ticefelt), 3.20 points; Garraghan Oil (Howard-Carpino), 4.30; Wiedy's Furniture (Ferraro-Wolf), 3 points; Modjeska Studios (Gentile-Quick), 3 points. The match between Pete Wolf and Harold Quick was postponed.

NFL 'Skins Grab Coach From AFL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Coach Bill McPeak reached into the "other league" today to hire a defensive backfield coach for the Washington Redskins of the National Football League.

He signed Ed Hughes, who held the same job last fall with the Denver Broncos of the rival American Football League. Hughes had coached the defensive backfield for another AFL team, the Dallas Texans, three seasons before that.

However, Hughes' playing experience was all in the NFL, first with the Los Angeles Rams and then with the New York Giants. He was a regular defensive back on two Eastern Division and one NFL championship team in New York.

Small College Loop Lead Cut by A Single Point

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Evansville's first place lead over Grambling was cut to a single point and Assumption's Greyhounds advanced two more places to fourth in this week's Associated Press small-college basketball poll.

Evansville polled five first places and 72 points in the balloting by a special panel of eight regional selections. Grambling collected three votes for first place and 71 points. A week ago, Evansville had 72 points and Grambling 68.

Pan American remained in third place followed by Assumption, Washington of St. Louis, Youngstown, Wittenberg and Western Carolina.

Evansville defeated DePauw and St. Joseph's of Indiana last week for an 18-2 record. Grambling is 22-1 following victories over Texas Southern and Arkansas AM&N. Pan American lifted its mark to 20-4 by beating Steubenville and St. Edwards of Austin, Tex.

Assumption, from Worcester, Mass., climbed from sixth place on the strength of victories over Merrimack and Lemoyne that boosted its record to 14-1.

Instructions will cover the full range of racing techniques, including slalom and giant slalom racing. The clinic will start at 9:30 a. m. both days.

Rip Van Winkle Ski Council members include clubs from Kingston, Poughkeepsie, Beacon, Newburgh, Middletown, Monticello and Liberty as well as the Belleayre Ski Club and the West Point Ski Club.

Meanwhile, Council officials announced that the Highmount Cup Races originally scheduled for last Sunday and postponed because of poor conditions, will be held at 11 a. m. this Sunday at Highmount. No new entries will be accepted, but all racers already registered are qualified to participate.

PGA and Builder In Court Hassle Over New Course

PALM BEACH GARDENS, Fla. (AP)—A growing feud between the Professional Golfers Association and John D. MacArthur, salty multimillionaire builder of the new PGA National Golf Club headed Thursday toward a court decision.

MacArthur, head of the Bankers Life and Casualty Company of Chicago, and founder of Palm Beach Gardens, sued the PGA Wednesday charging that it had failed to execute a contract to buy the club.

MacArthur said he had spent more than $3 million building the club house and two 18-hole golf courses for the PGA, had more than a million coming back to him, and needed the PGA to move in and help him sell lots in Palm Beach Gardens, his development north of Palm Beach.

He claimed at a news conference that he had been stalled off in repeated attempts to get PGA officers to sit down with his attorneys and complete the contract.

Warren Cantrell, PGA president, reported that his organization was ready to fulfill the contract and take over the club whenever MacArthur could fulfill all building commitments and furnish clear title to the land.

Cantrell added that the PGA had just set up a conference with MacArthur's lawyers for next Tuesday to discuss the contract when it was hit with his lawsuit.

The battle flared as more than 400 golfers prepared to tee off Thursday over the new courses in the $30,000 PGA Seniors Tournament.

The first hint of trouble came last month when the PGA announced that several of its winter tournaments would be transferred from Palm Beach Gardens to Port St. Lucie, a golf resort north of here, because the new courses were not ready for competition.

MacArthur immediately got a circuit court injunction blocking the move and three of the tournaments have been played here.

Warriors Lead Two Full Games Thanks to N. Y.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

San Francisco's championship minded Warriors are receiving valuable aid from a couple of highly unexpected sources.

The Warriors have moved further ahead of their two Western Division challengers the past two nights, thanks to the National Basketball Association's cellar teams—New York and Detroit. San Francisco now leads second-place St. Louis by two games and third-place Los Angeles by 5½ games.

The Warriors stopped Cincinnati's 12-game winning streak 108-101 Wednesday night while last-place New York of the Eastern Division outscored St. Louis 120-114 and last-place Detroit of the West edged Los Angeles 116-115.

New York sneaked by Los Angeles Tuesday night 118-117.

In the other NBA game Wednesday night Philadelphia whipped Baltimore 130-122.

San Francisco used an unusual defensive maneuver in halting the league's longest winning streak of the season. Wayne Hightower, who normally plays up front, guarded Oscar Robertson, a backcourt man.

Chamberlain Hits 32

Nevertheless, the Royals recovered sufficiently in time to take a 59-57 halftime lead. Hightower, however, sparked a third-quarter spurt that put San Francisco ahead to stay. Hightower finished with 29 points while Wilt Chamberlain had 32.

New York, winning its second straight after nine consecutive losses, overcame a 15-point deficit and whipped the Hawks. A 12-point splurge in three minutes during the third period brought New York to within two points 84-82.

Bailey Howell's tip-in with 14 seconds remaining kept Detroit from setting a team record for losses in one season and knocked Los Angeles back another notch.

Howell's shot wiped out a Lakers' rally that brought them from a 96-86 disadvantage early in the final period to a one-point lead with 29 seconds left.

Philadelphia, paced by Chet Walker's 29 points, had little trouble with Baltimore. The 76ers scored 16 of the game's first 19 points, then rolled to a 69-54 halftime lead. Philadelphia scored 39 of its points in the opening quarter.

Meeting is open to all members of the KWBA. There will be a short business meeting a round table discussion on league rules and questions to follow.

Fifty Two Teams In Women's BPA

Fifty two top bowling teams, shooting for $6,460 in prize money, will compete in the Eighth Annual BPAA National Women's team championship Feb. 22-23 at Rochester.

The teams will vie at the 50-lane Clover Lanes, with $1,500 and trophies going to the victors. Pitch's Lounge and Restaurant of Milwaukee won the 1963 tournament at Milwaukee and set two records in doing so.

Pitch's talied the highest series (3043) and the highest 12-game score (11,384) in winning the title. The third record set last year was a 280 game by Lynne Highland of Chicago. She ended with a 690 series, second only to the 710 rolled by Maxine Little of Oxnard, Calif., in 1960.

KBA Thanks All Who Assisted

The tournament committee of the Kingston Bowling Association today acknowledged with appreciation the assistance and cooperation of the women of the KWBA, as well as many junior bowlers who assisted in scorekeeping in the recent tournament.

Thanks were also extended to bowlers of the Ferraro Sunday Night Mixed League and Mid-City Mixed League who relinquished Sunday night schedules for the KBA tournament. The press and radio were also thanked for their assistance.

Awards for bowlers finishing in the money will be distributed in about a month, following a re-check of all averages of winners. A victory banquet for the champions and trophy winners will be announced following the March 10 meeting of the KBA's executive committee.

Warriors Lead Two Full Games Thanks to N. Y.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

San Francisco's championship minded Warriors are receiving valuable aid from a couple of highly unexpected sources.

The Warriors have moved further ahead of their two Western Division challengers the past two nights, thanks to the National Basketball Association's cellar teams—New York and Detroit. San Francisco now leads second-place St. Louis by two games and third-place Los Angeles by 5½ games.

The Warriors stopped Cincinnati's 12-game winning streak 108-101 Wednesday night while last-place New York of the Eastern Division outscored St. Louis 120-114 and last-place Detroit of the West edged Los Angeles 116-115.

New York sneaked by Los Angeles Tuesday night 118-117.

In the other NBA game Wednesday night Philadelphia whipped Baltimore 130-122.

San Francisco used an unusual defensive maneuver in halting the league's longest winning streak of the season. Wayne Hightower, who normally plays up front, guarded Oscar Robertson, a backcourt man.

Chamberlain Hits 32

Nevertheless, the Royals recovered sufficiently in time to take a 59-57 halftime lead. Hightower, however, sparked a third-quarter spurt that put San Francisco ahead to stay. Hightower finished with 29 points while Wilt Chamberlain had 32.

New York, winning its second straight after nine consecutive losses, overcame a 15-point deficit and whipped the Hawks. A 12-point splurge in three minutes during the third period brought New York to within two points 84-82.

Bailey Howell's tip-in with 14 seconds remaining kept Detroit from setting a team record for losses in one season and knocked Los Angeles back another notch.

Howell's shot wiped out a Lakers' rally that brought them from a 96-86 disadvantage early in the final period to a one-point lead with 29 seconds left.

Philadelphia, paced by Chet Walker's 29 points, had little trouble with Baltimore. The 76ers scored 16 of the game's first 19 points, then rolled to a 69-54 halftime lead. Philadelphia scored 39 of its points in the opening quarter.

DePaul Scores First Win Over St. Bonaventure

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

"If we had to lose to DePaul it's just as well we got beat now instead of in the NIT."

Maybe Larry Weise, coach of the St. Bonaventure college basketball team, didn't say those words Wednesday night, but he might have after the Bonnies lost to DePaul for the first time ever, 81-76.

It was a sort of preview of a possible rematch in next month's National Invitation Bonnies had accepted a bid to the NIT. DePaul, ninth-ranked nationally in The Associated Press poll, had been named earlier this week.

The Blue Demons, beaten by the Bonnies 71-67 last season and in three other previous games, withstood a late rally by the Bonnies before 4,265 at their Alumni Gym in Chicago.

Come Close

Fred Crawford with 25 points, nine of them in the late rally, led the boys from Olean, N.Y., Dave Mills topped DePaul with 22.

In another game involving tourney-bound teams, Pitt, in the NIT, whipped Temple, in the NCAA, 78-67. Louisville, also in the NCAA, humbled St. Francis, Pa., 84-70.

Ohio Univ. edged Miami of Ohio 63-60 for the lead in the Mid-American Conference and Penn State defeated West Virginia 86-76 for its eighth straight victory in other games on the slim national program.

RPI Skaters Edge Providence, 5-4

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute had a hockey victory over powerful Providence today to take the sting from a disappointing road trip last week.

Jerry Knightley's goal from 30 feet broke a third-period tie at Providence Wednesday night and gave the Engineers a 5-4 triumph over the Friars.

In other action involving an Upstate team, high-riding Colgate skated into ambush against Yale. The Elis sent Waldo Johnston in with the winning goal in the final seconds to gain a 5-4 victory in a game at New Haven, Conn.

Knightley's goal provided RPI with its 12th victory in 16 games. And it buoyed the Engineers after their losses last week to St. Lawrence and Clarkson. Providence has a record of 11 victories and 5 defeats.

Hunting Deaths Drop to New Record Low in State in '63

The State Conservation Department today reported that hunting deaths in New York State dropped to a near record low last year with nine fatalities included among a total of 147 hunting accidents.

Department statistics based on nearly one million licensed hunters show that one out of every 6,400 hunters was involved in a shooting mishap. In 1962, there were 102 accidents, including 11 fatalities.

A summary of 1963 casualties show that it is not the "stray bullet" that causes most accidents. There were 56 self-inflicted injuries, 82 hunters were shot by their companions and only nine accidents were blamed on unknown shooters.

Carelessness continues to reign as the "number one" cause of hunting accidents, according to Dr. W. Mason Lawrence, Assistant Commissioner for Fish and Game.

Department investigations show 26 persons wounded because they stood between the shooter and his target, 15 hunters were mistaken for game, ricochetting bullets accounted for 16 accidents and 21 persons were maimed when the shooter fell or tripped.

Other accidents or the manner in which they occurred include: gun falling (6); fence crossing (3); holding gun by muzzle (1); hunting with safety off (6); clogged gun (7); loaded gun in car (2); careless handling in general (24) and miscellaneous causes (20).

According to Dr. Lawrence, a record 120,000 hunters were certified under the Department's Hunter Safety Training Program during 1963. In the 14 years that a safety training program has been conducted in the State, hunting fatalities have been cut 35 per cent — even though the total number of hunters afield has nearly doubled.

Under New York Law, a previously unlicensed or new hunter is required to pass the safety training program before obtaining a license. It is estimated that approximately 85 per cent of the State's active hunters have completed the program.

A detailed breakdown of the 1963 hunting accidents shows 69 hunters wounded by shotguns, 66 by rifle fire and 12 by pistol fire or undertermined firearms. There were no reported bow and arrow mishaps.

Hunting casualties tabulated by animals being hunted were: big game (12); pheasants (3); partridge (12); waterfowl (1); rabbits and varying hare (16); squirrels (4); raccoon (1); other small game (14). Also, woodchucks (23); crows (2); pigeons (2); miscellaneous (10) and unknown (47).

A total of 70 persons 20 years old or younger were involved in the 147 accidents recorded.

Banner Season Forecast at Spa

SARATOGA SPRINGS — Another banner year and a rich purse schedule is in the books for horsemen competing at Saratoga Raceway during the 1964 season, May 28 - October 24. About a half-million dollars in purses for feature races will be offered horsemen. These will include 108 early-closing events, the Battle of Saratoga competition and the New York Sire Stakes.

Director of Racing Harold M. Haswell has announced there will be 81 consecutive nights of racing during the summer meeting, May 28-August 29, conducted by the Saratoga Harness Racing Association. Included will be 84 early closers with a minimum value of $264,000, about $120,000 in the Battle of Saratoga events during Grand Circuit Week, June 29-July 4, and six events in the New York Sire Stakes the week of August 24-29.

Summer meet programming will include 14 early closing series, with 24 events at $5,000 each, 24 at $3,000 each and 36 at $2,000 each. Horses must be nominated in all legs of a series to be eligible to any leg and if conditioned events split into two divisions, 50 per cent will be added to the purse, with horses declaring divided according to their accumulative earnings within the series. Nominations close February 15, with the nominating fees the same as 1963, one per cent to nominate and one per cent to start.

Tall Man (7 Foot) In Tall Company With OCU Cagers

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Eddy Jackson, the tallest member of the tallest college basketball team in the country, is almost as diversified as he is long.

The 7-foot center for Oklahoma City University, a lean 220-pounder with a quick wit and a ready smile, is or has been all these things, in no set order:

The first 7-footer to play at OCU.

The first Negro to play at OCU.

OCU, with a line-up that averages from 6-foot-5 to a fraction under 6-7½, depending on which five players get the starting call, was named Wednesday as the 10th at-large team for the NCAA Tournament. The lanky Jackson is one of the big reasons.

He is the team's second leading scorer with a 14-point average and is the top rebounder. And on a team which abounds with professional prospects, he is the only one to actually receive a feeler from a National Basketball Association team at this early date.

Finley Goes On AL Carpet Friday

BOSTON (AP) — The American League calls Charles O. Finley, recalcitrant owner of the Kansas City Athletics, on the carpet Friday.

The question that the league wants answered is:

Why hasn't Finley signed a lease with Kansas City so the A's will have a place to play this season?

The baseball season opens in less than two months. Spring training starts next week.

Originally, Finley wanted to move his club from Kansas City because of poor attendance. But he was turned down by the American League owners in his bid to shift his franchise to Louisville, Ky. The vote was 9-1. Finley was the only one voting for the shift.

Insisted on Lease

Finley then insisted that he would sign a Municipal Stadium lease in Kansas City for two years. And for two years only.

City officials held out for a four-year lease.

Many meetings and much discussion by both sides and by attorneys failed to settle the differences.

The American League also has threatened to take Finley's franchise away from him—to kick him out of the league, in other words.

Finley replied that the league has no power to take his franchise and has threatened to sue the league for refusing him permission to move to Louisville.

Finley has retained attorney Louis Nizer for the threatened suit.

DePaul Scores First Win Over St. Bonaventure

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

"If we had to lose to DePaul it's just as well we got beat now instead of in the NIT."

Maybe Larry Weise, coach of the St. Bonaventure college basketball team, didn't say those words Wednesday night, but he might have after the Bonnies lost to DePaul for the first time ever, 81-76.

It was a sort of preview of a possible rematch in next month's National Invitation Bonnies had accepted a bid to the NIT. DePaul, ninth-ranked nationally in The Associated Press poll, had been named earlier this week.

The Blue Demons, beaten by the Bonnies 71-67 last season and in three other previous games, withstood a late rally by the Bonnies before 4,265 at their Alumni Gym in Chicago.

Come Close

Behind by 11 points the Bonnies surged to within three points at 77-74 with two minutes left, but couldn't get any closer as DePaul converted four straight free throws.

Fred Crawford with 25 points, nine of them in the late rally, led the boys from Olean, N.Y., Dave Mills topped DePaul with 22.

In another game involving tourney-bound teams, Pitt, in the NIT, whipped Temple, in the NCAA, 78-67. Louisville, also in the NCAA, humbled St. Francis, Pa., 84-70.

Ohio Univ. edged Miami of Ohio 63-60 for the lead in the Mid-American Conference and Penn State defeated West Virginia 86-76 for its eighth straight victory in other games on the slim national program.

RPI Skaters Edge Providence, 5-4

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute had a hockey victory over powerful Providence today to take the sting from a disappointing road trip last week.

Jerry Knightley's goal from 30 feet broke a third-period tie at Providence Wednesday night and gave the Engineers a 5-4 triumph over the Friars.

In other action involving an Upstate team, high-riding Colgate skated into ambush against Yalé. The Elis sent Waldo Johnston in with the winning goal in the final seconds to gain a 5-4 victory in a game at New Haven, Conn.

Knightley's goal provided RPI with its 12th victory in 16 games. And it buoyed the Engineers after their losses last week to St. Lawrence and Clarkson. Providence has a record of 11 victories and 5 defeats.

Hunting Deaths Drop to New Record Low in State in '63

The State Conservation Department today reported that hunting deaths in New York State dropped to a near record low last year with nine fatalities included among a total of 147 hunting accidents.

Department statistics based on nearly one million licensed hunters show that one out of every 6,400 hunters was involved in a shooting mishap. In 1962, there were 102 accidents, including 11 fatalities.

A summary of 1963 casualties show that it is not the "stray bullet" that causes most accidents. There were 56 self-inflicted injuries, 82 hunters were shot by their companions and only nine accidents were blamed on unknown shooters.

Carelessness continues to reign as the "number one" cause of hunting accidents, according to Dr. W. Mason Lawrence, Assistant Commissioner for Fish and Game.

Department investigations show 26 persons wounded because they stood between the shooter and his target, 15 hunters were mistaken for game, ricochetting bullets accounted for 16 accidents and 21 persons were maimed when the shooter fell or tripped.

Other accidents or the manner in which they occurred include: gun falling (6); fence crossing (3); holding gun by muzzle (1); hunting with safety off (6); clogged gun (7); loaded gun in car (2); careless handling in general (24) and miscellaneous causes (20).

According to Dr. Lawrence, a record 120,000 hunters were certified under the Department's Hunter Safety Training Program during 1963. In the 14 years that a safety training program has been conducted in the State, hunting fatalities have been cut 35 per cent — even though the total number of hunters afield has nearly doubled.

Under New York Law, a previously unlicensed or new hunter is required to pass the safety training program before obtaining a license. It is estimated that approximately 85 per cent of the State's active hunters have completed the program.

A detailed breakdown of the 1963 hunting accidents shows 69 hunters wounded by shotguns, 66 by rifle fire and 12 by pistol fire or undertermined firearms. There were no reported bow and arrow mishaps.

Hunting casualties tabulated by animals being hunted were: big game (12); pheasants (3); partridge (12); waterfowl (1); rabbits and varying hare (16); squirrels (4); raccoon (1); other small game (14). Also, woodchucks (23); crows (2); pigeons (2); miscellaneous (10) and unknown (47).

A total of 70 persons 20 years old or younger were involved in the 147 accidents recorded.

Banner Season Forecast at Spa

SARATOGA SPRINGS — Another banner year and a rich purse schedule is in the books for horsemen competing at Saratoga Raceway during the 1964 season, May 28 - October 24. About a half-million dollars in purses for feature races will be offered horsemen. These will include 108 early-closing events, the Battle of Saratoga competition and the New York Sire Stakes.

Director of Racing Harold M. Haswell has announced there will be 81 consecutive nights of racing during the summer meeting, May 28-August 29, conducted by the Saratoga Harness Racing Association. Included will be 84 early closers with a minimum value of $264,000, about $120,000 in the Battle of Saratoga events during Grand Circuit Week, June 29-July 4, and six events in the New York Sire Stakes the week of August 24-29.

Summer meet programming will include 14 early closing series, with 24 events at $5,000 each, 24 at $3,000 each and 36 at $2,000 each. Horses must be nominated in all legs of a series to be eligible to any leg and if conditioned events split into two divisions, 50 per cent will be added to the purse, with horses declaring divided according to their accumulative earnings within the series. Nominations close February 15, with the nominating fees the same as 1963, one per cent to nominate and one per cent to start.

Tall Man (7 Foot) In Tall Company With OCU Cagers

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Eddy Jackson, the tallest member of the tallest college basketball team in the country, is almost as diversified as he is long.

The 7-foot center for Oklahoma City University, a lean 220-pounder with a quick wit and a ready smile, is or has been all these things, in no set order:

The first 7-footer to play at OCU.

The first Negro to play at OCU.

A 6-8 high school football quarterback who impressed some college grid coaches.

OCU, with a line-up that averages from 6-foot-5 to a fraction under 6-7½, depending on which five players get the starting call, was named Wednesday as the 10th at-large team for the NCAA Tournament. The lanky Jackson is one of the big reasons.

He is the team's second leading scorer with a 14-point average and is the top rebounder. And on a team which abounds with professional prospects, he is the only one to actually receive a feeler from a National Basketball Association team at this early date.

Finley Goes On AL Carpet Friday

BOSTON (AP) — The American League calls Charles O. Finley, recalcitrant owner of the Kansas City Athletics, on the carpet Friday.

The question that the league wants answered is:

Why hasn't Finley signed a lease with Kansas City so the A's will have a place to play this season?

The baseball season opens in less than two months. Spring training starts next week.

AL President Joe Cronin called the meeting last weekend after a second extension of the deadline for lease-signing expired Saturday night.

Originally, Finley wanted to move his club from Kansas City because of poor attendance. But he was turned down by the American League owners in his bid to shift his franchise to Louisville, Ky. The vote was 9-1. Finley was the only one voting for the shift.

Insisted on Lease

Finley then insisted that he would sign a Municipal Stadium lease in Kansas City for two years. And for two years only.

City officials held out for a four-year lease.

Many meetings and much discussion by both sides and by attorneys failed to settle the differences.

The American League also has threatened to take Finley's franchise away from him—to kick him out of the league, in other words.

Finley replied that the league has no power to take his franchise and has threatened to sue the league for refusing him permission to move to Louisville.

Finley has retained attorney Louis Nizer for the threatened suit.

Hearing on Ticket Scalping Draws Big Names to Capitol

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—A public hearing on bills designed to stamp out ticket scalping and other abuses in the theater industry drew a galaxy of famous Broadway names to the Capitol today.

Actors Equity sent Lillian Gish, Celeste Holm and Dick Moore as its observers.

The roster of speakers included composer Richard Rodgers, actor Conrad Nagle, producers David Merrick and Leland Hayward and noted investor Howard Cullman.

The hearing, in the Assembly Chamber (1:30 p.m. EST), was called by the Legislature's fiscal committees and codes committees on three bills sought by Atty. Gen. Louis J. Lefkowitz.

Lefkowitz called for new legislation after a year-long investigation by his office into ticket scalping and complaints by investors that their funds were being mishandled.

One of the bills would make it a misdemeanor, carrying stiff fines and jail sentences, for any theater operator or employe to sell show tickets above the established price.

Another would require theater owners and operators to register with the State Law Department before they could sell tickets and conform to rules and regulations set by the attorney general to prevent abuses.

The third measure would require owners and operators to keep accurate financial records, listing the names of investors, sponsors and employes and all pertinent data on production expenses.

At previous public hearings conducted by Lefkowitz, testimony revealed that some producers received kickbacks from scenery and costume companies and that ticket brokers were paying theater employes up to $10 million a year to get the best seats for hit shows. Brokers in turn would sell them for high prices.

In a joint statement issued before the hearing, the fiscal committee chairmen, Assemblyman Fred W. Preller and Sen. Elisha T. Barrett, said the bills "are designed to help to restore confidence to the Broadway theater" and bring back theater-goers who stayed away because they could not get tickets.

Hearing on Ticket Scalping Draws Big Names to Capitol

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—A public hearing on bills designed to stamp out ticket scalping and other abuses in the theater industry drew a galaxy of famous Broadway names to the Capitol today.

Actors Equity sent Lillian Gish, Celeste Holm and Dick Moore as its observers.

The roster of speakers included composer Richard Rodgers, actor Conrad Nagle, producers David Merrick and Leland Hayward and noted investor Howard Cullman.

The hearing, in the Assembly Chamber (1:30 p.m. EST), was called by the Legislature's fiscal committees and codes committees on three bills sought by Atty. Gen. Louis J. Lefkowitz.

Lefkowitz called for new legislation after a year-long investigation by his office into ticket scalping and complaints by investors that their funds were being mishandled.

One of the bills would make it a misdemeanor, carrying stiff fines and jail sentences, for any theater operator or employe to sell show tickets above the established price.

Another would require theater owners and operators to register with the State Law Department before they could sell tickets and conform to rules and regulations set by the attorney general to prevent abuses.

The third measure would require owners and operators to keep accurate financial records, listing the names of investors, sponsors and employes and all pertinent data on production expenses.

At previous public hearings conducted by Lefkowitz, testimony revealed that some producers received kickbacks from scenery and costume companies and that ticket brokers were paying theater employes up to $10 million a year to get the best seats for hit shows. Brokers in turn would sell them for high prices.

In a joint statement issued before the hearing, the fiscal committee chairmen, Assemblyman Fred W. Preller and Sen. Elisha T. Barrett, said the bills "are designed to help to restore confidence to the Broadway theater" and bring back theater-goers who stayed away because they could not get tickets.

Storm Thwarts Primary Place

BRADFORD, Pa. (AP)—Peter J. Pascuzzi said a snowstorm made him seven minutes too late to file as a candidate in a primary election.

Pascuzzi, a Republican from Bradford, reported he intended to enter the April 28 GOP primary for assemblyman from McKean County.

He said he drove Wednesday to the Pennsylvania state capitol in Harrisburg, but arrived seven minutes after state offices closed.

Wednesday was the last day to file with the state for candidacy in the primary.

Freight Derailed

(x) Everyone is entitled to one exemption for himself and one for each dependent. A married couple has two, a married couple with two children four, etc.

(xx) There is no withholding at this level, under present law or the new bill.

This table reflects the difference between the new and old withholding rates. How much tax you actually will owe depends on a variety of factors and the withholding is only roughly gauged to your tax bill—it may come out right at the end of the year, or you may get a refund or have to pay a difference.

To compute the difference on wages and salaries above $200 a week, take the appropriate figure for $200 and add 4 per cent of the excess over $200.

Serves Jail Term For Phone Calls

TROY, N.Y. (AP)—An engineering student has made delayed payment — two days in jail—for some long - distance telephone calls.

Michael T. Spencer, an outstanding student in electrical engineering, pleaded guilty to a charge of disorderly conduct stemming from what police called an attempt to engineer a phony telephone set-up.

Police Court Justice Joseph F. Daly said Wednesday that Spencer, 19, of Franklin, Mich., a sophomore at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute here, had been sentenced to time already served—two days.

In a similar case, three Cornell University engineering students were arrested last Saturday night at their fraternity house and charged with fraudulent use of telephone equipment, a misdemeanor.

Police said the three youths devised an "ingenious" electrical device that enabled them to telephone anywhere in the country without charge.

Accidental, Is Ruling on Death, Figure in Ring

MINEOLA, N.Y. (AP)—Nassau County police have issued an official ruling of accidental death in the burning-auto death of Edmond Nugent, a figure in an investigation of a Long Island vice ring.

Nugent was found dead Feb. 11 in his smoke-filled car, parked outside a motel where he worked as a bartender. Authorities first listed the death as suspicious, saying that Nugent had discussed with them the housewives-for-sale ring in which he allegedly was a steerer.

Wednesday, however, police said he apparently dozed in the car and dropped a cigarette, setting the upholstery to smoldering.

Storm Thwarts Primary Place

BRADFORD, Pa. (AP)—Peter J. Pascuzzi said a snowstorm made him seven minutes too late to file as a candidate in a primary election.

Pascuzzi, a Republican from Bradford, reported he intended to enter the April 28 GOP primary for assemblyman from McKean County.

He said he drove Wednesday to the Pennsylvania state capitol in Harrisburg, but arrived seven minutes after state offices closed.

Wednesday was the last day to file with the state for candidacy in the primary.

Freight Derailed

CLYDE, N.Y. (AP) — Twelve cars of a New York Central freight train were derailed Wednesday near this Wayne County community. Both mainline tracks were blocked for several hours.

No injuries were reported.

Pay Increases Are Listed Under Tax-Cut Legislation

WASHINGTON (AP) — This table shows how much more take home pay some average U.S. wage and salary earners will receive, beginning probably in the first week of March, when the new tax bill is in effect:

(x) Everyone is entitled to one exemption for himself and one for each dependent. A married couple has two, a married couple with two children four, etc.

(xx) There is no withholding at this level, under present law or the new bill.

This table reflects the difference between the new and old withholding rates. How much tax you actually will owe depends on a variety of factors and the withholding is only roughly gauged to your tax bill—it may come out right at the end of the year, or you may get a refund or have to pay a difference.

To compute the difference on wages and salaries above $200 a week, take the appropriate figure for $200 and add 4 per cent of the excess over $200.

Serves Jail Term For Phone Calls

TROY, N.Y. (AP)—An engineering student has made delayed payment — two days in jail—for some long-distance telephone calls.

Michael T. Spencer, an outstanding student in electrical engineering, pleaded guilty to a charge of disorderly conduct stemming from what police called an attempt to engineer a phony telephone set-up.

Police Court Justice Joseph F. Daly said Wednesday that Spencer, 19, of Franklin, Mich., a sophomore at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute here, had been sentenced to time already served—two days.

In a similar case, three Cornell University engineering students were arrested last Saturday night at their fraternity house and charged with fraudulent use of telephone equipment, a misdemeanor.

Police said the three youths devised an "ingenious" electrical device that enabled them to telephone anywhere in the country without charge.

Nazarene Church To Hear Mission Speaker Tuesday

NEW PALTZ—Nazarene missionary, the Rev. Stanley E. Wilson will be guest speaker at the New Paltz Church of the Nazarene, Route 32 Tuesday, 7:30 p. m.

The Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, returned Nazarene teachers and missionaries to the Philippine Islands, are on a furlough in the United States, engaged in deputation work among churches of the denomination.

The Rev. Mr. Wilson has worked in various assignments during his term as a missionary. In church talks, he will describe the country and its people and tell about the Nazarene work there.

The Rev. Mr. Wilson was born in Michigan and graduated from Bethany Nazarene College, Bethany, Okla., where he secured a bachelor's degree in 1951. He took graduate work at the University of Michigan, earning a master's degree in education.

Prior to the assignment abroad, the Rev. Mr. Wilson pastored two years and was a school teacher and administrator six years in Michigan.

The Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson were accompanied home by a son and three daughters ranging in age from 16 to 2. Mrs. Wilson and the children will live in Case City, Mich., while the Rev. Mr. Wilson is on deputation calls. The service is open to the public.

Accidental, Is Ruling on Death, Figure in Ring

MINEOLA, N.Y. (AP)—Nassau County police have issued an official ruling of accidental death in the burning-auto death of Edmond Nugent, a figure in an investigation of a Long Island vice ring.

Nugent was found dead Feb. 11 in his smoke-filled car, parked outside a motel where he worked as a bartender. Authorities first listed the death as suspicious, saying that Nugent had discussed with them the housewives-for-sale ring in which he allegedly was a steerer.
